THE SITUATION.

Friends of country, liberty and the blussings of a good government, honalso, all vessels which have had any kind of estly and economically administered, Flanchgen is at home" on Thursdays. we are safe if we but do our duty manfully and faithfully during the remainder of the campaign! The news from every quarter is of the most cheering and gratifying character. Every prospect is bright and hopeful. In West Virginia, athe vidette post of the Southern Democracy, the hardy moun addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH taineers have done a noble work. Notwithstanding the fact that the State has been overrun with Republican speakers and been freely supplied with Republican money, she has proven true to berself and to the cause of good government by tolling up a Democratic majority of nearly or quite 10,000 yotes. From Ohio the news is not less cheering | moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It was in that State that the great battle was waged. To maintain their vantage ground there in the October election has been the superhuman effort of the Republicans, well knowing, as their great chief and standard-bearer fre- Circulars and testimonials sent free. quently stated that, a majority of less than 20,000 in that State would be useless in other States. This they have failed to do, although more than $1,000,000 have been lavished there in and the best speakers in the country, including both of their standard bearers, have shouted themseives hoarse in their importunate appeals to the passions, prejudices and cupidity of men. An army of government officials, led by Commissioner of Pensions, Dudley, have been canvassing the State for weeks, yet they have secured the State by only about 8,000 majority. This in face of the fact that it has always been Republican by majorities ranging from 20,000 to 30,000 votes. Both parties have worked earnestly and faithfully in that State,--the Democrats in hope of a return to a purer and better administration of the government, and the Republicans in a death struggle to maintain the supremacy which they have so long held. Any majority less than 15,000 was a Republican defeat and any majority less than 10,000 was a Democratic victory. The news regarding the election, as it was at first flashed over the wires, was not cheering. On the contrary, it was depressing. But when more authentic and reliable information began to be received, and the boasted Republican majorities of 20 -000 and 25,000 votes began to melt before the genial sunshine of truth there was immediately a corresponding reaction and the true and earnest Democratic pulse of North Carolina-and in fact of the entire country-began to heat with gleeful joy at the welcome intelligence. The same news has had a correspondingly depressing influence upon the Republicans, and the intelligent portion of that party throughout the country now feel that they have a forlorn hope to grapple with. They will work with the energy of despair and will use every strategy known or to be conceived of in political chicanery to avert the dreaded disaster, but the handwriting is on the wall and their doom is sealed if the Democracy only prove true to themselves, to their duty and to their country. "Turn the rascals out!"

The Charleston News & Courier. one of the best and most progressive newspapers in the entire South, has the following to say of the political prospect in North Carolina:

The accounts from North Carolina are highly encouraging Those Demo-cratic tar-heels stick without glue. The State is sale for Cleveland and Hendricks.

True, every word of it, and it might also have said with equal truthfulness that North Carolina is also just as certain for the State ticket as it is to give its electoral vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

A "Women's Exchange."

The sight was displayed, and somebody went in to see if a man who was tired of his wife could go there and trade her off for another one. Found it was impracticable. The best kind of exchange for women is that which is promoted by Brown's Iron Bitters. Exchange poor health for good. Broken down and debiliated ladies with impoverised blood find vigor and joy in the enrichment which this prince of tonics bestows on them.

OCTOBER ODDS.

A bootblack who went West after accumulating a comfortable sum of money always refers with pleasure to his metropolishing career.

In the war between France and China let us not forget the poor slais. For "poor slain" read "porcelain," and there you are. We hate to be compelled to explain a joke.

In the spring the trees leave, and in the fall the leaves leave. In the winter the snow flies, and in the summer the fly flies. In the-but a little of this goes a long way.

Miss Louise Alcott believes that women can fill any office from the Presidential chair to a washtub. They can, certainly, but when it comes to filling a washtub the old man is generally called upon.

It is said that Mrs. Belva Lockwood gets very indignant when she comes Co. home after a hard day's electioneering and discovers no fire in the kicthen stoye, and her husband leaning over the back fence gossipping with a neigh-
