The father of Col. John A. Martin, the Republican candidate for Governor of Kansas, has just celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday.

Miss Maud Banks, daughter of Gen. N. P. Banks, will try to be a "star" next season in "East Lynne," "Leah," "Adrienne" and "Romeo and Juliet."

Judge Daniel Tilden, of the Probate Court, who has been nominated for reelection by the Republicans of Cleveland, Ohio, has held the office about thirty years.

Abram R. Eno, the aged father of the absconding speculator, is still mortgaging his property in New York to cover losses of about $3,500,000 spent in trying to save his son.

The Philadelphia branches of the Catholic Knights of America propose to give a reception to Archbishop Ryan at an early date, and to present to him a set of testimonial resolutions, handsomely engrossed and framed.

The Russian Government has decided to purchase of its English owner the celebrated "Adoration of the Magi," by Paul Veronez. The purchase price is $12,000. The picture will adorn the cathedral now building on the site of the assassination of the late Czar.

The New York Sun, says the Boston Post, has done detective work of more or less value while claiming to belong to the Democratic party, but its defection and its discontent in both the Republican and Democratic parties have had no higher source than the personal disappointments of its editor.

Great Chief of Records Joshua Maris, Impoverished Order of Red Men, died at his residence, No. 601 Shipley street, Wilmington, Del., Wednesday, August 13. He has been for some eighteen or more great sons the Great Chief of Records of the Grand Council of the United States, and has attained all the honors of the Order.

General James Shields, who served with distinguished honors in three wars and at different times represented three States in the United States Senate, lies in a grave unmarked even by a simple stone. The grave is at Carrollton, Missouri; but it is New York, and by James Shields Post 69, G. A. R., that steps have just been taken toward providing a monument for the veteran.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1884. NO. 197

The Lynn (Mass.) Bee has nominated Charles A. Dana for Vice President on the Butler ticket.

Count Von Munster, German Ambassador to England, will soon publish an elaborate annual on cookery.

It now appears that St. John, the Prohibition candidate, is sailing under false colors. His magnificent moustache is dyed.

Morganatic marriages have been wonderfully common in the houses of Hesse-Cassel and Hesse-Darmstadt during the last century. Within the last eighty years there have been no fewer than sixteen.

Gen. Logan has redeemed his reputation as philologist and grammarian by his speech at Herkimer, in which he addressed the "old veterans," and alluded to these double ancients as "them who," &c.

Gen. Longstreet has gone back to his old business of keeping an inn at Gainesville, Ga., and his ability to keep a hotel in the most improved modern method is undoubted by those who remember his terrible charges in war time.

General George B. McClellan's great-grandmother, Mrs. Samuel McClellan, planted three elms in Woodstock, Conn., when she heard the news of the battle of Lexington, and to-day they are the pride of the place, the largest and finest elms in the town.

Prince Bismarck, it is said, distrusts an Englishman who speaks French perfectly. This is from no contempt for linguistic attainments, for the Chancellor, albeit no man of books, is one of the best of linguists. But he evidently holds that an Englishman very familiar with France and the French is an Englishman spoiled.

A member of the State Legislature, Hon. G. W. Hayzlett, Waterloo, Ia., says he considers St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-reliever, the greatest remedy ever used for bodily ailments. 50 cents a bottle.

New moon to-morrow afternoon at 40 minutes past 4 o'clock.

The hot wave seems to have reached us in good earnest, this time.

Fullest assortment of Fishing Tackle can be found at JACOBI'S.

There were quite a number of flat loads of wood at the docks this morning and it was being sold at quite reasonable prices.

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boys Clipper Plow," greatest invention of the age. JACOBI is the Agent.

The easterly winds which we have had for a week past have seriously interfered with the supply of fish, crabs and shrimps in this market.

Bad colds are prevailing to a remarkable extent among our citizens. Nearly every one is afflicted, but we are glad to hear of no very serious cases.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

The Seaside Park Base Ball Club have some thought of going to Raleigh on the 29th inst., but have not yet made up their minds fully whether to go or not.

Guy Wright's band was out again last night at the head of some sort of a procession which paraded the city from the vicinity of Seventh and Walnut to the Southeastern suburbs.

The schooner Estella Day, Capt. Williams, which arrived here from New York a day or two since, made the run from bar to bar in four days, which was a quick passage for a sailing vessel at this time of year.

There was some kind of religious ceremony going on last night at a colored church on Seventh street, which aroused the entire neighborhood. The meeting was kept up, it is said, until nearly 3 o'clock this morning, and the demonstrations during its progress were very noisy, so much so, indeed, we are informed, that but few within hearing of it could sleep. Such practices are turning liberty into license.

Slight Fire.
There was a slight fire in the dwelling of John Nolan, colored, on Sixth street, between Walnut and Red Cross, at about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. No alarm was given, and the flames were extinguished by the application of a few buckets full of water. Damage slight.

City Court.
Two men, whose names we suppress by request, were brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. In one case a fine of $10 was imposed while the other was discharged.

Charles Burnett and William Collins, two colored boys, for fighting in the streets, were sent below for 12 hours. T. Douglass, colored, for throwing rocks in the street, was discharged.

Old Hundred.
The match game of Old Hundred, between the Benedict and Bachelor Clubs, of this city, mention of which we made a few days since, will be played at Seaside Park next Friday afternoon. It will undoubtedly draw a large concourse of spectators and will be a hotly contested game. There will be a concert on the same night at the Seaside Park Hotel, at which Mrs. Kahnweiler will sing, besides which there will be other vocal and instrumental music.

Another Slight Fire.
About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in the two-story frame tenement house on the corner of Queen and Surry streets, occupied by several colored families. The alarm was promptly given and the fire department quickly en route for the scene, but when they reached there the flames had been extinguished by the judicious application of a few buckets full of water. The damage was very slight.

A Suggestion.
Our attention has been called to the fact that, in cases where persons die in this city and their remains are conveyed to some other place for interment, no physician's certificate is required and consequently no record is kept. When persons dying within the city are buried in either of our cemeteries a physician's certificate, with cause of death, age, &c., is necessary, and it seems to us that there should, in order to make the vital statistics of the city correct, be the same formality in the case of all who die here whether they are interred within the city or elsewhere.

Theatrical.
The following theatrical and Musical companies have made engagements at the Opera House here for the coming season, many of them for two nights each. The first appearance will be Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe, to be followed by Bertha Weatherby, Frank Mayo, Our Strategists, William Harris, Miss Olcott, Harry Webber, Fulton's Minstrels, Gus Williams, Peck's Bad Boy, Dan Sully, Milton Nobles, W. E. Scanlan and the Silver King Co. The companies will appear in the order named, but we are unable to give the date of appearance of either of them. There are others which will undoubtedly be booked later in the season.

Personal.
Mr. J. R. Paddison, of Point Caswell, was in the city to-day. He reports the crops in his section as looking finely with every prospect of a golden harvest. So mote it be.
Mr. Samuel Player, a venerable citizen of the Bannerman's Bridge section, is in the city and paid us a pleasant visit this morning. We are sorry to hear from him that the crops in his neighborhood are rather sorry, caused by too much rain.
Mr. Kemp P. Batchelor, of Raleigh, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Harry Loeb. He will return to-night and Mrs. Loeb will go with him and after remaining a few weeks with her parents in Raleigh will go to her husband at Waymansville, Ga., where Mr. Loeb now resides.

The degree of D. D. was recently conferred by the University of the South at Sawance on Bishop Watson, of this city, who, however, has for many years past enjoyed that distinction. Bishop Watson was present on the occasion and he was invested with the hood by the venerable Bishop Green, who was also present.

Schr. M. C. Moseley, Rumill, cleared to-day for Jeremie Hayti, with 207,225 feet lumber and 71,800 shingles, valued at $4,948.71, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Is Pompey Sneed to be allowed to go scot-free and to roam wherever he pleases in the suburbs of the city unchecked in his depredations? The same authorities who outlawed him would do well, we think, to offer a reward for his apprehension.

The colored Odd Fellows in this city paraded yesterday afternoon through the principal streets of the city, the occasion being the anniversary of one of the lodges. They were preceded by a band of music and made a handsome appearance. Geo. W. Price, Jr., delivered an address.

Dissolution.
As will be seen by notice elsewhere in this issue the firm of Messrs. E. S. Warrock & Co., has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Mr. George R. Dyer. Mr. Warrock will continue the publication of the Sunday Morning Mail and conduct the job printing business at the old stand, as heretofore.

Change of Programme.
The Ladies' Memorial Association have concluded to abandon the proposed excursion on the steamer Passport for the benefit of the North Carolina Confederate Home, and will give a Lawn Party instead at the City Hall Park Thursday of next week, at which there will be the usual delicacies of ice cream, cakes, sberbet, etc. As there will be a new moon to-morrow, the guests will have the benefit of a moonlight night which will make the occasion more enjoyable. It is very probable that the entertainment will be heightened by good music, either from the Cornet Concert Club or from some other source, and that a large and liberal-hearted assemblage may greet and reward the Ladies' Memorial Association for their efforts in such a good cause.

A Hitch Somewhere.
As was stated by us at the time, the Republicans failed to hold their Congressional Convention at Rockingham last Wednesday, according to announcement. We have endeavored to find out the true inwardness of the thing, but our Republican friends here are not inclined to talk about it. The Charlotte Observer gives the following as throwing some light on the matter:
The convention of the Republicans of this district to nominate a Congressman in opposition to Judge Bennett was to have been held at Rockingham last Wednesday, but there was an obstruction in the way in the shape of Dr. Norment. He held up his hand and the convention went by default. It seems that Dr. Norment was not treated fairly in the convention at Laurinburg, and he determined to be heard this time. It did not suit him for the Congressional convention to meet at Rockingham last Wednesday and he gave notice that he did not want to prove a disturbing element, and that in the interests of unity and peace the meeting would have to be postponed. He proposed that if the late Laurinburg convention would be permitted to assemble at Rockingham just as it was, to nominate a Congressional candidate, that he would give no further trouble. The convention was accordingly postponed indefinitely, and just what is going to be done next is not exactly known.

There Was Something Very FUNNY ABOUT THE OLD-FASHIONED mustard poultices. When taken from the poor victim they often lay around the house, hard and caked like old Babylonian bricks. Let us pay them the tribute of a sigh, but in their places accept ready-made Mustard Plasters, which are incomparably more neat, handy, cleanly, and effective. Besides, they are cheaper. You can carry them anywhere, and if kept dry, they keep good at the end of the year as when just made. Only the best and purest mustard. Dip them in water and put them on at once. In tin boxes, 15, 25 and 35 cents.—Exchange.
