ELECTOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ALFRED ROWLAND, of Robeson.

Abbe Liszt writes to his friends an indignant denial that he is blind from brandy drinking and smoking at Bayreuth.

Two hundred and fifty-seven dramatic, operatic, concert, minstrel and variety companies and circuses of high and low degree are noted in the New York Mirror as having dates ahead for this season. And there are more to follow.

A wild man, captured in Ochee Swamp, near Chattahoochee, and carried to Tallahassee, had been swimming in Ochee Lake, from island to island, and, when taken, was entirely destitute of clothing, emaciated and covered with a phenomenal growth of hair.

Mr. Halstead's New York campaign organ is sold to the newsboys at five copies for a cent, and sometimes given away. The thirst for Republican campaign mendacity does not appear to have realized the sanguine expectations of the projectors of Mr. Halstead's New York newspaper scheme.

It is announced in New York that several men of the Greely expedition and a number of sailors of the relief fleet will appear in a theatrical performance there, and have been engaged to remain "on the stage until their fur-furloughs expire. This is a first-class advertisement, doubtless, but it is cheapening and degrading "Arctic heroism" to a disgusting degree.

The Rev. Bernado A. Thiel, Roman Catholic Bishop of Costa Rica, is in Washington, studying ethnology at the Smithsonian Institution. He is an ex-communicant, having been banished from Costa Rica for protesting against the establishment at San Jose of a high school without any provision for religious instruction; but he will probably soon return home, it being understood that the Government is now willing for him to do so.

How foreigners will laugh when they hear that the Tallapoosa has been sunk by a schooner! It might not be much of a schooner to sink the entire United States navy. And this unkind cut comes from the New York Mail and Express, a paper which upholds the party which is responsible for the present disgraceful condition of the Navy and that supports Blaine from the Presidency. Perhaps, with four years more of Republican rule, a scow, instead of a schooner, may be able to "sink the Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, probably will not receive the insignia of his rank for several weeks, and until then he cannot fully exercise the powers of his office.

The new railroad cuttings about Bergen Hill, N. J., have opened large deposits of odd and rare minerals. They are continually visited by mineralogists and students from scientific schools.

During sudden changes of temperature siphons containing mineral water become dangerous. A rapid rise of the thermometer will sometimes increase the pressure 100 per cent. and produce violent explosion.

The Indianapolis libel case against Blaine promises to be the leading topic in the Maine press. The Portland Argus calls the suit a bit of bluff, and says that it made the same charges in 1857, and that it could not get Blaine into court.

Mrs. Emmeline Rogers, the "Texas Cattle Queen," has turned the half century line, while her recently acquired husband is twenty-three years her junior. She has induced him to abandon the ministry, but permitted him to be elected to the Legislature.

Americans are not welcome at several London hotels. Their landlords say that if a house gets the reputation of being preferred by Americans it is avoided by the English. Now, the American patronage is to be had in sufficient numbers only during a few summer months, whereas the English holds good the year round. Naturally the hotel people prefer the English business and discourage the foreign or American. They do not absolutely refuse accommodation, but, when it suits them, they manage to be full.

A dispatch from Mr. J. T. Sholar to the DAILY REVIEW says that in a match game of base ball played at Smithville this morning, between the Diamonds and a picked nine from Wilmington, the former were victorious by a score of 1 to 0.

Slight Fire. About 8 o'clock last night a small blaze of fire was discovered in the kitchen of Mr. E. G. Whitney, on Orange street, between Sixth and Seventh, which was extinguished almost as soon as it was discovered. The fire department turned out promptly, but their services were not needed. The damage was very slight.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRATS.

Last Night's Rally—Organization—Col. E. D. Hall's Speech.

The Democrats of the First Ward turned out en masse last night, and Brooklyn Hall was crowded. Mr. G. S. Willis called the meeting to order and Mr. W. H. Strauss was made temporary chairman. Col. E. D. Hall was present and, upon being introduced to the assemblage, made a capital speech, full of good, sound, practical common sense advice in which he urged the most perfect and thorough organization. His speech was listened to with profound attention, broken only by the rounds of applause with which he was frequently greeted. At the conclusion of his remarks a permanent organization was effected by electing Mr. W. H. Strauss temporary chairman, to be the permanent President. His election was unanimous. Mr. John Barry was made Vice President and Mr. George S. Willis was made Secretary and Treasurer by acclamation. It was voted that a committee of five, to be selected by the President, be appointed to draft a government of the organization. There was then an enrollment of members; after which the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President. The meeting was characterized by earnestness and there was a manifest determination that the Democrats of the First Ward shall do their whole duty in the campaign.

City Court.

Amelia Bradley and Eliza Nixon, both colored, were brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. In the cases of Amelia a fine of $3 was considered sufficient to satisfy the city's wounded dignity, while $5 was not considered too much for the more obstreperous Eliza, but as neither had the requisite number of shakels they were sent below to mourn and pine in a dungeon cell.

A Kindly Act.

In consequence of the serious sickness of Mrs. A. Weill, the Cornet Concert Club did not practice in their band room last night. As it was their regular time for practice, however, Mine host Schloss, of the Commercial Hotel, very kindly tendered them the use of his parlors; an act of courtesy which they appreciated and accepted, in consequence of which the dwellers on Market street were regaled with some fine music.

Broom Factory.

Mr. John B. Watson, of Salisbury, brother to Mr. A. W. Watson, has removed to the city with his family, where he will hereafter reside. He has, we understand, opened a factory for the manufacture of brooms and mattresses on Fourth street, between Red Cross and Campbell, where he is temporarily located but expects to open a depot down town this Fall. Mr. Watson has been engaged in this business for many years past his brooms having been awarded a premium at several fairs, among others the State Fair.

Fine Fruit.

Last night, while we were hard at work getting off our mail, we were surprised and made glad by the appearance of a genial friend and subscriber, Mr. H. S. Alderman, of Point Caswell, Pender county. He did not come empty handed—he seldom does—for he had a basket, and that basket contained grapes which were beautiful to the eye and luscious to the taste, and in some of the largest clusters we ever saw. Among the clusters was a bunch about ten inches in length which contained three beautiful bunches, on one of which we counted 137 full grown and perfectly ripened grapes. They were of a variety which had never been cultivated and were not large in size, but were delicious in flavor.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Military Matters.

The following General Order, a copy of which has been received by Capt. R. H. Beery, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, has been issued from the Adjutant General's office, and will be of interest to our military readers:

The First, Second, Third and Fourth Regiments of the North Carolina State Guard will appear at Raleigh on the 30th day of September, in heavy marching order, to participate in the opening ceremonies of the State Exposition, and for review by the Governor and Commander-in-Chief, on October 1st.

The following programme is announced:

FIRST DAY.
1. The State Guard to escort Senator Hawley, the orator, the Governor and officers to the grounds.
2. Address by Senator Hawley.
3. Review of the State Guard.

SECOND DAY.
1. Competitive drill of military companies, confined to North Carolina. First prize to successful company, $300.
2. To next best-drilled company, $100.
3. Rifle target shooting, by teams from companies; prize to best score by any team, $100.
4. Competitive band practice—prize to best band, $100.

The State will furnish the troops with transportation, quarters at Camp Russell, fuel and lights—the men will bring blankets. Companies must rely upon themselves for subsistence. Troops will arrive on September 30th and depart October 3d so that the expedition will not cover a period of more than four days. Troops will appear on parade October 1st and 2nd in full dress uniform.

Each company will be entitled to transportation and quarters for one caterer and two cooks, or servants.

Military bonds will be transported and quartered by the State in like manner with the troops.

The competitive drill will be by printed schedule furnished the officers of companies, under the usual rules and regulations governing competitive drills, and the award will be made by three officers of the United States Army, detailed for the purpose, who will not be known until they arrive on the ground.

The minimum number of men to be drilled by each company will be twenty-four, not including two guides and three commissioned officers, and no credit will be allowed for men in excess of the number named.

The drill will be confined to companies of the North Carolina State Guard. General and field officers and their staffs, and officers of the General staff, will report for duty to the Adjutant General, on September 30th, at Camp Russell.

Companies that may be unable to attend will report; the fact at once to this officer, and also to the commanding officer of the regiment, together with a full statement of the cause of inability to respond.

The details of this movement will hereafter be published in general orders.

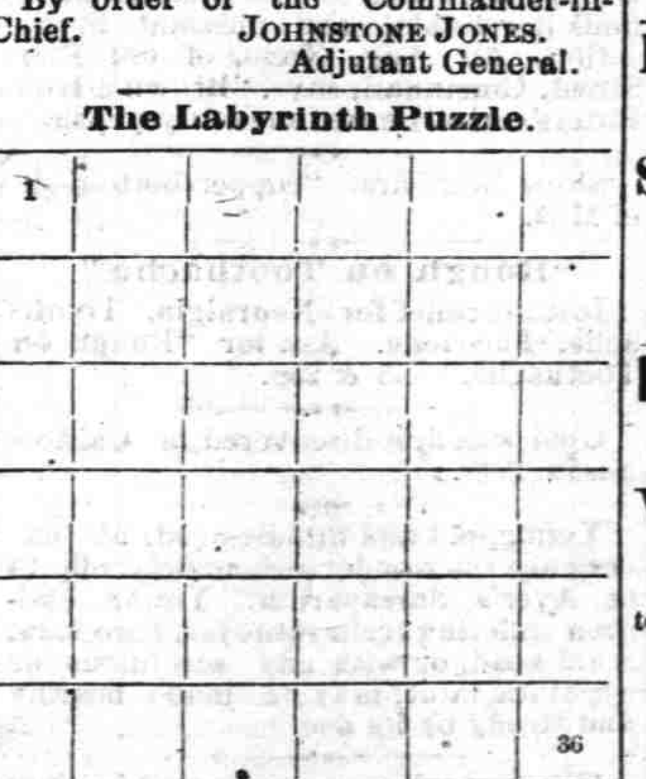

The Commander-in-Chief expresses the hope that the State Guard will appear in full numbers in obedience to this order, and that employers will permit their employees, who are members of the State Guard, to attend.

This Exposition is designed to display the resources and products of North Carolina, and it is the earnest desire of the Governor that the opening ceremonies shall be attended by the citizen soldiery, and that they appear with full ranks and in perfect order, so that the State's progress in this line may be fully illustrated.

The companies of the colored battalion will be assembled at the opening of the North Carolina Industrial Association, on the 16th of October, and encamped for several days; the details of this movement will be announced in due time.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief. JOHNSTONE JONES, Adjutant General.

The Labyrinth Puzzle.

The above represents the groundwork of a puzzle which is about as difficult of solution as the famous 13, 14, 15 puzzle. The diagram represents 36 cells and each cell communicates with the adjoining cells by means of a doorway. There is a prisoner confined in No. 1, which is the upper cell on the left, and he has been told that he will be set at liberty if he will make his way from No. 1 to No. 36, which is the lower cell on the right hand, the condition being that he must pass through each cell once, and only once. We have been puzzled over the puzzle ourselves for an hour or two, and have not yet succeeded in solving it. Perhaps some of our readers will do better, but our private opinion is that the poor fellow is still in prison and is bound to stay

Almost a Fire.

Soon after the alarm of fire in the kitchen of Mr. Whitney, last night, there came very near being a fire on the premises of Capt. J. M. McGowan, on Orange street, near Eighth. A lighted-lamp had been placed near the netting which protected the milk in his dairy from insects and flies when from some cause the thin material of which the net was composed caught fire and was consumed. No further damage was done save the ruin of a few pans of milk. No general alarm was given.
