WILMINGTON. N. C. TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. as second-class matter.

Although the work of assisting emi gration has been temporarily suspended n Ireland, it is admitted by the officials that the situation is still critical. There are still so many persons occupying minute holdings that another bad potato crop would reduce many families to destitution. There are parishes in which 1,000 families are at tempting to live on 1,700 acres of arable bog land, with a limited allowance of be done by emigration and other means ing." before the congestion can be relieved.
