

THIS PAPER

published every evening, Sundays excepted by

JOSH T. JAMES,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

ADVERTISEMENTS POSTAGE PAID: One year, $4.00; Six months, $2.00; Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents.

The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.

Advertisements will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

If you will listen intently you will hear something drop in Ohio to-morrow.

President Arthur was among the first of New Yorkers to pay his taxes, which amounted to $6,337.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is to be at the head of the women's department in the New Orleans Exhibition.

Elections take place to-morrow in West Virginia and Ohio and somebody is bound to get left. It will not be the Democrats.

Professor Max Muller in a recent speech declared it to be "a national misfortune when boarding schools took the place of day schools."

Charles Francis Adams the third entered the freshman class at Harvard this fall and was immediately selected as president of the class. The honors of Harvard are hereditary to that family.

The Blaine organs are making a terrible onslaught upon Mr. E. W. Oyster, a prominent New York Republican, because he refuses to support Blaine. The abuse will be of no avail—Oysters will be good in November, especially about the 4th.

Ellen Harris, a white woman, of Tennessee, sues the Louisville and Nashville Railroad for $10,000 because she was ejected from a train run for black excursionists. "What is sauce for the African," thinks the Springfield Republican, "is sauce for the poor white."

Mr. Begole, the Governor of Michigan, who is a candidate for re-election discards the adjective "Democratic," and speaks of his "Union" campaign, the "Union" speakers and the coming "Union" victory. The catch-phrase sounds better than "Democrat" to the ears of the woodchoppers.

Lord Northbrook's proposition to abolish the Egyptian army and substitute for it 9,000 policemen will hardly prove palatable to the Paris press, as it would seem to imply that the military force obviously needed in Egypt, or its frontiers, is for a long time to come to be supplied from England.

A special from Rome to the Baltimore Star says: "Cardinal Jacobini, by the order of the Pope, mailed on Sunday to Archbishop Gibbons, of Baltimore, extensive formula for the conduct of the Plenary Council to be held in Baltimore on November 5, including rules of precedence. There will be no Papal consistory until in December."

Lord Dufferin, formerly Governor-General of Canada, in an interview published in the New York Herald, said: "Pretty nearly every member of the diplomatic corps that gets to Washington tries to bring home an American wife. I don't blame them, but fancy the results! The wives in most cases become ambassadors. What is the result? No diplomatic secrets any more; war and peace at the will of the wives, and all the wives American!"

Mr. Philip Armour, the "pork king" of the Northwest, is reputed to be worth $25,000,000. He has 10,000 men in his employ, and lately made $2,000,000 in one transaction. He rises at 5 o'clock daily, and works harder and longer than any of his clerks. Every great city in the world contains one of his representatives. He denies that he is a speculator or a gambler, but that his sole function is that of a distributor to the markets of the world. He is stout, below the average height, and beardless.

Mr. Hill, chairman of the Blaine and Logan Club in Haverhill, Mass., has joined the Cleveland Republicans. He says: "The latest publications have convinced me that I ought to take a halt, retrace my steps and consider carefully the course to take. The recent utterances of many Republican leaders are startling to me, especially when they become active or virulent in support of Mr. Blaine."

Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh, has repudiated the Republican State ticket and will not vote for York. In a card in the News and Observer he says: "I do not think Dr. York a man fit for the Governor's chair. I do not mean anything personally discourteous, but for one relative I am not in any high office that he seeks. Nor do I think that his qualifications or his antecedents are such as to entitle him to the support, even of Republicans. I am satisfied from my long familiarity with his long public course that neither the charitable nor educational interests of the State would be safe under such a policy as has always characterized his public career.

As a North Carolinian I cannot look at the facts before me without perceiving that all the material interests of the State, her financial condition, her charitable and educational institutions, her progress at home and reputation in the eyes of the country, will be jeopardized by the election of a man of his antecedents.

A Maine lumberman, at a ball, saw the ladies in short sleeves; turning to his daughter, he said, "Katie, I don't see any good muscle in the whole room. They ought to use St. Jacobs Oil."

There was no City Court this morning.

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.

No rain yet and the streets are miserably dry and dusty.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,862 bales.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 82 degrees.

We are glad to see that Mr. J. Elsbach, who has been quite sick, is again able to be out.

Only three weeks to election and you have not registered yet. Why will you postpone this thing until the last minute?

The hours for registration are inconvenient for the workingmen. A change for a few days to meal hours would be wise.

We were shown gentlemen's Half Hose for 25c, that cannot usually be bought for 50c, at the store of John Dyer & Son.

The boys will be careful and save all their pennies with which to buy a ticket to go to Robinson's Circus, which will show here on the 18th inst.

Br. barque Harriet Campbell, Grafton, cleared to-day for Liverpool, with 2,115 bales of cotton, valued at $94,815, shipped by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son.

We return thanks for a complimentary ticket to the Fair of the Roanoke & Tar River Agricultural Society, to be held at Weldon November 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church will give a dime party at the Parsonage, on next Friday evening, and the young folks are looking forward to the occasion with much interest.

Three weeks from to-morrow will be Presidential election, so hurry up and register, and have that duty off your mind. Do not delay, but walk right up to the registrar's office and register.

The officers and visitors of the Ladies' Benevolent Association are requested by Mrs. Kennedy, the President, to meet at Miss Annie Hart's school room, on Third street, at 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. L. J. Otterbourg resumes his advertising space with us to-day. We know from a personal inspection of his stock that it is a large one, excellent in materials and low in prices. He asks those in want of anything in his line to call and inspect the goods.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready mixed Paints can be best attained by the N. Y. Paint Point

It is our very sincere opinion that some of our Republican friends are going to be somewhat surprised to-morrow night, when the returns come in from Ohio. It will be a sort of stand-from-under-or-you'll-get-hit astonishment.

"I speak within bounds, sir," said the prisoner in the dock, when addressing the jury. We speak knowingly when we declare with enthusiasm the great benefits of Dr. Bull's famous Cough Syrup.

Business Changes.

Some important changes have taken place in a prominent commission house on North Water street. Mr. E. P. Covington has sold the grocery department of his business to Messrs. C. C. Covington & Co., who will hereafter conduct it and keep constantly on hand a full line of heavy groceries, while Mr. E. P. Covington will continue to conduct the commission business at the old stand.

Two Foreign Steamers.

It is seldom that two foreign steamers, of different nationalities, arrive in our port at the same time. The arrivals to-day were the Br. steamer Ashdel, 1,135 tons, Capt. Main, and the Sp. steamer Pedro, 765 tons, Capt. Echwarria. The former is a new vessel and this is her first trip since she was launched.

These steamers are both consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane and will load foreign with cotton. One is at the Wilmington Compress and the other at the Champion.

Hand Painted China.

The News and Observer says that one of the most attractive displays in the Exposition, particularly interesting to housewives, is the hand-painted china in the New Hanover county exhibit. The painting was done by Mrs. W. A. Williams, of Wilmington, and is both tasteful in design and artistically executed.

We have heard of this exhibit but have never seen it. There are 64 pieces in all and our informant, who is a lady, says that the designs are all beautiful and that the work is the best she has ever seen.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Democracy at Whiteville.

We have received a communication from Capt. D. P. High, chairman of Columbus County Democratic Executive Committee, which states that Maj. C. M. Stedman and Judge W. T. Faircloth will have a joint discussion on the political issues of the day at Whiteville, on Monday, the 20th inst., and that Senator Vance will speak to the Democracy there on Tuesday, the 21st inst. There will undoubtedly be a grand rally on both occasions and we can assure the sturdy Democracy of that grand and true old county that they will have a two-days' feast of rare political food. Columbus is sure for her regular old-fashioned Democratic majority and the speeches of Monday and Tuesday next will do much towards making it larger than it has ever been before.

Criminal Court.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal since closing our last report:

State vs. Solomon Robbins, assault with a deadly weapon. Sentenced to two years in the County House of Correction and to pay a fine of $100.

State vs. Pompey Sneed, larceny. Sentenced to ten years in the State Penitentiary.

Two cases against a magistrate for false imprisonment and malfeasance in office, were continued until the next term of Court.

State vs. Wm. Rowe, carrying concealed weapons. Defendant submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Solomon Robbins, assault and battery. One year in county jail and $100 fine.

Added to those there were several sci fas issued.

The grand jury were discharged on Saturday night and the Court adjourns

You Might Live Until the Next Centennial,

AND NEVER HAVE A BETTER CHANCE TO TEST THE STRETCHING QUALITIES of a Dollar. A great many people think a Dollar means One Hundred Cents. It is a big mistake. It means TWO DOLLARS at OTTERBOURG'S GREAT CLOTHING DEPOT.

We have been handling Clothing steadily for the past twelve years, but never have we been able to offer to the public a stock comprising so many BEAUTIFUL STYLES AND ELEGANT SHAPES, combined with EXTRAORDINARILY LOW PRICES, as we are now exhibiting.

We have Elegant Imported Cloths made in the latest novelties. We show styles that CANNOT be seen at any other house in the city, and if you are in "fair shape" we'll wager $500 that no Merchant Tailor in town can "fix" you up to better advantage than we and you save from Forty to Fifty Per Cent.

We want you to see our $12.50 Men's Suits if we had purchased, as other houses did, before the Panic in the Clothing Market, we would not have been able to sell them for less than $20. Same with our Boys' Suits. We can give you a good Suit for $12.50, and when the time comes for Overcoats don't forget us. We have 200 Boys' Overcoats at $1 each, worth $2.50; and Men's in the same proportion.

All we ask is for you to look at our Goods and Prices. QUALITY AND PRICES GUARANTEED.

Any goods purchased from us, if not cheaper than can be bought at any other house, money refunded. Can you ask for any better guarantee?
