The ingenious Democratic St. Louis

Illinois get only 5.4-5 per cent.

From almost every section of the provement of the health of our people, due no doubt to the influence of Dr.

Gov. Cleveland will not be able to would, on account of a press of business.

The color line has been abolished in the public schools of New York City, which were reopened on Monday. By Act of Legislature, in May, the colored schools, as such distinctively, were abolished, and the pupils, black and white, were all merged together. The law was to take effect in September, 1884.

This is quite a blow to the manager, who had made engagements for their appearance at different dime museums at $1,000 per week.

Madame Patti has introduced the Every device has been employed to One of them is to vary the colors of the vived by electricity. The captain will wear a suit of submarine armor, but how he can steer in the darkness of the deep ocean Jules Verne will have to discover.

Change of Pastors.

The following information, which we clip from the Charlotte Observer, will be interesting to our readers:

Rev. Father Gross, late of Hickory, arrived in the city yesterday to take charge of St. Peter's (Catholic) Church and parish in this city. Father Gross succeeds Father Wright, who goes to Charleston with Bishop Northrop, where he will be assigned to a new charge. The Catholics of Charlotte, while regretting the departure of Father Wright, are delighted over their good fortune in securing the services of Father Gross, who stands high among the Catholic clergy of the South.

Wilmington Postoffice.

The remarks in the REVIEW regarding the assessment of the employees of the postoffice in this city and the discharge of one of the force, have created some little stir in the Republican ranks.
One of the most prominent of the party, who ought from his position to know the facts in the matter, stated to us yesterday that the last Congress appropriated $100,000 less than the estimated needs of the postoffice department for this branch of the service, in consequence of which a reduction in the expenses of the Wilmington office of $1-200 became necessary. He further stated that the reduction was ordered upon the written report of a special agent, who had been sent to this as well as to other offices, whose duty it was to investigate and see what proportion of decrease each office should bear; and he further stated that in making the investigation upon which to base his estimates, the special agent already spoken of might find that, in order to equalize as far as possible the expenses in proportion to the receipts, there were probably some offices which were entitled to more than they were already receiving, which might, in part, account for the large reduction in the Wilmington office.

Now, there were in the United States, when the last census was taken, one hundred and twenty-four cities as large as, or larger than, Wilmington. There are now about 50,000 postoffices in the country. If the business of the postoffice department has been conducted on business principles, so that each office should bear an equitable and just portion of the expenses, and receive a proportionate share of fees and emoluments of office, in proportion to the population served, there would have been no need of taking $1,200 from the expenses of this postoffice. On the other hand, if a reduction amounting to so large a sum is demanded to equalize the deficit and let it fall fairly and im-partially on all offices, then the Wilmington postoffice has been swimming in a sea of fiscal glory for, lo! these many years!

Col. Brink has proved a faithful and an efficient officer and the force under him have been faithful, courteous and obedient, and we have no fault to find with any of them, but we have been informed by very good authority that the young gentleman who was recently discharged was assessed for campaign purposes and the money was paid before his discharge was handed him.
And it is also said that all of the employees of the office were assessed at the same time, and for the same purpose.

To Advertisers.

The fact that the DAILY REVIEW has the largest circulation in this city and the surrounding country of any paper published here does not seem to be properly understood and appreciated by the advertising public. And not only is its subscription list the largest but its prices on contracts are the lowest. These facts are of interest and importance to the mercantile community and should be thoroughly understood and appreciated by them. We invite those meaning business to call at this office and substantiate our assertions.

Some Scuppernongs.

Our young friend, Willie Monroe, who is at present on a visit to his uncle, Mr. M. C. Collins, at Burgaw, sends us a few scuppernong grapes as "samples" of the kind they have there. The large-est of these grapes actually measures four inches in circumference. They are certainly hard to beat, and our only regret is that Willie didn't send what we should like to classify as a "fair sample," say a peck or two.

Fine Fruit.

Capt. S. W. Nobles received this morning a box of grapes sent him by Mr. H. S. Nunn, of the New-berne Journal. They were from the vineyard of Hon. O. Hubbs, and the donor desired that Capt. Nobles should give them a name. The fruit was of a dark purple color; were large, and luscious to taste, possessing a large amount of sugar. Capt. Nobles classes among the mascadines, but has not decided upon a name. They will be sent to the exposition.

At Point Caswell.

Maj. C. W. McClammy, of Pender, Presidential Elector for the Congressional District, Messrs E. W. Kerr, of Sampson, and T. W. Strange, of this city, addressed the Democracy of Pender at Point Caswell yesterday. There was a good turnout and an intelligent audience and the several speakers presented the issues of the present contest in such a forcible, logical and practical manner as to secure the profound attention of the listeners. Everything passed off pleasantly with nothing to mar the entire harmony of the meeting.

Slight Fire.

At about noon to-day fire was discovered on the roof of Mr. G. J. Boney's engine room on Nutt street, between Mulberry and Walnut. The alarm was immediately given and the fire department were on hand with remarkable quickness and in a very few moments the flames were extinguished.
The fire had been gotten well under control by the exertions of those in the vicinity before the arrival of the engines so that there was comparatively little for the latter to do. The fire was caused by the extreme heat of the flue which caused the boards of the roof to become ignited. A small hole was burned in the roof. Damage nominal.

Since the above was in type we are informed that the fire was extinguished by the efforts of some of the members of Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1, who, when the alarm was given rushed to Mr. J. W. Taylor's mill yard and took the hose which he has there and making it fast to a hydrant soon extinguished the flames.

A Prosperous Business.

The chicken thieves are doing a large and prosperous business just now. It would appear that there was too much risk in the business to insure its vigorous pursuit, but such seems not to be the case, and these midnight harvesters of other people's poultry are among the most prosperous and thriving business men in our city. They have advantages not possessed by those who are so conscientious as to follow a legitimate business only. They require no capital to begin with; they have no taxes to pay, no licences to obtain and poultry always commands a good price and finds a ready market in our city. These facts probably actuated some thief or thieves to enter the premises of Mr. C. Schwarz, on Seventh street, between Mulberry and Walnut, last night and take every fowl save one. They succeeded in getting away with nine out of a flock of ten. They next made a visit to the roost of Mr.
John W. Perdew, on the adjoining lot, and took ten, leaving only four. This made nineteen which they got from the two places, which, if sold at 25 cents each, would make a good night's work.

Personal.

Maj. O. M. Sadler, District Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, is in the city to-day.

Maj. John Hughes, of Newbern, was in the city yesterday, to meet with Bishop Watson and others, members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of East Carolina. He left for his home last night.

Out Again.

We were glad to see officer Latham on our streets again this forenoon.
It was the first time he had been down town since he was shot, and, although yet suffering considerably from the effects of his wound, is much better than we expected. We congratulate him on his convalescence and hope for him a speedy and complete recovery.

New Books.

The Wilmington Library Association have recently raised the sum of $300, with which it is proposed to buy new books. The Committee appointed to make the selection, consisting of Dr.
Thomas F. Wood, Rev. F. W. Deschau and Mr. Eugene S. Martin, are now making out a list of books to be bought. The committee is a good one, and we doubt not that the selections will be excellent. It is expected that the list will be completed to-day and the books will be ordered at once.

Young Men's Progressive Club.

There was a handsome turnout at the meeting of the Young Men's Progressive Club last night. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. W. H. Strauss.

The different committees reported, and their reports were adopted.

The attention of the Club was called to an article that appeared recently in some of the State papers, to the effect that Hon. R. T. Bennett would not receive the entire support of the Democracy of New Hanover county, whereupon the following resolution was adopted:

"Be it resolved, That we, the members of the Young Men's Progressive Democratic Club of Wilmington, do heartily endorse the nomination of Judge Bennett for Congress in the District, and will give him our earnest and enthusiastic support, and do all we can to secure his election; and, further, it is the sense of this Club that Judge Bennett will receive the undivided support of the entire Democratic party of this county."

Col. E. D. Hall, Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy and others made short but effective speeches and were loudly cheered.

The following committee on Invitation for Public Speakers was appointed:
Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., O. P. Meares, Jr., Carl Polvogt, W. W. Shaw and W. T. Barlow.
