YESFERNIGHT.

Long I loved, in silence nursing All the sweetness, all the smart; Secretly the tale rehearsing Yet untold-though when my hear First went forth unto the maiden All the world was winter-white, And the summer air was laden With rich fragrance yesternight.

Yestereve, what time the shadows Deepened on the daisied grass, Homeward wending, through the meadows I beheld the maiden pass; And the love so long unspoken, Brayely in the fading light Pleaded for some word or token

Not to ear or heart unheeding My impassioned tale was told; Nor in vain my wistful pleading Sought her love; a hoop of gold, Set with stones wherein still linger Rays of Jud's refulgent light, Circles now a shapely finger That was bare but yesternight. -John F. Rolph.

FAMOUS SWIMMERS.

Some of the Most Remarkable Aquatic Feats on Record.

"When Mr. Willie Beckwith and his sister, the English experts and representatives of this art, remarked when taking their departure from this country after a sejourn of some four months here last summer, that they were much surprised to find so few good swimmers in this country, the saying was a true one," said an old teacher of the art to a prominent athlete. "Swimming is an old and one of the most healthful of exercises. Few know that Benjamin By an overwhelming, portion in the present State the first comes probably Captaia Webb, the people of any State. It remains but for me to add, finally, that lew sensations are more delightful, and the strength which one requires, and which he was previously a stranger to, after frequent and discreet indulgence, is a sufficient proof of its many virtues."

Platform of the Democratic Party of North Carolina.

We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the career of peace prosperity and good government on exercises. Few know that Benjamin Franklin was considered an expert at this in his day. In the cultivation of swimming as an art society has taken but yery little interest indeed, as com-pared with the attention bestowed on other athletic pursuits. Swimming is the most useful of all accomplishments that go to make up the complete educa-tion of a gentleman.
