He went below. David Martin, also colored, for the same ofiense, although in a less aggra vated form, was required to pay a fine of $5 or go below for 20 days. He also languishes in a dungeon cell.

The Weather.

It is a hot, dry and dusty subject to talk about, but we would perspiringly say that yesterday, last night and this morning were as uncomfortably hot as any weather we have bad this season. Nearly every one we have met to-day has pronounced upon the heat with emphatic and varied adjectives, while the weatherwise and otherwise (which is about the same thing) have made widely diversified predictions regarding what sort of an atmosphere we shall parent been induced to try Dr. Bull's notice that the weather prophet, De Cough Syrup, It cures the croupy Voe, who lives away up in Jersey, predicts cloudy and cooler weather for today, frost to-morrow and frost also on Wednesday. Religious News.

Rev. A. M. Conway, pastor of the colored First Baptist Church in this city, returned last night from Warsaw where he has been in attendance upon the Wilmington Missionary Baptist Association, which convened in that town on Friday last. He reports that July will be with us again before the meeting was harmonious throughout and that a large amount of work was done to advance the interests of the church and Christ's Kingdom upon earth. There were large gatherings on each day and the session were marked by a deep and prevailing interest.
