THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1884. NO. 254

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects, general interest but the name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. Advertisers especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington. Sir Moses Montefiore, the centenarian, has 311 grandchildren. Michael Davitt and Henry George are to start a new Socialist paper in London. Ex-Senator Wallace is credited with the authorship of the address issued last week by the National Democratic Committee.

Professor C. A. Young's book on the sun has been translated into French, German, Italian and Russian, and 900 copies have been sold in England. The price of dynamite in Mexico has fallen from a dollar a pound, which it was four years ago, to twenty-five cents a pound, or even less. In fact, it is a drug in the market. M. Worth, the famous man-miliner, being determined that his daughter should not marry below her station, as the phrase goes, has betrothed her to the son of a millionaire tailor.

The New York Century Club has taken steps for the expulsion of ex-President John C. Eno. The last expulsion was that of Frederick A. Lane, the lawyer of Fisk and Gould, in 1874. Sir Moses Montefiore, in his rural resort at Ramsgate, is now daily receiving, and is able to talk with and entertain the numerous friends and delegations that call to congratulate him on his centennial.

Wheat sold in London on Saturday at a lower price than at any time in one hundred years, and in New York at a lower figure than has been known since the civil war, with serious questionings whether bed rock has even now been reached.

Most of Oscar Wilde's money accumulated in this country was made outside his lecture room. He was constantly offered large sums by rich men to visit their houses and suggest harmonious colors and artistic effects in decoration. He frequently got $500 for a visit of a couple of hours.

A newspaper correspondent who recently visited Ohio says that he saw placards in shops and factories announcing that unless Blaine be elected in November, "this shop will be closed." It is this sort of thing, says the World, were practiced upon the poor, ignorant negroes of the South it would be called "bulldozing."

William H. Vanderbilt may have lost much money, but much remains. His gift of $500,000 to the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York was a princely one. It is a gift to the poor, for the college treats between 30,000 and 40,000 free patients yearly. Mr. Vanderbilt's charities have been magnificent and very likely will continue.

Charles Wyndham, the English comedian, declines to visit this country again with his company. The actors became dissatisfied while on this side of the Atlantic on finding that the salaries they were receiving were not more than one-half the rates current here. They demanded more salary, and were, therefore, hurried back to England before their contracts expired.

Col. Ezra Taylor, of Chicago, General Sherman's chief of artillery, aged 64, desired to wed a dashing widow. Col. Taylor's two sons bulldozed the old soldier, shot his baggy horse, and threatened to confine him in a lunatic asylum if he did not abandon the idea. He had gone through the mightiest war of modern times, but could not stand this unflinching assault. The widow is yet to be heard from.

A Maryland clergyman has been forced by his congregation to resign his ministry, because after looking at the animals in the menagerie he took a seat and witnessed the performance in the circus ring. The discipline of the church allows the clergy to visit the menagerie but not the circus. And yet there are some things in the menagerie much more shocking than anything in the circus.

The Democrats of Ohio gained in twenty-two counties on their majorities for Monday last year, but a Republican gain of 5,000 in Cincinnati, of 2,500 in Cleveland, of 2,100 in Lorain, of 1,600 in Dayton and like gains in the heavy centers of population, where money and brute force could operate, controlled the result. The Democratic gains are all rural, and they show the completeness of the Democratic organization for polling the honest vote. This Democratic organization is the peril that confronts Blaine in Ohio, and it is an admonition to the Republican leader that they must not presume upon their slender October majority to carry the State for Blaine.

Off in the still night, When slumber's chain hath bound me, When a sudden ache my slumber breaks, And misery surrounds me, St. Jacobs Oil, the certain foil, Brings sleep again around me.

There was no City Court this morning. The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,354 bales.

How many white men in the city are there who have not yet registered?

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 8 o'clock.

The Radical party is a party of bluster, bravado and brickbats. Register and defeat them.

Suitable Underwear is for sale at Dyer's, at very reduced prices, and are going fast at Dyer's.

The guard houses furnished lodgings for seven tramps last night, six of whom were white and one colored.

The time between now and election is growing rapidly less, and the same may be said of Republican chances of success.

It is well to remember that every Democrat who fails to register and vote makes the Republicans a present of one vote in the contest at the polls next month.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

There are some things, that can be spolozized for and forgiven but none like that perpetrated by the Republican procession on Wednesday night. The ballot box is the redress.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready mixed Paints can be best attained by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint sold at JACOBI'S Depot.

As near as can be ascertained at this writing the alarm of fire this afternoon was a false one. The engines and the trucks turned out and then turned back, unable to find any fire to contend with.

A good many of our citizens registered yesterday, but there are yet a good many who have not registered. Do not put it off too long. There are but twelve days between this and election, and delays are dangerous.

The outrage offered to the next Governor of North Carolina, by the Republican party, on Wednesday night should never be forgotten or forgiven, and the best way for white men to show their sentiments on the subject is to register and vote.

The Republicans are, of course, sorry for the outrage of Wednesday night, for because it was perpetrated but because it was a boomerang and hit back. If it could have made votes for them nobody believes they would be sorry worth a cent.

The Democrats of this city hold the Republicans, not as individuals, but as a party, responsible for the outrage on Gen. Scales on Wednesday night. It is for the Republicans to punish the individual; that is their affair, not ours. The party, as a party, is responsible to us.

Some of the sidewalks in the city are in wretched condition. Among them we may mention the sidewalk on the North side of Chestnut street, between Fourth and Fifth. It is very rough and uneven, and might be made better by a very little trouble.

The steamer John Dawson will make the run from this city to Point Caswell and return, on Tuesday next, to accommodate those of our people who may want to hear the joint discussion between Maj. Stedman and Judge Faircloth, on that day.

Courteous but Emphatic.

The committee appointed at the Democratic meeting at the City Hall on Wednesday night to confer with the Republican leaders regarding the outrage perpetrated by the Republican procession, have performed the duty assigned to them faithfully and manfully, yet calmly and dispassionately, as the following communication, addressed to Gen. S. H. Manning, Chairman of the County Republican Executive Committee, will show:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 23, 1884.
S. H. Manning, Esq., Chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee.

DEAR SIR: The undersigned were appointed last night at a large assembly of the Democratic citizens of Wilmington, a committee to confer with the reputable leaders of the Republican party here, and to notify them of the feelings of the white people of this community concerning the outrage perpetrated on last night upon a peaceable assembly of citizens by a Republican procession, consisting mainly of blacks, and to notify these reputable leaders that the recurrence of such a proceeding will lead to a difficulty, and that they will be held responsible for the consequences.

The outrage and the facts attending it are these: Both the political parties held meetings last night and marched in procession. The Republicans met at the old market place, on Market and Front streets. The Democrats met in front of the City Hall, on the corner of Princess and Third streets. The Democrats, with the purpose and intention to avoid possibility of disturbing or incommoding the Republican procession or the speakers changed their programme so as that the Democratic procession should take up Gen. Scales at a remote point and march by a direction to the place of meeting altogether out of reach of possibility of an encounter. Notwithstanding this manifestation of a peaceable and orderly disposition, a large procession of Republicans, mainly of negroes, moved to Princess street, headed by a full band of music, and thence along that street to Third, where the Democratic meeting was held. When they reached that point the music was played lustily, and the procession yelled, accompanying the noise with jeers and derisive and offensive demonstrations, inasmuch that the Democratic candidate for Governor could not proceed with his address, and was put to silence. In the same moment two missiles were thrown, one of which struck Col. J. N. Staples, a guest of the citizens, and both of which were sufficiently dangerous to produce serious injury.

This unprovoked outrage is of a very grave character, being a gross interference with the freedom of the citizens, and we invite you to look with thoughtful consideration upon the consequences to which its recurrence will be sure to lead. This is not the only occasion of these outrages; they have occurred at every political campaign, beginning in 1865.

Such recurrence will not be permitted to pass with impunity, and this notification is addressed to you in your political character and relation to the Republican party, with the request that you will confer with your associate leaders about this notification, its meaning and significance.

It can readily be seen that it is strictly deplorable: not being intended either to threaten or intimidate, but simply to declare a fixed and deliberate purpose. In conclusion, this committee in behalf of the Democratic people of Wilmington assure all concerned that they will concur most cordially in all measures calculated to keep the peace and ensure the free expression of opinion to all parties, and as they have in the past so will they in the future abstain from all conduct likely to lead to the contrary.

We invite a similar line of conduct on the part of the Republicans, for the determination is reached not to hold any portion of their freedom on toleration or at peril. We have now done our duty, and responsibility will be incurred or avoided as this notification and invitation shall meet a favorable or an unfavorable reception.

Yours respectfully,
(Signed.) D. K. McRAE,
F. W. KERCHNER,
J. L. CANTWELL,
Committee.

Distinguished Visitors.

His Excellency, Gov. Jarvis, accompanied by Col. W. L. Saunders, Secretary of State, Gen. W. P. Roberts, Auditor, Mr. Henry M. Cowan, Teller of the State Treasury, and Rev. E. R. Riech, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, at Raleigh, arrived in the city this morning and registered at the Purcell House. They accompanied the remains of the late Capt. Guilford L. Dudley, Private Secretary to the Governor, and will attend his obsequies this afternoon. The distinguished party will leave for Raleigh on tonight's train.

Cool Weather.

A little after noon yesterday the weather began to grow decidedly cooler and at night it was quite cold, making a fire necessary for comfort. It continued to grow colder all night, and this morning it was so cold that fires and overcoats became absolutely indispensable.

Slight Fire.

The dwelling of policeman S. H. Terry, on Harnett street, between Sixth and Seventh, caught fire on the roof at about 9 o'clock this morning from a spark from the chimney. The alarm was at once given, but the flames were extinguished by the prompt efforts of the neighbors before the fire department arrived at the scene. A small hole was burned in the roof, which was the extent of the damage.

A Terrible Outrage.

We are informed of a gross outrage which was perpetrated yesterday in this city. A young married lady was passing along on Nun street, between Second and Third, about 1 o'clock in the day, when in passing two strapping colored boys she heard one of them say: "Ain't she putting on airs?" and before she could realize that the remark was meant for her the other approached and struck her full in the breast with his hand. They then ran off and the lady, terrified almost to death, hurried home. So violent was the blow that it made the lady really sick. There is a clue to the miserable scoundrels and it they fall into the hands of the indignant husband and his friends they will meet with a sure and swift reward.

The latest news from Zululand comes by cable. The warriors have all married; they desire in the future, peace and happiness and enough Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for the next season.

Personal.

Maj. T. H. McCoy, of this city, was in Asheville on Tuesday. Mr. El W. Hall, eldest son of Col. E. D. Hall, has returned to the city after an absence of about three years and a half at Fort Laramie, Wyoming Territory, with Mr. John London, who is the post trader there.

Mr. A. W. Morris, agent of Ford's Opera Company, was in the city today and gave us the pleasure of a call. He is here to make preparations for the appearance of the company, which will be on the nights of the 31st inst. and Nov. 1st, with a matinee on the afternoon of the latter date. It will please our theatre goers to know that Mr. Geo. W. Durham, an old favorite in this city, is with the company, and also the charming actress, Mrs. Zaida Seguin.

Yesterday's Fire.

At about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the alarm of fire was sounded, caused by the ignition of some cotton on board the British steamer Corn Brea, at the upper Compress. While a bale of cotton was being lowered into the after compartment of the steamer it was discovered to be on fire, but its descent was so rapid that it could not be checked until it reached the hold, when the flames immediately ignited the cotton already stowed there, amounting to about 200 bales. The firemen were soon on hand and streams of water were poured into the compartment until it was flooded and the fire thus gotten under control in a short time. There were about 1,500 bales on the steamer, but fortunately, the hold was divided into compartments so that only that which was in the after compartment was injured, either by fire or water. The cotton belonged to Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. and was insured. The amount has not yet been ascertained.

Organ Recital.

The musical entertainment at St. Thomas' Catholic Church last night was attended by an appreciative audience of ladies and gentlemen who were drawn thither, not only to listen to the new organ, but also to listen to the other excellent vocal and instrumental efforts. The exercises were opened by Mr. T. Cadwallader, the gentleman who had the charge of placing the instrument in position. Mrs. M. P. Taylor and Mr. I. H. Greenwald also tested the qualities of the organ, much to the delight of the audience. Mr. J. E. Willson played several solos on the cornet with his accustomed skill and taste. The vocalists were Mrs. Watters, Mrs. Kahuweiler, Mrs. O'Connor, Mrs. Hayden, Miss Reilly and Misses Grant and Reilly, and they rendered their respective parts with exquisite style, both in solos and choruses.

The Last Sad Rites.

The remains of the lamented Capt. Guilford L. Dudley arrived here this morning on the Carolina Central train, accompanied by Gov. Jarvis, Colonel Saunders, Gen. Roberts, Rev. E. R. Rich and Mr. H. M. Cowan. The funeral services were held from St. James' Church, and the remains were interred in the peaceful shades of Oakdale. The pall-bearers were Gov. Jarvis, Gen. Roberts, Hon. A. M. Waddell, Capt. C. D. Myers, Col. F. W. Kerchner, Col. E. D. Hall, Capt. R. F. Langner and Mr. J. A. Walker. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

DIED.

BACON—In this city, October 22, 1884, GEORGE FISHER BACON, son of Henry and Elizabeth K. Bacon, aged 22 years and 2 months. It is solemnly to be called upon to chronicle so sad a death as that of young George Bacon. We sympathize deeply with the bereaved parents and relatives, who are but sojourners in our midst, far from those home ties which surround us here and the life-long friends who would be near to comfort them in their sorrow. In his life with us he won those who met him by his gentle and kindly qualities, both of head and heart, and short as it was, his truth and strength shone into our lives. We will ever cherish his memory and his grave shall not be forgotten.
