Ferdinand de Lesseps is going to bring one of his numerous boys to grow up in and with this country, but he has enough of them to send one to nearly every nation on earth.

The largest photographs in the world will be on exhibition at the New Orleans Exposition. They are views of public buildings in Washington taken by order of the Government. They are five feet wide by seven feet long and have been framed in finely finished ash frames with a gold lining.

There are five foreign-born Senators—one Englishman, one Scotchman and three Irishmen—while in the House there are twenty foreigners: three Englishmen, three Scotchmen, six Irishmen, five Germans, one Norwegian, one Brazilian and one Canadian.

Senator Morrill, of Vermont, now takes precedence of all his colleagues in the National Legislature in the matter of years. He is not only the oldest Senator in age, but also in term of office, and he has, besides, the satisfaction of knowing that the Green Mountain State is the only one that holds its united representation in the Senate of eighteen years ago.

The New York Herald correspondents are the best and most reliable in the country. This is a fact well established and generally admitted. They are a paid staff and their reports are made up impartially from facts and figures and not from feelings and fancies. Hence their great reliability. Viewed in this light the following from the Herald correspondent at Columbus, Ohio, will be found to throw some positive indications on the aspect of affairs in this State. The outlook, sketched by this correspondent, is decidedly encouraging to Democratic hopes. The letter is too long in its entirety for our columns and hence we confine ourselves to the most important parts of it:

COLUMBUS, Oct. 5, 1884.—To-day politics have been at white heat. Members of local organizations and candidates crowded both the State headquarters and gave very different reports regarding the outlook. All agree that the feeling is so intense as to render the prevention of collisions difficult. The workers of both sides are already organizing for the final struggle. The last calls are being made on the State committees, and the contest now remains with the local committees. For some weeks the indications pointed to a hard fight, but a decided Democratic majority. Were the election to be held to-day the result would be very close, with perhaps no adds either way. It is difficult to predict what changes may take place in another week with the agencies at work that are now reported on both sides. There seems to be nothing left undone and nothing too slow to be taken advantage of by both parties. The Democrats have the best organization and may have the best wind on the homestretch. The Republicans have acknowledged their alarm by drawing Blaine back into the State from West Virginia. To-night another programme is announced that will keep him on the road in this State till the day before the election. This return of the chief is looked on as a confession on the part of the Republicans of a desperate case. They feared reaction from the demonstrations of last week and now must keep up the State campaign, when all is either lost or more to be gained by continuing the fight.

Meantime the Democrats follow his course, sowing pamphlet copies of the Mulligan letters and other documents broadcast among the crowds that gather to witness the demonstrations. This travelling of candidates has mixed things in the State more than ever, but the indications at this late date are that the old party lines will be observed with all except on local State issues, in which the Democrats get all the benefits. Last year the Democrats gained among wool growers. As this class is now dissatisfied with both parties these sheep men will vote their old party tickets. The tariff agitation and the appeals to the business men have completely failed on the part of Republicans, while business is depressed and thousands of men are out of employment. The liquor question is the thing that, as the final day draws near, is stirring up the natives. The charge having been made that General Robinson, candidate for Secretary of State, was a crusader and Know Nothing and that he voted for the prohibitory amendment, the Germans and others are almost as much aroused as they were in 1862, and on this score the whole Republican ticket will sustain heavy losses in the cities. This movement manages itself. At the same time the extraordinary organization of the Democrats is watching the Soldiers' Home, the river towns and all other points where repeaters, imported voters and others engaged in the fraudulent vote business are likely to work. There seems to be very little indication that illegal voting and almost everything else will be attempted. The canvass is being closely conducted on both sides from the national headquarters in New York. Blaine's second route is so arranged as to take in the close Congressional districts, in which the hottest of the fight is raging and in which trades may be made to such an extent as to change the result on the State ticket. The result in the districts of Page and McKinley, Foran and Barnett, Follett and Butterworth will be very close, while in others the fight is bitter. The Democrats feel confident of a majority of the Congressmen, and they certainly have an even fight on the State.

A preacher out west gave out that there should be none who used tobacco or any beverage but water, and his only congregation was an old woman who chewed slippery elm and used St. Jacobs Oil for the rheumatism.

Our theatre going readers have it as our candid opinion from all that we can learn from our exchanges that the play "Nordeck," to be presented to-morrow night at the Opera House, will be a very fine thing.

In speaking yesterday of the interview with Mr. Fishplate we said that "he thought Ohio would go Republican next week, as the reference was to the October elections in that State."

Some thief attempted to break into the fish house at Messrs W. E. Davis & Son, on South Water street, last night, but either found the job too hard or was frightened off before he had accomplished his purpose. The city is full of thieves and they are plying their vocation every night.

Floating Island.
 There was beautiful sight in the river this morning in the shape of an island which was floating up with the incoming tide. From our point of view, it looked to be about 20 feet long and nearly 10 feet broad. It was covered with verdure and attracted much attention and was the theme of much speculation as to where it came from, the beauty of its appearance and the novelty of the sight.

It was resolved that the matter of the lease of a portion of the Fair Grounds (about 25 acres) to Mr. E. G. Barnitz, be left to a committee consisting of the Chairman and Commissioner Montgomery, to arrange terms and conditions and after said lease is completed, to be reported and recorded upon the minutes of the next regular meeting of the Board. The Board then, after disposing of a few tax matters, adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Commissioners resolved itself into a Board of Education and considered the petitions of sundry citizens living in Harnett Township, praying that School District No. 5 be divided and a new District created, to be known as District No. 7, with the following boundary: Commencing at the southeast corner of the city of Wilmington, running with the line dividing Masonboro and Harnett Townships in an easterly direction to a point one hundred feet west of the second toll house, thence northeast to the six mile post on the old plank road, thence northwardly along the Gordon road east of Mr. Jones' house to Smith's creek, and thence along Smith's creek to the city limits.

The following were appointed a school committee for said new district: John Struthers, T. J. Edens, J. K. Jones.

The Board then adjourned.

The Fishermen's Convention.

Mr. S. G. Worth, Fish Commissioner, is sending out circulars giving information in regard to the Fishermen's Convention. The idea of holding this originated at a meeting of fishermen and fish dealers held at Newbern last April. Mr. J. J. Royal was secretary of the meeting. The subjects to be discussed at the convention will be the following:

"The Present Condition of the Oyster Industry of the State;" "The History and Present Condition of the Great Seine Interest of the Albemarle Sound;" "The History and Present Condition of the Great Seine Interest of the Croatan Sound;" "The Pound or Ditch Net Interest;" "The Fishery Traffic of Morehead and Beaufort;" "The Fishery Traffic of Wilmington, Elizabeth City, &c.;" "The Trout Streams of Western Carolina;" "Carp Culture in the State, &c.;" There will be, as stated, a lecture by Lt. Francis Winslow, U. S. N., on oyster farming.

Music in the Air.

The Cornet Concert Club met for practice last night, after which they took a Seaside Park wagonette and drove around the city, furnishing some delightful music. The night was excessively hot and nearly every body was taking advantage of a seat on piazzas in order to get any chance cooling breath of air that might be circulating, and the sound of music borne across the stillness of the night saluted the ears with real delight. We hope that if (the music, not the weather) may be repeated.

Board of Aldermen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night. The Committee on Fire Department reported a resolution, which was adopted: that the drivers and horses of the hose reels belonging to the Little Giant and Cape Fear Companies be kept at their houses during the day and night, and that they be required to respond with all possible dispatch to any alarm; horses to be exercised in front of the houses, but in no case to go out of sight for more than two hundred feet from the engine house; also, that the Board of Audit and Finance be requested to transfer to the Fire Department the amount necessary to meet the above change from the Street Department.

A resolution was also adopted that the telephone alarm be replaced at the Hook and Ladder house.

A recommendation of the committee on Fire Department was adopted, that one of the old reels be repaired and hose be purchased to equip the Banner Hose Reel Company.

The committee on Markets reported that no change had been made in the amount of rental on each stall in the market houses, on advice of the City Attorney.

The special committee in the matter of furnishing new seats in the Opera House reported that the financial condition of the city did not warrant the expenditure required.

A resolution by Alderman Boney was referred to the committee on Streets-asking for estimates of a macadamized roadway twenty-five feet wide, on Market, between Second and Seventeenth streets.

The matter of grading Ann street, between Third and Fourth streets, was referred to committee with power to act.

Several petitions to erect buildings were granted.

The Board then adjourned.

Attempted Burglary.

About 1 o'clock on Monday morning a colored man was discovered by the inmates trying to effect an entrance through one of the windows of a house on North Second street, between Chestnut and Mulberry. When the burglar found that the people were awake and had seen him he very deliberately walked out to the sidewalk and went off whistling, as unconcerned as if he was engaged in an entirely legitimate occupation. An examination the next morning showed that he had tried several of the windows before he had been interrupted. The gentleman of the house was absent at the time, a fact of which the scamp was undoubtedly well aware.
