THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1884. NO. 243

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Arthur doesn't hurrah for Blaine because he hates to break the civil service rules.

It is computed that 90 per cent. of the so-called olive sold in this country is made of cotton seed.

Sir John McDonald has left Ottawa for Europe. It is rumored that he will be raised to the peerage before he returns.

Bismarck has received a' the highest Prussian orders but one, and including his foreign orders, has forty-seven of these trinkets.

Senator Sharon's divorce suit has cost him over $200,000. He spent $10,000 in printing Gen. Barnes' speech in the San Francisco papers.

Mr. Capel said in a lecture in New York the other night: "The worship of the golden calf is as certain a fact in your great cities as it ever was under Sinai."

Peter Cooper's family have induced Thos. Hughes to write a life of that good man, and he will have the benefit of an autobiography written by Mr. Cooper not long before his death.

General W. S. Harney is said to be not only the oldest but the richest officer in the army, and his domestic establishment at St. Louis is described by an enthusiastic correspondent as "princely."

The Nashville American is apprehensive that the time has about come when as Newton surmised, although he could give no reason for it, the earth would at one time lose all its water and become perfectly dry.

James Gordon Bennett maintains five separate homes, though he can seldom be found in any of them. One is in Fifth avenue, New York, another at Fort Washington and one in Paris, London and Newport.

Visitors to France who land at Calais or Boulogne will hereafter have the pleasure of contributing a shilling each toward defraying the expenses incurred in improving the harbors of these rival ports on the North coast of France.

It is reported that President Arthur will seek to end his administration in a blaze of social glory, and that White-House entertainments are being planned for the winter on a large and more brilliant scale than ever before.

While President Arthur has been assiduously courting Miss Frelinghuysen at her father's house in New Jersey, Miss Frelinghuysen has been for several weeks past visiting friends in Lenox, Mass., is there now, and proposes to remain there.

A Western contemporary announces, on authority, that the Church Missionary Society has spent $600,000 since 1851 and the London Jews' Society $150,000 since 1877 in Missions to the Jews of Palestine, and that neither has a single convert to show for the money spent.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, is in California working on his big scheme. He is the originator of the idea for establishing the great national factories—one on the Atlantic, one on the Gulf and one on the Pacific—for the building of steel and iron war ships and heavy ordnance.

John McCullough will get well again after treatment at the Hot Springs of Arkansas. His doctor says it was not liquor, but excessive smoking of cigars that laid him low. His mind was affected by the fact that pretended friends borrowed a lot of his hard-earned money and then thought and acted, if they did not utter: "Base is the slave who pays."

Who will say that the outlook for the Democrats in Ohio is not bright and beautiful after reading the following from yesterday's Herald? It is from the staff correspondent of that paper in Ohio:

At Democratic State headquarters to-night there are eminent visitors from all over the country, among them being W. L. Hensel, chairman of the Pennsylvania Democratic State Committee; Governor Thomas Waller, of Connecticut, and W. Armstrong, of the National Committee. They are in high glee. The reports from Cincinnati and all the other cities are that the Germans are solid against Robinson for Secretary of State. The Democratic polls show a majority of 7,500 for them, and, with the Germans solid and the Hooking Valley aroused, the look for a big sweep rather er than a close vote. The drift has been strongly with the Democrats this week. They were never more confident, and the Republicans are so much alarmed that the Ohio State Journal, their organ, to-day, in referring to existing frauds and corruption, says that next Tuesday's election will be no proper expression from the voters of Ohio, that Blaine is much stronger than Robinson and that in November the horde of election workers who are here now will then be needed at their respective homes. With the confidence inspired by recent reports the Democrats are claiming fourteen of the twenty-one Congressional seats and the State by a majority equal to that of last year. The excitement on the streets and in public places is very high.

Yesterday's New York Times says editorially that New York State is as surely for Cleveland and Hendricks as is Georgia.

There was a magnificent demonstration, said to have been the largest ever known in the city, in New York, on Thursday night. It was a business man's demonstration in favor of Cleveland and Hendricks. There were miles of flaming torches, with 20,000 men, and Union Square, Irving Hall and the Academy of Music were packed to overflowing.

There is a land of pure delight Where saints immortal reign, Far here on earth, St. Jacobs Oil, Because it conquers pain, Makes mortals live in pure delight, And free from misery's chain.

Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.
Day's length 11 hours and 23 minutes.
Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOBI'S Depot.
Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 28 minutes past 5 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 876 bales.
The market was supplied with some excellent meats this morning.

There was one interment in Bellevue Cemetery this week, that of a child.

Henry Ward Beecher thinks there are now two well-established continental liars.

There were two interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week; one adult and one child.

There were three interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week, one adult and two children.

The dust is almost intolerable upon our streets and it has gotten into all the houses, much to the annoyance of the housekeepers.

The Register of Deeds issued four marriage licences this week, two of which were for white and two for colored couples.

Everybody seems to be finding plenty to do in discussing the political situation, and it has been the theme in the mouth of nearly all our citizens to day.

Mr. E. T. Draper, Manager for Mr. Julius Samson in this city, returned yesterday from a visit to New York, where he has been for several weeks past purchasing for his house.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready mixed Paints can be best attained by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint sold at JACOBI'S Depot.

Young men, let us advise you to improve the first spare moment and go and register. This same advice will apply to all others. It is tip-top advice and we don't ask a cent for it, either.

Haverley's Strategists will perform at the Opera House in this city on the 21st inst. They are a good-troupe and should draw a big house. They were with us last Winter and gave us a fine entertainment.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard is expected to arrive in the city to-night from Pollocksville, Jones county, where he has been in attendance upon the Eastern Baptist Association. He will probably occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church to-morrow.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

There was a fine display of fireworks along the route of the torchlight procession last night.

The New York World and Herald were in great demand this morning, but, unfortunately, there were but a very few reached here.

The handsome banner which was awarded by the ladies of this city in 1870 to the gallant Democrats of the Fifth Ward, for the greatest gain made by any ward in the city on the Merrimon vote, was unfurled last night and was borne in the procession.

Coughing Clara.—Comely, charming Clarissa Clendenning, carelessly catching cold; creeping chills came; Clara coughed continually; cruel, croupy cough, that would have taken her off, had she not used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It is bound to cure all the coughing Clara's.

For the sake of suffering humanity we would ask if there is no method by which the barking of the numberless unlicensed dogs in the city may be stopped. We have frequent complaints from people who have been kept awake night after night by the outrageous noise made by these midnight howlers.

We never mind the weather because we are constantly prepared to meet any kind. With comfortable clothing, rubber coats, umbrellas, and every garment intended for the comfort of man, and bought from John Dyer & Son, we are safe against all inclemencies.

Criminal Court.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal since closing our last report:

State vs. Frank Mumford, carrying concealed weapons. Defendant found guilty and judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

State vs. David Price and Joseph Midgett, affray. Defendants found guilty.

In the case of Fred Hall and John Gibson, convicted of an affray, the former was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and be imprisoned in the county jail 20 days, and the latter was fined $1 and costs.

State vs. Laura Haggett, highway robbery. Sentence not yet pronounced.

Register now! Delays are dangerous.

Democratic Rally.

The gathering of the Democracy last night was large, enthusiastic and demonstrative. The procession moved at the time appointed and was conducted the entire route without accident or delay. In many places it was greeted by a display of fireworks. Arriving at the "Wigwam," Mr. Thomas W. Strange, President of the Young Men's Democratic Club, under whose auspices the meeting was gotten up, assumed the chair. The first speaker was Mr. J. C. Davis, of this city, who made an able, instructive and practical speech of about an hour and a half's duration.

At the conclusion of Mr. Davis' speech, Col. Roger Moore, in a felicitous speech introduced Col. Alfred Rowland, Presidential Elector for this Congressional District, who entertained his hearers with an able, forcible and logical survey of the political situation. It was quite late where he began to speak and some of his audience were compelled to leave before he had concluded, but those who remained were delighted and edified by the arguments presented by Col. Rowland. He is a graceful and impressive speaker, has a fine presence, and a pure enunciation of every syllable which he utters, so that there is no difficulty in understanding his argument, as is too often the case with public speakers. He went into quite an elaborate disquisition of the tariff question which was both interesting and instructive and was listened to with the most profound attention and satisfaction by those present. He handled every subject upon which he touched with exquisite skill and it is to be deeply regretted that he could not have been spared a much larger share of the time. He may be always sure of a cordial greeting and a warm welcome from the Democracy of Wilmington.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Chief Marshal H. McL. Green and his assistants for the efficient manner in which the programme, as far as the procession was concerned, was carried out.

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost, nothing equals the MARLEINE sold at JACOBI'S Depot.

Cotton.
The receipts of cotton at this port for the 11 days ending with to-day foot up 10,843 bales, as against 13,622 bales for the first 13 days in October of last year, a decrease of 2,779 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 22,932 bales, as against 21,318 bales to October 13th of last year, an increase this year 1,614 bales.

City Court.
Joseph Williams, colored, was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. He was found guilty and was required to pay a fine of $5 for the offense.

Thomas Bartlett, a white sailor, for disorderly conduct, was also fined $5.

New Cigar Store.
Mr. I. Hirschberg has opened a very attractive cigar store on North Front st., near Market, to which he invites attention in an advertisement published in this issue. Mr. Hirschberg has also a factory in this city where he turns out large quantities of cigars, and he invites particular attention to the fact that all of his stock is pure and made of the best materials, in this city, and that no tenement house cigars will be found in his store.

The Fire.
The alarm of fire this afternoon was caused by flames discovered in the roof of a wooden tenement house on the corner of Surry and Queen streets, formerly the property of Mr. A. H. Van-Bokkelen. The house was only partially destroyed, and it is thought that the insurance, $500 in the Georgia Home, represented by Messrs. Northrop & Hodges, will cover the loss. The fire caught near a chimney, from which it is thought it was communicated. Several colored families lived there and they managed to save about all of their effects.

Personal.
Miss Mary Rivenbark, of Magnolia, is visiting friends and acquaintances in this city.

We regret to learn that Mr. T. B. Henderson is very ill at his residence in this city.

Mrs. H. O. Craig has returned to the city from Bridgewater, Rockingham county, Va., where she has passed the heated months of the Summer.

Col. Alfred Rowland left here this morning on the Carolina Central on his return to Lumberton. He expects to go to Brunswick next where we are sure he will strike some very effective blows.

Dr. J. H. Durham leaves here to-night for Raleigh, from whence he will go to Norfolk to attend the meeting at that place of the Virginia Dental Association, which convenes there next week. He expects to return to the city on Thursday.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
