Music and Politics.

The Cornet Concert Club went to Macumber's Store this morning to fur. nish music for the Democratic rally o the citizens of Harnett township to-day. Hon. R. T. Bennett spoke there at noon to-day, and a good many of our citizens went down to hear him. He will speak here to night, and there will be a large turnout for the occasion.

Friday Evening Lectures.

Rev. D. Mendelsohn, Rabbi of the Jewish congregation, worshipping in the Temple, corner of Fourth and Market streets, will resume, to-night his Friday evening lecture. We learn that during the ensuing Winter he intends to speak on Jewish history, and this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, will deliver the introductory lecture, in which he will discuss "The Study of History." Seats are free and visitors welcome.

Hard to Please.

Some people are hard to please and will not be satisfied. In our Monday's issue, we stated that it people would listen intently they might hear something "drap" in Ohio on the next day. It is a fact that a Republican majority of 27,771, in 1880, has "drapped" to a did not seem to satisfy some of the Republican speakers last night, who sneered at our Monday's prediction. As full returns are not all in we expect to "drap" a little harder before to-morrow night We will do all we can to accommodate Republicans, but must say that they are hard to please if the presert "drap" is not sufficient. To our ken it looks as if it had "drapped" the The weather yet remains dry and bottom out of Blaine's bucket of aspiramost effectually and forever prohibits After the cold snap incident to the the tattoed man from being President of these United States.
