The Tribune has compared Mr. Blaine to St. Paul. Mr. Blaine doubtless feels like saying to his friends, with the apostle to the Gentiles: "I would that ye become such as I am—except these bonds!"

A letter from a prominent Democrat who is stumping West Virginia, says:
"Our prospects of victory continue to grow brighter as the canvass progresses.
The Democracy of the State seems to be determined that it will not be wrested from the Democratic column."

A letter to the National Democratic committee from the Democratic State committee of New Jersey says that the campaign is progressing most encouragingly in that State, and that New Jersey can be depended on to give its electoral votes to Cleveland and Hendricks by a handsome majority.

Gen. Edward S. Bragg contradicts the story that he said in the Democratic National Convention that the Irish might go. "In the Chicago Convention," he writes, "I made no mention of nor did I allude to our Irish-American population in any manner whatever. I have never entertained such ideas nor uttered such words, and one charging them upon me must do it through ignorance or pure malice."

Cheyenne is said to have a club as complete in its equipments as any in the principal Eastern cities. The members are mostly rich cattle owners, many of them being natives of New England. The club house is illuminated by the incandescent electric light, and a chief from Delmonico's conducts the cuisine. The choice books in the library show that the wants of the club have not been sacrificed to creature comforts.

Judge J. N. Scott, of Indianapolis, Ind., and a brother-in-law, o. Senator Benjamin Harrison, has declared for Cleveland. He has always been a Republican. In his letter to the President of the Independent Republican Club he says: "After much hesitation and long and mature consideration, my course is now clear to me. I shall cast my next vote so as to contribute its weight, at least, towards the defeat of those who shamelessly practice corruption in office, and deceit, misrepresentation and the intolerance born of acknowledged unworthiness in the pursuit of it, and will therefore be for Cleveland and Hendricks."

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1884. NO. 232

The betting on the campaign promises to be lively in New York at an early day, as the following, which we clip from the World, would seem to indicate.

"If there are any enthusiastic Blaine men who entertain the idea that the Plumed Knight is going to be successful," says James Patterson, of the northeast corner of Seventh avenue and Twenty-seventh street, "they can have an opportunity of endeavoring to swell their bank account by accepting any of the following offers I am prepared to make:
"One thousand dollars against $700 that Cleveland carries the State of New York.
"One thousand dollars against $600 that Cleveland carries New Jersey.
"Twenty-five hundred dollars even that Cleveland will be elected.
"One thousand dollars even that Butler will not poll 12,000 votes in the county of New York."

Mr. A. F. Shrier, Dealer in General Merchandise, Fetterman, West Va., writes that his wife was relieved of spinal meningitis; also Mrs. John Towels was cured of a severe injury; also Mr. Samuel Gramma was cured of neuralgia, Mr. Edward Wendell of neuralgia, Mr. John Grinner of a severe sprain by the use of St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy.

The receipts of cotton' at this port to-day foot up 1348 bales.

Registration begins to-morrow. The hours will be from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Quite a number of our citizens went up to Burgaw this morning to hear Stedman and Faircloth.

Bishop Watson preached in St. John's Church yesterday afternoon and commended three persons, all ladies.

Persistence is the best school for manly virtue; and one of Dyer's "Melville" is the correct thing this season.

It is now definitely settled that Robinson's Circus will be here on Saturday, October 18th, two weeks from next Saturday.

Superlatively warm for the last of September. The thermometer in this office registered 82 degrees at 9 o'clock this morning.

The closing to-day of the stores of our Jewish merchants on Front and Market streets makes an appreciable difference in the aspect of the streets.

Two beautiful new drums, one a bass-drum and the other a kettle-drum, were received to-day for the Cornet Concert Club by Mr. J. E. Willson, the leader of the band.

Nor. barque Marie, Neilsen, cleared to-day for London with 1,950 cases spirits turpentine and 761 barrels rosin, valued at $29,359, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co.

We understand that Messrs. Geo. Z.
French & Bros. are now working 110 hands at their limestone quarries on the North East river, at Excelsior plantation, and that it is as much as they can do to keep up with their orders.

The Young Men's Progressive Club of this city will do good work during his campaign. They have on the rolls 125 members, a majority of whom are mechanics, and they expect this list to be increased to 500 during October.
They are working with a will.

Charlotte Observer: Capt. F. A. Mc-Ninch, Chief of Police, returned to the city yesterday from Wilmington, bringing with him Isham Brown, the escaped convict. Capt. McNinch speaks in the highest terms of his reception in Wilmington, and is especially warm in his praise of Chief Brock, Capt. June Gardner and Messrs. Schloss & Son, who gave him a good time.

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boy Clipper Plow," greatest invention of the age. JACOBI is the Agent.

There were but three trifling cases before the Mayor this morning, for his adjudication, two for failure to pay license tax and one for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

We understand that Maj. John W.
Daniel, of Richmond, and Hohn. R. F.
Armfield, of Statesville, have accepted invitations to speak in this city some time during the campaign.

Rain is most lamentably longed for.
The streets are dry and dusty, and wells and cisterns are getting low. The Herald speaks of lower temperature to-morrow, and Wednesday possibly preceded by local rains.

Graded Schools.

The graded schools of the city will open on Wednesday, October 1st. The entrance examination of new pupils will be as follows: Hemmenway (white) 9 a.m. Sept. 29 Union " " " 30 Williston (colored) 4 p.m. " 29 Peabody " " " 30

The Cornet Concert Club.

We learn, just before going to press, that the Cornet Concert Club has finally determined not to go Raleigh to the Exposition. They had fully expected to go and have practised unre-mittingly of late with this object in view but finding at the last moment that some of the principal members could not go they abandoned the intention. This will be deeply regretted by many.

Rhyme and Reason: If you cannot keep quiet, because your cough makes a riot, there's something, pray try it, a quarter will buy it; be quiet now about it; don't be without it; your cough, this will rattle it; I beg you not doubt it; to the world I would shout it. Oh yes, you guess! Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Turnpike.

We continue to hear encomiums of our beautiful shell road to the Sound by strangers who see it for the first time. We doubt if there is another eight miles of road equal to it in the United States.

It is like riding on a parlor floor to go on this road, and it is kept always in excellent condition, a state of things due to the untiring exertions of the worthy Superintendent, Mr. Henry Haar.

Judge Fowle.

Hon. D. G. Fowle arrived in the city last night. He was received by a committee from the Young Men's Democratic Club of New Hanover, whose guest he is, and was escorted by them to the Purcell House, where rooms had been prepared for his reception. Today he was taken in charge by them and taken on a trip down the river, on the Passport, and to-night he will speak at the City Hall, under the auspices of the Young Democratic Clubs in this city, on which occasion we are sure that there will be an immense concourse assembled to hear the gifted orator.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

The Game Laws.

For the benefit of some of our young gunners, who have ignorantly violated the game law and thus subjected themselves to indictment and fine, we give that law in full as taken from the N.
C. Code:

SECTION 2834. No person shall kill or shoot, trap or net any partridges, quail, doves, robins, larks, mocking birds, or wild turkeys, between the 1st day of April and 15th day of October in each year; and the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

It would be well enough to understand, too, that hunting is prohibited on Sunday, all the year round. In two weeks the restriction will be removed as regards hunting on week-days.

Gen. Moise to Speak.

Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy received this morning a telegram from Gen. E. W.
Moise, of Sumter, S. C., accepting an invitation tendered to him to speak in this city on next Wednesday night.
This speaking will take place at the corner of Castle and Seventh streets and it is expected that there will be a grand rally on that occasion. There will be a torchlight procession, with music, under the auspices of the Young Men's Progressive Democratic Club.
It is the first grand rally of the campaign in the old Banner Ward, the Fifth, and we hope that there will be biggest sort of a big turnout on Wednesday night.

Everybody in want of Paints, White Lead, Glass &c., should go to JACOBI'S

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

RINDSKOPF BROS. & CO., 616 & 618 Broadway.
NEW YORK September 19, 1884.

Mr. L. SHRIER, Wilmington, N. C.
Dear Sir:—By the time this reaches you, you will no doubt have been informed through the daily papers that our house has failed; the assignee is taking charge, and the goods will have to be disposed of at once, as he wants to realize the cash for them. There is a very large stock in the house made up for this season, and I would say to you come here at once and you can have first choice to select the best goods, and at prices so that you can sell them to your customers way below what the same goods cost other merchants, and at the same time make a nice profit. Allow me to remark that the assignee will only sell the goods for spot cash.

Hoping to see you here soon, I am with best regards, yours truly, A. MITCHELL.

On receipt of the above we started for New York city where we bought an immense stock which will be sold 50 per cent less than any other house in this city can do.

AN OLD HOUSE GOES UNDER.

The following from the New York Herald will explain the failure of the largest Clothing House in the world:
"The sea of overproduction yesterday swallowed up the wholesale clothing house of Rindskopf Brothers & Co. After an honorable existence of over thirty-five years, during which it has built up a very large business throughout the country, the firm went down yesterday, leaving behind debts in the neighborhood of a million dollars and an unknown quantity of assets.
The firm has lately been located at No. 618 Broadway, one door above the huge buildings occupied by the Bronners, those comets in the clothing business.
Several floors were occupied for the manufacture, storage and display of goods.
About one hundred and fifty cutters, makers and other employees found work on these various floors."

This is the first time a sale of this kind has ever taken place in Wilmington and may never occur again. In order to show what extraordinary bargains will be offered a few prices are mentioned: Men's suits for $5.50 really worth $8.50; a fine all wool Cassimere suit for $10, worth $16.50. In suits at $15, $18 and $20 we have a full assortment and guarantee a saving of fully from $8 to $10 on a suit. In Boys' and Children's Clothing we can save you at least 50 per cent on the dollar. Don't fail to call and examine this great sale of wholesale at retail. It costs nothing to call in and see for yourself. A chance to get such bargains will never occur again at
