ELECTOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ALFRED ROWLAND, of Robeson.

The New York Produce Exchange Club intends to issue an address to the public giving their reasons for supporting Cleveland, and stating why their what a blessing Ayer's Sarsaparilla is Republican members repudiate Blaine. After all the exchanges have organized clubs it is intended that they shall elect representatives to a joint executive committee, which shall direct the operations of them all when there greatly depressed. shall be a public demonstration.

The members of the New York Mining Stock and National Petroleum Exchange organized a Cleveland and Hendricks Club on Saturday last. It was announced that over two hundred rank. members had signed the roll, of whom one-third are Republicans. W, W Clayton, a life long Republican, was elected president of the club, A committee of three was appointed to nomi- wheels weigh one ton. nate an executive committee of twelve Republicans and twelve Democrats.

A New York letter says: I hear some of the Democrats here are getting up a Cabinet for Cleveland in case he is elected. They put down Carl Schurz, good recent Democrat; Sam Randall, for Secretary of the Treasury, as a man who will pay nothing out; William C. Whitney, of New York, as Attorney-General; Tom Bayard, of Delaware, for Georgia, for Postmaster General; Hubbard, of Texas, for Secretary of War. and Thurman, of Ohio, for Secretary of the Navy. There are various versions of this Cabinet, but the one I have given authority for the last ten years. seems to be the most talked about.

the Philadelphia Times says: "The strongest Republican vote against James G. She was buried without any funeral ceremony from the Catholic church, near town. Washington County will give a majority against Blaine. This place, although Republican by 65 majority, will give Cleveland a majority; and this county. Fayette, will give Cleveland from 1,500 to 2,000.

The New York Tribune lays claim to Ohio by a large majority in October Whiteville Circuit, Oct. 7-8. and a larger one in November. The alleged grounds for its confidence, says the World, are the return to the Republican party of the colored voters, number | Flemington Circuit, Oct. 18-19. ing 20,000, a good many of whom voted for Gov. Hoadly last year; the transfer of 9,600 Democratic Irish-American votes from the Demcrats to the Republicans; the return of 5,000 wool-growers to the Republican ranks after the temporary affiliation with the Democracy; the return also of the German vote in the absence of a temperance issue, and the general "fever of enthusiasm" created among the Republicans of the State by the stumping tours of Blaine and Logan.

These are, as we have said, the alleged grounds of the Tirbune's confidence. The real grounds are the subscriptions of Jsy Gould, William H. Vanderbilt-Russell Sage, C. P. Huntington, Mr. Astor and others, aggregating half a and the man .- N. Y. Tribune. million of dollars, for special use in Obio; the return of Minister Morton, who is relied on, with his own subscription of $100:000, for another half million; the purchase of votes, colonization, frauds on the ballot-box and kissing Boston girls. It is a terrible other Republican rascalities.

It would be singular if the Republicans should not carry Ohio in October. For twenty-eight years Ohio has been a reliable Republican State in every Presidential year. Here is the vote:

1856—Republican maj., Oct......19,380 1856—Republican maj., Nov.....16,623 1860—Republican maj., Oct.....12,903 1860—Republican maj., Nov.....44,378 1872—Republican maj., Oct.....14,150 1872—Republican maj., Nov.....37,531 1876—Republican maj., Oct.....6,636 1876-Republican maj., Nov.... 7,516 Derrick. 1880—Republican maj., Oct..... 19,005

In "off" years the Democrats have occasionally captured the State on local issues, the Germans and other liberalminded voters having revolted against kind with Thomas A. the intolerant and un-American policy of the Republicars in their prohibitory Fort Smith Road, or next week with Col. laws and constitutional amendments wherever they have power. But, as the Tribune says, there is no such issue now, and in Presidential years the Republicans return in tull force to the party of their choice.

1880—Republican maj., Nov.....25,155

Thus a Democratic victory in Ohio in the election which takes place two weeks from to-day would be a wonder which has not been witnessed in twentyeight years. A meagre Republican majority, such as was cast in 1876, in poor Hayes' campaign, would be a virtual Republican defeat, inasmuch as the Prohibition ticket in November, with ex-Gov. St. John at its head, will draw off many thousands of Republi-
