ing Company paid laborers $13 and miners $14 a week; now it pays $10,20 and $12, respectively, but does not afford employment more than half the time. The paper goes on; "The men are tired of hearing promises of better times and bigger pay. Be the times good or bad, little above starvation point. They are getting sick of all this. They are ripe for a change." One would naturally suppose that this picture of the desperate condition of the miners was published in a democratic Free-trade paper, and was designed to discredit the tariff system which the Philadelphia Press champions so ably. On the contrary, this account is taken from

he Press itself.

To those who have been unacquainted with the antecedents of Mr. Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, which shines for all," it would appear that he is a genuine political "gay deceiver." While he has been persistent, in season and out of season, in calling upon the people to "drive the rascals out," (meaning the Republican party) he has been at some loss as to who would be the best man to name among the Democrats to accomplish the object. Previous to the Democratic Convention he cast his sweet glances first npon one and then upon another. He was earnest for Tilden, winked approvingly at Bayard and was in ecstacies over Holman, with an occasional sly smile hat jealousy which "is the rage of a man" As the time fixed for the Convention drew near and he saw that none of his favorites were likely to secure the prize, he began cautiously and tenderly to ogle Ben Butler, and his at- novelties. tention to that bias-eyed widow became the boom for the latter became more prominent. As Butler was not nominated, however, and as Cleveland, nominated, the editor of the Sun, which "shines for all," was in something of a all the force at his command, and had called upon the Democratic party to perform that necessary and patriotic duty with such persuasive eloquence Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetter. AND ALL THE WEEK YOU WILL find

What makes a man feel as shaky as chills and fever? Its shake, shake, until you almost rattle your teeth out and shake the buttons off of your coat. What drives chills and fever out? Brown's Iron Bitters. If you have never tried it get some at once, and don't shake any more. Mr. Chas. M. New-ell, of Tettington, Va., says, . I used their pay remains much the same, a Brown's Iron Bitters las, fall for chills and fever, and derived great benefit." It is the best tonic known.
