Democratic success will be triumph antly assured by a complete and thorough Democratic organization; so arouse from your lethargy, Democrats of Eastern North Carolina, and organize in every ward, precinct, township and county and give the Democratic ticket a majority that shall be a daisy!

Rev. Henry Ward has written a letter to Gen. Alger, the Republican candidate for Governor of Michigan, respecting the statement as regards Blaine's offer, when Speaker, to J. F. It is a curious rule tn England that when a bishop retires his pension comes out of the income of his successor. Sir Charles Dilke has adopted the idea and applied it to the civil service. Two of his private secretaries were recently promoted, and in order that they might find their promotion pleasant he has Depot. taken from the income of their successors to increase their pay.

Immense shipments of flour are being made from San Francisco to China, as well as canned goods, salted meats and other provisions. The shipments are mainly to Chinese merchants in Hong-Kong, which leads to the supposition that they are made on behalf of the Chinese government, in anticipation of a long war. It is estimated that no less than 8,000,000 pounds of four were shipped during September.

The death of Field Marshal Von Bet. tenfield, at the age of 88, leaves the Emperor William as the oldest officer the few surviying German veterans who earned their first laurels at Waterloo or Leipsic. He took a leading part in the three great wars of the present Emper. or, and was present at Alsen, Koniggraiz and Sedan. His age exceeded the Emperor's by only one year.

The news from Ohio, as revealed by correspondents of the New York papers, is not by any means discouraging to the Democratic hopes. The Republicans, they say, are spending money there like water and are resorting to all manner of disreputable practices to carry the State next week, and yet the Democratic managers are neither dis heartened nor discouraged. They are following the enemy close at every turn and the fight is fierce and bitter, and the result may be close. The desperation to which the Republicans are reduced is b est seen in the fact that Mr Blaine left the State last Saturday for West Virginia, but was recalled, and is to be kept on the road until the close of the canvass.

THE DATES REVIEW

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1884.

NO. 240

Some one who signs himself "A Stalwart" has written a communication to the New York World, exposing some of the schemes of the Blaineites. It is interesting enough to republish, and here it is:

To the Editor of The World:

Information of an important and startling character has just come into my possession, which I feel it my duty to give to the public. I have long been a Republican and a Stalwart, but I believe the euccess of the Republican party with such an infamous man as James (7. Blaine at the head of it would be the grea est calamity that could befall it and the country. I have, there at 8 o'clock. Let all Democrats be fore, resolved that I will do all in my present to hear the distinguished power as a very humble citizen for the election of Gov. Cleveland as the best means of rebuking that degraded following that succeeded in putting James G. Blaine in nomination at Chicago. The information I have is this:

A syndicate made up of ten men has been formed to raise $1,000,000 to send to the Ohio Republicans with which to purchase enough voters to carry the election of the Republican State ticket and thus save Blaine from immediate and final disaster. This syndicate is made up of Jay Gould, W. H. Vanderbilt, C. P. Huntington, Russell Sage, Cyrus W. Field, John Jacob Astor, the Seligmans, John Roach, D. O. Mills and Levi Morton.

The Blaine managers have become chant. greatly alarmed about Ohio during the last few days. This enormous corrup. tion fund has been secured at the last moment under the greatest pressure. It is easy enough to see that these gentlemen all have a selfish motive in being and Huntington have great railroad inter sts that they want protected. The Union Pacific, for instance, owes the Government over $50 millions. which it will never pay unless compelled to. Blaine was their friend in 1878, when Edmunds and Thurman bravely struggled with the Funding bill, and he would be their friend still. Mr. Astor has an ambitious son whom he wants kept in the diplomatic service. Mr. Morton wants to retain his miswill walk over Ben Butler. Macdhui sion or have the Treasury portfolio. D. O. Mills is the tather-in-law of Whitelaw Reid and is interested on general principles. The election of Blaine would be worth millions to John Roach in the way of steel-cruiser contracts. Thus every one of these aging. men has a selfish purpose in making up this stupendous corruption fund. I give this as a warning. Is there hope for the country when States can be purchased to make such a man as James G. Blaine President? Countrymen, tellow-Republicans of the old line, I ask you to stop and consider what we A STALWART.

Queer Medicine.

We hear of a colored boy who went into a grocery store on the North side of the railroad a few days since and wanted to get a rotten egg. The strange ness of the request caused the merchant to enquire what was wanted of such kind of goods, when the boy stated that the baby was sick and that he wanted it to give to the little one as a medicine. A Fine Instrument.

The new organ for St. Thomas Catholic Church, recently built by the famous organ builders, Messrs Hook September 30, 1884: & Mastings, of Boston, Mass., arrived here on Sunday night and is now being put up by Mr. Thomas Cadwallader, the organ tuner for that establishment, who came here expressly for that purpose. The organ, when in position There was a busy time at the City will be 19 feet high, 12 feet wide and 9 feet deep and will have 25 reg sters. It is a fine instrument, perfect in all its parts, and was set up and tested before it was shipped; as are all the instruments manufactured by that house. Work was begun in setting it up on Monday morning and it will take until Thursday, the 16th inst., before it will be completed and ready for use. This would seem to be a long time, but when we know that there are about 25,-000 pieces to be put together, it would not seem unreasonable. When completed it will be a beautiful instrument in tone and finish as well as an ornament to the church. The organ, as it was strewn about the gallery in parts, looked like anything but a musical instrument.
