Bismarck appears to still have spies busy making maps of the fortifications of the various European powers.

Minnie Maddern, the actress, got out of a disagreeable contract in New York on the ground that she was not of age.
She is only nineteen years old.

The wealthiest man in the world is the Chinese banker, Han-Qua, of Canton. He pays taxes on an estate of $450,000,000, and is estimated to be worth a billion taels, which in our money, would be about fourteen hundred million dollars.

Dr. Hext M. Perry, of Philadelphia, is compiling a genealogy of families of the name. He is a son of Governor Perry, of South Carolina, who came from England with Elliott, the Indian apostle. Bishop Perry, of Iowa, and Hon. Amos Perry, of Rhode Island, are descendants of the same line.

The very spot on which the late Czar of Russia was assassinated is being marked by the erection of a great cathedral for which the Russian Government will purchase from the English proprietors, for $12,000, the well-known picture by Paul Veronese, "The Adoration of the Magi."

A Philadelphia clothier has inaugurated a new branch of business—tha-of furnishing mourning outfits on hire.
He had for years been hiring out swallowtail coats and white dresses for weddings and he saw no reason why he should not extend the same enterprise to black goods and occasions of bereavement.

The Prince of Wales was present on a recent occasion at an audience given by Queen Victoria to some of the ministry. "I believe," says Labouchere in the London Truth, "it is the first time that H. R. H. has been in attendance on such an occasion; and the incident may, perhaps, be taken as a sign that in future he will devote a closer attention to public affairs."

Miss Hooper, daughter of the United States Vice Consul General at Paris, has determined to enter the theatrical profession and has accepted an engagement with Augustin Daly. "She will sail next week to enter upon her new career. For three years past she has been under the noted Parisian professor, M. Tallien, the teacher of Damalo and other celebrities."

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1884. NO. 217

Miss Mary Custis Lee, the famous Virginian's daughter, ventures on the Yankee coast, a warmly welcomed guest at Bar Harbor.

Mrs. Frank Leslie says she does not mean to buy the Continent, so the prospect is that somebody will have to pursue the fool's errand of making bricks without straw.

Mr. Joseph Patterson, the Philadelphia banker, who is a prince of entertainers, has arranged to give a dinner in honor of the distinguished scientist, Sir William Thompson, his guest.

Rev. John Maro, an old colored preacher and author of the familiar hymn, "We're Traveling Home to Heaven Above," is very ill at his home in Athol, Mass. He is the only colored resident in the place.

"Moncure D. Conway," says the Richmond, Va., State, "a native of Virginia, who will shortly return to this State, complains that the London Unitarians, to whom he has been lecturing for half a century, have not treated him cordially. They, on the other hand, say that Mr. Conway's ministrations are too irreligious for any use."

The compensation of American postmasters runs from $8,000 per annum down to almost nothing. The postmaster of New York receives $8,000 per annum. Two thousand postmasters receive less than ten dollars each.
Thirty-four were paid less than one dollar each last year, and a dozen of these live in North Carolina. The worst paid man last year was the postmaster at Redalia, Pitt county, N. C.
His compensation for the year's work was only nine cents.

The New York Herald says that Cleveland's election is as sure as anything earthly can be sure of accomplishment him in the future. It is, in fact, so confident in its belief that it is already looking forward to the organization of the new President's cabinet. It suggests that grand old gentleman, Thos. F.
Bayard, of Delaware, for the first place, that of Secretary of State, Samuel J.
Randall for the Treasury portfolio and Allen G. Thurman, the grand, the great and the good, for the Secretaryship of the Interior.

Jay Gould's only brother Abram, who has been for eight years past the Colorado agent at Salt Lake City of the Union Pacific Railway, while on his way East last week, said to a representative of the Kansas City Star: "Jay has been in many tight places since he began life, and he generally pulls out all right. I think you will find that he is not, and will not, be cornered. He has always held his own, and every time he clinches that Wall street gang they get the worst of it."

It conveys an idea of the lucrativeness of high places in England in "the good old days" that in 1824 the then Attorney-General stated in the House of Commons that the late Lord Ellenborough had refused $400,000 for the office in his gift of Chief Clerk of the Court of King's Bench. When Lord Ellenborough heard that it was vacant it was on horseback, and, alighting, he wrote in pencil on his saddle his son's appointment, the groom being witness. The place—a complete sinecure—was worth $35,000 a year.

Mr. John Gehrhart, Waterloo, Iowa, suffered a long time with rheumatism, without relief from his physician, but a few applications of St. Jacobs Oil, the wonderful conqueror of pain, cured him.

ent Medicines.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 193 bales.

Fuller assortment of Fishing Tackle can be found at JACOB'S.

There is not a schooner in port nor an American vessel of any description.

The straw hats at Dyer's are stylish and cheap. We are surprised at the low price.

The storm flag is still flying and the weather has been threatening all day with frequent showers.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Mr. R. Meadows, whose resignation of the charge of the horses of Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, on account of continued ill-health, we announced in our issue of the 9th inst., requests us to state he did not resign, but was discharged.

Our thanks are due Mr. A. W. Riven-bark, of the Live Grocery and Commission House on North Water street, for a nice bunch (ten in a bunch) of cigars. The present is duly appreciated and it is our hope that the generous donor may "live long and prosper."

Messrs E. W. and M. F. Manning have on hand now, at Pine Grove, at Wrightsville, the first lot of the season of Myrtle Grove oysters, with which they are prepared to regale their guests.
Capt. Manning tells us that they are unusually fat and well-flavored for September oysters.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of New Hanover county will hold an important meeting at the City Court Room to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock.
Speaking may be expected and business transacted such as will advance the best interests of the party. Old as well as young Democrats are invited to attend.

The Last.

The excursion on the Passport, on Monday last, was the last colored excursion of the season. During the Summer Mondays have been set apart specially for the benefit of colored people, but the arrangement has now closed for this year.

The Last of the Season.

The Mechanics and the Electric, two base ball clubs of this city, will play a match game at Smithville on Thursday, the 18th inst., which will be the last of the season. After the game there will be a supper at the Hotel Brunswick.
The festivities of the day will conclude with a grand ball in the Pavilion at night, which will be also the last of the season. If business will permit we shall be there providing we can get a Passport from Capt. Harper, who, we understand, will take a party to Smithville on that occasion.

The Robbins Case.

The case of Sol. Robbins, charged with an assault and battery with intent to kill, which was brought before the Mayor yesterday for investigation, when the defendant, through his counsel, Mr. Marsden Bellamy, waived an examination, and was remanded until the opinion of Dr. F. W. Potter, city physician, could be ascertained as to the probable result to the wounded policeman, was again brought up this morning. At a late hour last night, Dr. Potter gave it as his opinion that officer Latham was not in a dangerous condition, upon which the Mayor said that he would fix the amount of bail this morning, which he did by requiring the defendant to give a justified bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. Robbins failed to give the required bond, in consequence of which he was committed to jail.

The Last Regatta.

The last race of the season will be sailed over the Wrightsville Course tomorrow under the auspices of the Carolina Yacht Club, providing the weather should be favorable. It will be an exciting race and will undoubtedly draw a large concourse of people to the Sound to witness the contest. The boats will be called at 12 m. and the race will begin promptly at 12:30 p. m. A gold medal will be awarded to the winning boat, and the following yachts will compete for the prize:

Bubble, Commander Richard Cameron.
Mabel, Commander G. H. Smith.
Madge, Commander J. McRee Cowan.
Gluc, Commander Pembroke Jones.
Rosa, Commander Wm. L. Smith, Jr.
Hard Times, Commander J. H. Daniel.
Phantom, Commander J. K. Williams.
Relia, Commander F. H. Lord.
Mascotte, Commander W. L. Parsley.

Look at Your Tickets.

The following tickets drew the principal prizes at the monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, at New Orleans, on the 9th inst: No. 70,468 drew the capital prize of $75,000; No.
15,612 drew $25,000; No. 55,712 drew $10,000; Nos. 21,451, and 46,901 drew $6,000 each, and Nos. 18,290, 38,515, 59,419, 62,483 and 84,620 drew $2,000 each.

Religious Awakening in Pender.

From an esteemed correspondent we learn that there is a deep and pervading feeling of religious interest now agitating the hearts and possessing the souls of Pender county. In nearly every township there is a great religious awakening, such as has seldom if ever been known before. Our correspondent says:

A protracted meeting was begun at the Rocky Point Methodist church on Sunday last, under the direction of the preacher-in-charge, Rev. J. C. Crisp, and the interest manifested is strong and is spreading. Services are held twice a day and the meetings are attended by crowded congregations, and many are seeking the way to salvation.
The preacher is assisted by Rev. Mr.
Daily, of the Brunswick Circuit, Rev.
Mr. Fentral and Rev. A. L. Mendenhall, the latter of the Society of Friends, a noted revivalist and a preacher of power. Professing Christians are aroused and unite in the good work going on, while the unconverted are deeply stirred. An interesting meeting is also in progress at Burgaw, conducted by Rev. Mr. Phillips, a talented Presbyterian clergyman.

The blessed revival now in progress at these two places has been at work in nearly every church in Pender county for the last two or three months.
The ministers seem to have their hearts anointed with unction from on high, while laymen are stirred as never before in lending their aid to bring sinners to the cross of Christ. The needed and noble work goes bravely on in Pender. Under these glorious visitations of the spirit of the Lord, the following accessions of members have been recently made: Pike Creek church, 25 members; Hopewell, 13; Topsail, 27; Point Caswell, 21. These are Presbyterian churches. Of the Missionary Baptist churches, Mount Holy shows an increase of 27, and Shiloh 25. The statistics of increase in the several Methodist churches are not at hand.

Thus have efforts been made, and still continue, to rout out Satan from his accustomed haunts and former dominions, and to bring all conditions and classes in Pender under the Divine authority and control of the gospel of truth and righteousness. The young and old alike are flocking by hundreds to the glorious banner of Christ. Laymen are renewed in the Christian graces and are co-operating as never before with the ministers in holy efforts to induce the conviction and conversion of sinners. Pender is fast becoming one of the banner counties of the State in effectual religious service and church membership. New churches are being built and old ones repaired, while the ministry receives a better support, and Christian organization and discipline are better than ever before. So may it continue!
Sept. 10, 1884.

The freight rates of our great trunk lines have been advanced, but this will have no effect on the price of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which is sold at the old price of 25 cents a bottle.

Convicted Himself.

It appears now that the colored man, John Henry Williams, alias Irving Davis, alias Irving Lang, is a murderer and that there is more than an even prospect that he will be called upon to answer at the bar of Pitt county Superior Court to that fearful charge.
He voluntarily confessed, on several occasions and to different individuals, that he killed Moses Berry, in that county, by knocking him in the head with an axe, but with some this was thought to be the foolish talk of a half-drunken man who was given to boasting. He now states that he was accused of killing Berry, and that in consequence of these accusations he cleared out to avoid being arrested and tried for the crime. Mayor Hall, however, received a letter this morning from Mr. Parrott, one of the Justices of the Peace of Pitt county, in which the facts of the murder were set forth and a description given of the murderer, and especially describing a scar on each cheek. The age, size, build, color and general appearance fitted the prisoner to a nicety, but to make assurance doubly sure, Chief of Police H. C.
Brock went this morning to see if he bore the scars described, and he found them, sure enough. The authorities of Pitt have been notified by deputy sheriff W. H. Shaw, and an officer is expected from that county clothed with the proper authority to take the prisoner to that county for trial, providing he should be the right man, of which there seems to be but little doubt.

Low Water.

Steamboatmen report that there seems to be a disposition manifest in some places in the Cape Fear for the water to turn back and run the other way; which means that the water is unpleasantly low, making navigation slow and tedious. They also report that there was very little rain fall along the course of the river yesterday.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices, just received at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Last night was one of the darkest we have noticed in a long time. The darkness was so intense that it almost seemed to have form and substance.

Brig. Carrie E. Pickering, Marshall, cleared to-day for Demerara with 230,- 000 feet lumber, valued at $3,220, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Such is the aspect of the weather that we fear many will be deterred from attending the grand ball at Stokley Bros' Pavilion, on the Sound, which is announced to take place to-night.

Schooner Paul P. Keller, Foster from Jacksonville, Fla., for Philadelphia, put into Smithville yesterday for a harbor, the wind E. N. E., and weather stormy.

Schr. S. G. Hart, Smith, cleared for Paysander, S. A., with 393,622 feet lumber and 10,108 feet piling, valued at $6,055.95, shipped by Mr. A. R.
Campbell.

We thank Mr. L. G. Cherry for a demijohn of that delicious scuppernon wine sold by him at his store on the corner of Market and Second streets.
It is certainly a nice wine and a cheap wine.

We have been requested to call the attention of the authorities to the dangerous condition of the shed roof which projects across the sidewalk on the Northwest corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. It is liable to fall at any time.

The sale of real estate in this city, under the direction of Mr. W. A.
French, Assignee, which was advertised to take place to-day at the Court House, has been postponed until Tuesday next, the 16th inst., at the same place and hour.

Col. Staples.

Mr. Thos. W. Strange, President of the Young Men's Democratic Club of this city, is in receipt to-day of a telegram from Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, stating that he is detained in Greensboro on a very important case and cannot, therefore, fill his engagement to speak at Smithville tomorrow. He will arrive here to-morrow night, however, and proposes to speak to the Young Men's Club on that occasion, directly after his arrival, and will go down to Smithville Saturday and speak to the people of that town on that day.

The Young Men's Club are to meet in the City Court Room to-morrow evening for reorganization for the campaign, and it is on this occasion that Col. Staples will address them, the speaking to commence probably about 9 o'clock. The Cornet Concert Club are expected to be in attendance and furnish some of their delightful music, and the gentlemen of the Club have reason to hope that there will be a large turnout on that occasion.
