

Published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1884. NO. 260

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Blaine owns $174,000 worth of coal property near Pittsburgh.

Col. Vilas is scattering his oratorical shot in Iowa, the Republican stronghold.

Dr. Tanner, of past prominence as an expert starver, is living on a ranch in Mexico.

Miss Beach, of Washington, one of Allan Arthur's alleged fiancées, sailed for Europe last week.

Mr. McSweeney, of British dungeon fame, is telling Chicago audiences about Mr. Blaine's forgetfulness.

The Empress of Germany sent a telegram to Sir Moses Montefiore, congratulating him on his 100th birthday.

Miss Longfellow, one of the daughters of the poet, is to be married to Mr. Thorpe, the brother of Mrs. Ole Bull.

Butler has thrown up all his New York State engagements. Can he be sick of his canvass? Or is his canvass sick of him?

The banking firm of Rothschild in London employ women exclusively as coupon counters, and experience shows that they are far more reliable and intelligent than male employees.

The magnificent "First Spiritual Temple," which the Spiritualists of Boston are building in that city, is slowly nearing completion. It will have cost about $250,000 when finished.

Miss Doghlan, the leading lady of Wallace's Theatre, in New York, receives $300 a week. She has a man cook, a coachman, a maid, and a general servant, and her diners are superb.

Crough, the writer of "Kathleen Mavourneen," received $25 for the production, and afterwards became a begging tramp, while his publisher could have built a brown stone front out of its sales.

General Grant, in writing his autobiography, says that the things he remembers most vividly are those of his early life and that the Mexican war seems more distinct to him than the late civil war.

Steamers are expected at Buenos Ayres from Genoa with 400 passengers. They cleared through a blunder of the Argentine Consul at Genoa, and as an account of cholera, no vessels from Genoa are admitted in the port of Buenos Ayres, trouble is apprehended.

A dog at Sacramento is dying from the effects of a $20 gold piece in his stomach. From swallowing crackers tossed to him he acquired the accomplishment of catching coins, holding them between his teeth a moment, and returning them to their owners. The tipsy individual who tossed him the gold eagle has expressed a desire to be present at the autopsy.

A centenary medal has been struck in honor of Sir Moses Montefiore, the venerable philanthropist, whose likeness is faithfully and expressively shown on the obverse, while the reverse contains an appropriately worded dedication. Encircling the bust is an inscription in Hebrew, "Happy is every one who feareth the Eternal; who walketh in His ways. 8th Heshwan, 5645."

Postmaster-General Hatton has inaugurated one reform that may tend to check dishonesty in the Postoffice Department. He has made an order that any clerk who hypothecates his salary shall be dismissed. If clerks cannot get their salaries until they have earned them the chances are that they will not get themselves into trouble trying to raise money to pay the exorbitant interest demanded by the shylocks. They cannot borrow without furnishing security.

It is a common mistake to assume that Australia is a country destitute of large rivers; on the contrary, it possesses one of the longest in the world, viz., the Darling, which is navigable for 2,345 miles, placing it third in rank among the rivers of the world, estimated by their navigable length, and considerably above the Nile, navigable for 1,500 miles; the Danube, navigable for 1,700 miles; the Rhine, navigable for 600 miles, and the Thames, navigable for 188.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Here are two items of interest for this column gleaned from the Hartford (Conn.) Catholic:

Patrick O'Brien, of La Salle, Ill., will be taken to the polls on November 4 in a baroque drawn by four horses, headed by a brass band, and have an escort of 100 members of the Young Men's Democratic Club.

A Sullivan campaign club has been organized in New York city. It numbers about four hundred and each member is named Sullivan.

The Stalwarts are the latest element of the opposition to Mr. Blaine that has appeared on the political stage in New York.

The reports concerning sweet potatoes begin to be quite interesting. The last of these succulent esculents reported was from Red Banks and it weighed six pounds and three quarters.

George Conklin, the lion-tamer, says he will have nothing to do with cross-eyed animal, nor use any other remedy for his coughs and colds but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. C W YATES—New Goods S H TRIMBLE—Auction Notice

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

The celebrated Melville Hat can only be had at Dyer's; a new line of the latest styles are shown there.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

The Br. Steamship Ashdell, which has been aground for two or three days at the jetties, was gotten off this morning and proceeded down the river to Smithville.

Col. D. K. McRae will speak in front of the City Hall to-morrow night, and we trust that there will be a grand rally to listen to the distinguished orator.

There was one case of disorderly conduct before the Mayor this morning which was settled by the payment of a fine of $3. We suppress the name by request.

We learn that quite a number of colored men have illegally registered in the First Ward. This must be looked after, and we hope that vigilant Democrats will not allow a ballot to be cast by any one not legally entitled to vote.

From a letter from our esteemed correspondent and subscriber, Mr. N. Gillican, of Moss Neck, Robeson county, we learn that the Democrats of that section are wide-awake and will poll a full vote for Cleveland on Tuesday next. Good! Whoop'em up!!

Colonization of colored men is reported from the First and Fifth Wards. This matter should be attended to at once, and the Democrats should have a strong force of good and resolute challengers at the polling places in those wards on the day of election.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready mixed Paints can be best attained by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint sold at JACOB'S Depot.

The spell of warm, dry and dusty weather has at last been broken, and we predict plenty of rain during the month of November.

Pender county will prove true to herself on Tuesday next and her vote will give a majority for honest government and white supremacy.

Quite a number of our citizens went down to Masonboro this morning to partake of the oyster roast at Fowler's Point and to listen to the Democratic speeches that were made there.

Mr. Frank Fales, of Masonboro Sound, has raised a second crop of water melons this year, which are said to be as nice, ripe, rich and as well flavored as any of the first crop.

Mr. Oakley McNeill, who lives near Moss Neck, Robeson Co., killed a rattlesnake a few days since that measured four feet and eight inches in length and had 13 rattles. It was one of the largest ever seen in that section.

The reports concerning sweet potatoes begin to be quite interesting. The last of these succulent esculents reported was from Red Banks and it weighed six pounds and three quarters.

Our citizens will be treated to-morrow night with a speech from this incisive and eloquent orator on the political issues of the day. It being Saturday night when he speaks, the hour has been considerably fixed at half past eight, so that those who are compelled to do marketing and shopping at the close of the week may have time to make their purchases before the speaking commences.

Our citizens will be treated to-morrow night with a speech from this incisive and eloquent orator on the political issues of the day.

It was on the "boards" as "quiet at 27 1/2 cents per gallon," but we made it read as "quiet at 28 1/2 cents per gallon." We try to be correct in our quotations, and how such an egregious blunder should have been made is beyond our ken.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

It was our fault, and not the printer's, and one for which, with our characteristic good nature, we are entirely willing to be forgiven.

The last Democratic speech of the campaign will be at the Market House next Monday night, when Major C. M. Stedman will deliver an address.

That will close the campaign, so far as speech-making is concerned. Voting will be the next thing in order and that will begin on Tuesday morning. Have you registered?

Mr. J. W. Taylor has gone to the exposition. His daughter, Maggie, Miss accompanied him.

Mr. J. H. Currie, who has been to Raleigh to visit the Exposition, returned to the city last night.

We are glad to learn that Miss Getie Taylor, who has been quite sick with fever, has so far recovered as to be able to be up and about the house.

Hon. George Davis, who has recently visited the State Exposition, is very warm in his expression of approval, and says that it is a wonderful exhibit of the resources of our wonderful State, but that the truth has not yet been told.

Maj. C. M. Stedman was in the city to-day. He is announced to speak at Rockingham, Richmond Co., tomorrow. There is to be a mass-meeting at that place and a high old Democratic time generally. Several speakers will address the multitude.

Mr. John R. Paddison, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee of Pender county, gave us the pleasure of a visit this morning. He speaks cheerfully of the political outlook in Pender and says that the Democratic candidate for the lower House of the Legislature, Mr. John T. Bland, will be elected. Well, he ought to be elected.

Mr. Bruce Williams, of Long Creek, Pender county, gave us the pleasure of a visit yesterday. He is confident of the success of the Democratic ticket in Pender.

The only man who don't get out of patients in this weather—the doctors. The only patients who get out of doctors are those who sue St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain reliever.

Hon. D. K. McRae, of this city, spoke in Raleigh on Wednesday night and the papers of that city speak in very handsome terms of his effort on that occasion. We copy from the Chronicle:

Last evening Chairman Battle, of the Democratic State Committee, introduced to a court-houseful of the leading men of Raleigh (among whom, too, were a number of visitors), the distinguished gentleman for whom 26 years ago he cast his first vote for Governor, Mr. Duncan K. McRae, of Wilmington.

For more than two hours and a half Mr. McRae spoke, reviewing with broad scope—first the history of tariff legislation and the doctrine as taught by the Democratic party; and secondly a general review of the iniquity of the Republican party.

The most striking part of his address was that wherein he declared the great mistake of the Democratic party was the endorsement of the Waterstonian tariff plank of 1880. Neither the Democratic party nor the Whig party nor any party in American, Mr. McRae declared, ever advocated until 1880 a doctrine of tariff for revenue only. He read and explained the platform of the Chicago Democratic Convention and endorsed its utterances on the tariff, expressing himself in favor of incidental protection.

Then followed a sweeping review of Republican mismanagement for the last 18 years. His review of the reconstruction period in the South is the most stinging and the most humorous narrative, perhaps, in all political history.

But it was the marvellous wit (and it bubbled up everywhere), the striking antitheses, and the sarcasm of Mr. McRae that pleased his audience most.—What happy hits he made!

"There are honest men in the Republican party," he said. "There is, for instance, my learned friend, Dr. Eugene Grissom, who is one of the handsomest if not the handsomest man in North Carolina. [Cheers.] Whatever advice he would give on almost any matter (York or other) it is well to consider and follow."

"Then there are others—eh—yes, but I do not now recall their names. But Col. Lot Humphrey is another. He is a Republican from his inordinate propensity to be on the opposite side. Once there was a fellow standing by a lamp-post who asked a passer-by which was the opposite side of the street. 'The other side,' said he. 'Why, I asked a fellow over there which was the opposite side, and he said this was. How am I to know?'"

When he had occasion to allude to Col. I. J. Young he said: "He was a good soldier. When his commander had need of a man of nerve and daring, he instantly sent for Col. Y. ung. Isaac had no white liver, as he has shown no white politics. Isaac—Isaac, the son of Abraham, wishes the internal revenue abolished. If old father Abraham were to take him to the altar to make sacrifice and say, 'Isaac, my son, I am commanded to offer thee up,' would Isaac say, 'Yes, father?' Not a bit! He would answer: 'There is a calf in the thicket; sacrifice him.'"

When he came to discuss prohibition,

Mr. McRae said that on the election day in Maine, the Blaines went to the polls. "Emmons voted, Walker voted, and honest Jeems he dodged right up like a man. Here you have them: York all whiskey, Russell all water—not a rivulet or a lake, or an inlet nor a sound, but a whole ocean! And Blaine, with whiskey on one shoulder and water on the other, and dodge on both."

Story after story, epigram after epigram, here and there passages of high eloquence—everywhere the fluency and sarcasm that have made Mr. McRae a notable man for half a century—indeed almost ever since the day when, as a child, he welcomed LaFayette to Fayetteville—filled two hours and a half.

Ger brig Express, Voss, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 1,056 bales of cotton, valued at $46,735.61, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. (Ger. brig Diana, Schroeder, cleared for Amsterdam with 1,100 bales of cotton, valued at $49,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son; making a total of exports foreign amounting to $95,735.61.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard received a telegram from Raleigh last Wednesday night, stating that his son in that city was seriously sick with diphtheria, and left on the next train. He has not yet returned, nor has any news been received regarding the condition of his sick son.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the 7th and 8th of November next, at which time Miss Lillian Oleutt will appear.

Mr. Jerry Hewlett, at his fishing grounds at Masonboro, to day landed 1,104 bunches of mulletts of four to the bunch.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Santa Claus COMING.

OUR HOLIDAY GOODS

TAYLOR'S BAZAAR.

A FINE LINE of Flannels for ladies, misses and children; Kid Gloves, Jersey Gloves, Velvets, Velveteens, Plushes, Silks, Satins, Ribbons, Laces, Corsets, Hosiery and Underwear at prices to suit every one. Call and see.

TAYLOR'S BAZAAR, 118 Market St. oct 27 WILMINGTON, N. C.

Great Prejudice to Onions

HAS EXISTED AMONG AMERICANS since the remarkable courtship of Miles Standish. Since that time men have been doing their own courting, and have been debarred the privilege of partaking of this fragrant vegetable. We have solved the problem by selling the VALENCIA ONION, which leaves neither small nor taste, and can be relished by all. They are worth 5 cents per pound, and weigh from one to three pounds.

The Unexpected Rush for the Creamery Buttered Flour

ran our supply short last week, but we will have it by Wednesday's steamer. It is a marvel in its way. Every one should try it. Remember it is prepared by Mr. Joe Strange, who was a former Wilmingtonian, and we know it is pure.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. 110 North Front St. oct 27

$25 Reward. BY THE LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA, Section 2709, it is made indictable to illegally register or vote, punishment being IMPRISONMENT FOR TWELVE MONTHS and a FINE OF $500. Therefore, for information sufficient to convict any person violating said Section, the undersigned will pay a reward of $25 upon the conviction of the offender.

JAS. W. KING, Chm'n Dem. Ex. Committee. Stores for Rent.

WAREHOUSE AND OFFICES above now occupied by Messrs. H. Johnson & Co. Store and offices above now occupied by A. Dumelant.

BRASS FIRE DOGS, Shovels and Tongs. SOMETHING VERY NICE AND VERY CHEAP. GILES & MURCHISON, 33 and 40 Murchison Block oct 27

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned having qualified as Administrator of the estate of the late Robert S. Radcliffe, of New Hanover County, hereby notifies all persons having claims against the same to present them on or before the 10th day of October, 1885, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of a recovery. Those indebted to the same will please make immediate payment.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Having qualified as Administrator upon the estate of the late Mary P. Pickett, notices hereby given to all persons having claims against the undersigned, on or before the 17th day of September, 1885, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.

Notice. HAVING QUALIFIED AS ADMINISTRATOR of the estate of Ann Gleason, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the said estate to make payment at once, and all persons having claims against said estate will present them for payment to the undersigned, on or before the 27th day of September, A. D. 1885, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.