The Daily Review.
WHAT LOVE IS.
It's a sort of palpitation,
Passionate reverberation,
In the vital habitation
Of the heart.
Effervescent oscillation—
Inexpressible sensation—
In continuous rotation
Forms a part.
A respectful invitation
To a very choice collation,
Lovely ride of long duration
In his cart.
Confidential conversation,
No attempted ostentation
Never ceasing admiration,
On his part.
Passionate reciprocation,
Caramels without cessation,
Form, in my imagination,
Cupid's dart.

The curative power of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is too well known to require the specious aid of any exaggerated or fictitious certificate. Witnesses of its marvelous cure are to-day living in every city and hamlet of the land. Write for names if you want home evidence.

AUGUST ANTICS.
Inquiring employer: "Are the young man's habits regular?" "Yes; he gets drunk nearly every night."
The newest design in fur and feather ornamentation for bonnets is a cat sitting on a boot-jack with a canary bird in its mouth.
A good farmer, with his wife on his arm, cries out to a teamster: "Why do you beat your horse so cruelly?" "Because I haven't any wife."

A Michigan woman, on recovering from a fit, discovered her husband kissing the servant girl. He explained that he was driven crazy by anxiety about his wife, and she took one contemptuous look at the servant girl and said she believed him. But she hasn't had a fit since.
A man was garroted and robbed just in front of the Tombs, in New York in broad daylight the other day. The highwayman knew his business. Had the man resisted, the highwayman could have called the police and had him clabbed into insensibility, when he could rob him at his ease.
A guest in a French salon is bidding good-bye to a poet to whom he has just been presented. "I am delighted, sir," "he says, to have enjoyed the opportunity of making the acquaintance of an author of your talent." "Talent!" says the bard with a sneer; "I suppose it would have blistered your tongue to say 'genius!'"

Allen's Bilious physic is a purely vegetable liquid remedy for Headaches, Biliousness and Constipation. Easily taken, acts promptly, relieving quickly, 25 cts. At all Druggists.
She Expected to Be
At Vassar they do not allow the young ladies to drive out with the male men unless there is a near relationship between them or unless there is an engagement on the boards. A Vassar daisy asked permission to take a drive with a young man. "Is he your father, brother, or cousin?" "No, ma'am."
"Are you engaged to him?" "No, ma'am," and then the crimson rushed from her neck and cuddled up among her bangs, "but I expect to be before we get back."
She was allowed to go.—Hatchet.

Instantly Relieved.
Mrs. Ann Lacour, of New Orleans, La., writes: "I have a son who has been sick for two years; he has been attended by our leading physicians, but all to no purpose. This morning he had his usual spell of coughing, and was so greatly prostrated in consequence, that death seemed imminent. We had in the house a bottle of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, purchased by my husband, who noticed your advertisement yesterday. We administered it, and he was instantly relieved."
He Experimented.
He was a bashful wooer, but there was a certain manliness about him which indicated that he needed a little encouragement to let himself out. She saw this and she resolved on a policy of encouragement.
"Do you believe these stories in the funny papers," she asked, "about the willingness of young ladies to be kissed?"
"I—I really can't say," he replied.
"They may be true." Then, gathering courage, he added; "I hope they are true," and he drew closer to her.
"It seems to me," she said, "that there is only one way in which a young man can discover whether they are true or not."
"And what way is that?" he asked.
There was a brief pause. Then with a far away look in her eyes, she answered:
"By experimenting when he has the opportunity."
He experimented.

The Mormon Temple.
The great building at Salt Lake, which the Mormons have been twenty-eight years in constructing, is approaching completion. The main walls are done. It is built of granite, back of Salt Lake, on great wagons or trucks, with wheels twelve feet high. The walls are ten feet in thickness and eighty-five feet in height. It has cost up to this time $4,500,000, which has been collected by the tithing tax. It will require six years more to finish the work. Probably no other church building in the United States has been constructed in a way to secure such durability as is possible to this. Some of those who predict the early ruin of the Mormon hierarchy are wondering that they can make of this temple.

An Immense Region.
The Big Woods of Minnesota are rightly named, for they cover 5,000 square miles, or 3,200,000 acres of surface. These woods contain only hardwood growths, including white and black oak, maple, hickory, basswood, elm, cottonwood, tamarack and enough other varieties to make an aggregate of over thirty different kinds. The hardwood tract extends in a belt across the middle of the State, and surrounding its northeastern corner is an immense pine region covering 21,000 square miles, or 13,440,000 square acres.

The most deadly foe to all malarial disease is Ayer's Aque Cure, a combination of vegetable ingredients only, of which the most valuable is used in no other known preparation. This remedy is an absolute and certain specific, and succeeds when all other medicines fail. A cure is warranted.
Hints for Hot Weather.
Don't shake the hornet's nest to see if any of the family are at home. Don't go near a draught. If a draught come toward you, run away. A slight draught is most dangerous. Don't blow in the gun your grandfather carried in the war of 1812. It is more dangerous now than it was then. Don't hold a wasp by the other end while you throw it out in front of the stove to see if it is alive. It is generally alive.
Don't try to persuade a bulldog to give up a yard of which it is in possession. Possession to a bulldog is ten points of law.
She Needed No Protector.
Thomas Pennant, in his "Tours in Wales" speaks of a Welsh amazon named Margaret Eyan, who lives at Pentlyn. She is at the time above ninety years of age. She was the greatest hunter, shooter, and fisher of her time. She kept at least a dozen dogs, killed more foxes in one year than all the cotterade hunters do in ten; rowed stoutly and was queen of the lake; fiddled excellently and knew all old music; did not neglect the mechanical arts, for she was a very good joiner, and at the age of seventy was the best wrestler in the country, and few young men dared to try a fall with her. Margaret was also blacksmith, shoemaker, boat builder, and maker of harps. She shod her own horse, made her own shoes and built her own boats while under contract to convey copper up and down the lakes. All the neighboring bards celebrated her exploits. She had many admirers, but gave her hand to the most effeminate of them.

Platform of the Democratic Party of North Carolina.
We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the career of peace, prosperity and good government on which she entered after the inauguration of a Democratic State administration, and which has been unbroken for so many years since; upon the just and impartial enforcement of the laws; upon the efficiency of our common school system, and the great progress made in popular education; and upon the general improvement and enterprise manifested in every part of the State. And we again challenge a comparison between this state of things and the crimes, outrages and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders; and we pledge ourselves to exert, in the future, as we have done in the past, our best efforts to promote the material interests of all sections of the State.

Resolved, That we regard a free and fair expression of the public will at the ballot-box as the only sure means of preserving our free American institutions, and that the corrupt and corrupting use of federal patronage, in influencing and controlling elections is dangerous to the liberties of the State and the Union.
Resolved, That we are in favor of the unconditional and immediate abolition of the whole internal revenue system, as an intolerable burden, a standing menace to the freedom of elections, and a source of great annoyance and corruption in its practical operation.
Resolved, That no government has a right to burden its people with taxes beyond the amount required to pay its necessary expenses and gradually extinguish its public debt. And that whenever the revenues, however derived, exceed this amount, they should be reduced so as to avoid a surplus in the treasury. We therefore urge upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress to exert themselves in favor of such legislation as will secure this end.
Resolved, That with respect to the tariff we reaffirm the life-long and fundamental principles of the party declared in the National Democratic platforms and that the details of the method by which the constitutional revenue tariff shall be gradually reached, are subjects which the party's representatives at the Federal Capitol must be trusted to adjust; but in our opinion the duties on foreign importation should be reduced so as to avoid a surplus in the treasury, and the discriminations in its adjustment should be such as would place the highest rates on luxuries and the lowest on the necessities of life, distribute as equally as possible the burdens of taxation and confer the greatest good to the greatest number of the American people.
Resolved, That the course of the Democratic party in furtherance of popular education, by efficient public schools in all sections, and the establishment of graded and normal schools in the larger towns and accessible centers, is a sufficient guarantee that we favor the education of all classes of our people and we will promote and improve the present educational advantages so far as it can be done without burdening the people by excessive taxation.
AND WHEREAS, There is now more than a hundred millions of dollars in the treasury of the United States, wrung from the pockets of the people by unjust taxation on the part of the Republican party, therefore,
Resolved, That we will accept such distribution of said surplus revenues of the government for educational purposes as may be made by the Congress of the United States; provided always, has the same shall be disbursed by State agents and not accompanied by objectionable features and embarrassing conditions.

Resolved, That it is due to the white people of our eastern counties, who have so cheerfully borne their share of our common burdens, that the present, or some other equally effective system of county government, shall be maintained.
Resolved, That in view of the existing and increasing harmony and kindly feeling between the two races in this State and a similar condition of things which we believe to exist generally in other Southern States, we deprecate the attempt of the Republican party in its recent platform at Chicago to force civil rights as a living issue, and we denounce it as a fire brand and a hypocritical expression of interest in the black race, a wanton insult to the whites of the South, and tending to stir up strife between the now friendly races.

Hardened Liver.
Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.
All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave. J. W. MOREY, Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.
Poverty and Suffering.
"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.
I was completely discouraged, until one year ago by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."—A WORKINGMAN.
