

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1884.

NO. 263

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
C W YATES—New Goods
W E DAVIS & SON—For Sale
OPERA HOUSE—Lillian OLCOTT
R M MCINTIRE—Received To-day
HEINBERGER—Bookseller and Stationer.
F C MILLER—Friends and Fellow Citizens

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 684 bales.

There were a goodly number of young men in the city who cast their maiden votes to-day.

A beautiful souvenir of Miss OLCOTT will be given to every lady attending the matinee.

There was no City Court this morning, and there was a remarkable quietude in the vicinity of the City Hall.

There is an almost supreme majesty in the ballot, although it does its work as silently as the falling of the leaves.

We invite special attention to the attractive advertisement of Capt. R. M. McIntire as published in this issue. It may be money in your pocket to read it.

The voting in the several Wards during the morning hours was quite brisk and many of our business men attended to that important duty before coming down town.

Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, of Virginia, is dead. He was the grand uncle of a young gentleman resident in this city, Mr. Thos. Faulkner, operator at the depot of the Carolina Central R. R.

The vote of to-day will cause a great deal of money—to say nothing of suits of clothes, hats and cigars—to change hands, and by to-morrow people may begin to prepare to settle their election bets.

The United States District Court, Judge Seymour presiding, will convene in this city to-morrow morning, at which time it will be necessary for witnesses, jurors and others interested to be on hand.

The streets were remarkably quiet this morning. A large portion of our people voted early and then went about their daily business as if nothing of importance was occurring throughout the country.

The reason why our town is noted for its well dressed young men is because of late years they can get what they want in fine fashionable goods, from Dyer & Son, who always keep the very latest styles and a good assortment.

The Last Gun.
In accordance with previous announcement and the published programme, the last Democratic rally of the campaign took place last night. At 7 o'clock p m the torchlight procession was formed in front of the City Hall, which under the direction of Chief Marshal Green and preceded by the Cornet Concert Club, whose inspiring strains caused much delight, took up its line of march over the course marked out. Many of the houses along the line of march were brilliantly illuminated and the procession was greeted with frequent cheers by the spectators and by fine pyrotechnic displays along the route. Maj. Charles Manly Stedman, the speaker for the evening and in whose honor the demonstration was gotten up, joined the procession at his residence on Market street whence the march was continued to the New Market House. Here there had already arrived a large and enthusiastic concourse of people, among whom were many of the ladies of Wilmington, and when the procession had filed into the building there was hardly standing room such was the eagerness to see and hear the distinguished son of North Carolina, who had done so much for his own honor and the glory of the State during the campaign. It was estimated by many that fully 2,500 persons were present.

Maj. Stedman was introduced to the audience by Mr. J. W. King, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, who presided over the meeting. When the distinguished speaker arose he must have been more than human not to have felt a thrill of just pride course through his veins as he viewed the vast sea of upturned faces then assembled to greet him and heard the rapturous shouts of applause that made the building ring. His speech was one of the ablest of the campaign. We have not space to give even a synopsis of the effort. Suffice it to say that it made hosts of friends and reflected credit, not only upon himself, but upon the Democracy of North Carolina who had reposed so grave a trust upon him.

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost, nothing equals the MABLENE sold at JACOB'S DEPOT.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday in regular monthly session, present, H. A. Bagg, Esq., chairman, and Commissioners B. G. Worth, Roger Moore, J. A. Montgomery and E. L. Pearce.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer submitted his monthly report, as follows:
General Fund, balance on hand, $15,296.17
Educational Fund, balance on hand, 13,312.92

Of the general fund the sum of $6,665 is in the shape of a certificate of deposit in the First National Bank.

The Register of Deeds submitted his report of fees received for marriage licenses for the month of October, amounting to $15.20, and exhibit the Treasurer's report for the same. Report received and ordered on file.

A license to retail spirituous liquors was granted to Kate Montrose.

It was ordered by the Board that the poll-tax charged against G. D. Wright be remitted, he being a citizen of Wayne county.

It was ordered by the Board that the tax on horse, valued at $40, and charged against R. J. Bonham, in Harnett township, be remitted, the same being a clerical error.

A small number of other clerical errors were ordered corrected, tax assessments were reduced in certain cases, and certain persons were allowed to list taxes.

The following persons were drawn to serve as jurors at the November special term of the Criminal Court:
James Nolan, Thos. E. Mayer, H. W. Howard, John W. Garrett, N. B. Vincent, L. M. LeGwin, W. E. Davis, Henry Green, H. Webb, Edwin G. Thorpe, James W. Collins, P. Barrentine, Thos. Rand, S. P. Collier, Stephen Sneed, W. J. Penny, John H. Craig, J. B. Sampson, W. B. Curtis, G. H. Ward, Wm. Gonaust, Richard Saunders, W. H. Strickland, James H. Lane, W. S. Hewitt, Patrick Larkins, Chas. Craig, Wm. Walker, Samuel Carver, E. A. Orrell.

The following jurors were drawn to serve at the approaching term of the Superior Court, which convenes in this city on the 1st Monday in December:
First week—Wm. Cowan, colored, Jas. D. Mosely, J. E. Taylor, colored, W. E. Evans, J. W. King, Jr., N. Hullen, H. M. McDougald, Henry Middleton, colored, Edward Kidder, Wm. Cornwall, C. H. Fore, Jas. M. Clark.

Second week—Miles C. Walton, David Jaselin, A. Quinn, J. T. Kerr, A. J. Hill, G. W. Harper, E. Peschau, D. C. Kohnweiler, J. P. Montgomery, Leo Eisenstein, Thos. Hicks, Charles H. Legg.

Adjourned.

Exports Foreign.

The following embraces the kind quantity and value of exports foreign from this port during the month ended October 31st, 1884, as shown by the books of the Custom House:

Cotton—14,148 bales, weighing 6,640,030 pounds, valued at $625,507.
Rosin—4,352 barrels, valued at $5,038.

Spirits Turpentine—214,808 gallons, valued at $60,603.
Lumber—1,430,009 feet, valued at $24,437.

Shingles—305,000, valued at $1,726.
Total, $117,301; on American vessels, $26,789; on foreign vessels, $90,512.

The Exposition.

A friend kindly permits us to copy an extract from a private letter of Prof. E. A. Alderman, of Goldsboro, who has just returned from a visit to the State Fair at Raleigh. He says:

I may say of the Exposition in a few words that it was a grand affair. I was surprised, almost astounded, at the magnitude of the concern. It was a much more interesting and varied display than the Louisville Exposition and surpassed it in every particular save in the art department.

When one considers that only one third of the counties were represented and some of them only displaying a meagre proportion of the resources it is really marvellous to conjecture what might be done if the best were done. There was no scheme or money trap about the whole business, but a fair, square, North Carolina show, an eye-opener to me, and a revelation to the people of the State. The New Hanover exhibit was tastefully and creditably arranged, but there was really very little in it. China painting and some fruit and rosin about completes the list.

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost, nothing equals the MABLENE sold at JACOB'S DEPOT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Received To-Day!

CARPETS. CARPETS. CARPETS.
Extra Supers, 3-Ply, Ingrains, Body Brussels!

The stock is now complete and the most fastidious may be suited. Commencing to-morrow (Wednesday), we intend selling Carpets cheaper than ever sold in this market, and this will be on a basis of

CASH DOWN.
We are pleased to charge goods to prompt parties, but as money can be used to advantage, you can, if you wish, enjoy the benefit which will be offered.

DRY GOODS. DRY GOODS.
A good general stock and at as close prices as any house in this country.

R. M. MCINTIRE.
NOV 4

A Perilous Adventure.

Last night a German sailor, who said that his name was H. Beckman, called upon Mr. E. Peschau, German Vice Consul at this port, and asked for assistance. His story was that he was cook on board the German barque Carl August Capt. Doin, which sailed from Hamburg on the 10th of September last with a cargo of machinery and 160 small cases of dynamite, for Vera Cruz, Mexico. A few days since it was discovered that the cargo had shifted, in consequence of which the Captain determined to make a port on this coast. At about 10 o'clock on last Sunday morning, while the Captain and four of his crew were below endeavoring to right the cargo, an explosion took place, blowing up the deck clear aft. The carpenter, who was near the cook, said "make for the boat!" The vessel settled by the stern and then made a lurch forward, followed immediately by a list to one side when the boat was gotten afloat. The Captain and one man, who had been steering, and Beckman shoved off in the boat, and had just gotten clear of the vessel when the latter sunk. Those in the boat did the best they could until about 3 o'clock on Monday morning, when their oar broke (they had but one) and the carpenter in struggling to reach the blade of the oar capsized the boat and threw them all three into the water. Beckman, being a strong swimmer, struck out for the land, which was not far distant, and after a hard struggle reached the shore, having seen no signs of the others after the boat was capsized. He says that after reaching the beach he came to more water (probably the Sound) which he swam, and made his way to a farm house, where he was directed to Wilmington. Mr. Peschau provided the shipwrecked mariner with refreshments and lodging for the night, and to day has been investigating the case as far as he was able. He has ascertained that the vessel sailed from Hamburg for Vera Cruz on the date mentioned and that thus far the sailor's story is corroborated. He has also telegraphed to the Superintendent of the Life Saving Station, who is at Smithville, for information, but thus far has received no answer.

Inceciary Politics.

We are sorry to learn that the residence of Capt. J. B. Lindsay, at Lileville, was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. The building was entirely destroyed, the family barely escaping with their lives and such clothing as they could hastily gather together in their flight. There was no insurance.

Capt. Lindsay was the Democratic registrar for that township and the registration books were in his house. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, and it is thought that the house was fired for the purpose of destroying the books, which were, however, saved. Much sympathy is expressed for Capt. Lindsay and if the scoundrels are caught they will be summarily punished.

Frustrated.

Five Republicans from this city went up last night to various points on the line of the Carolina Central R. R., with the object in view, it is thought, of distributing bogus tickets at some of the polling places. The parties were all known and noted and telegrams to prominent Democrats were sent out to every point at which they stopped. One of them was found sitting very quietly near the ballot box at Lileville and was invited to move off a mile or so from the scene, and he moved. Their designs were known and frustrated and the net result is a loss of five Republican votes in this city.

Messrs. Jere and James Hewlett made another big haul of mullets yesterday at Masonboro. They got 2,310 bunches, with eight to the bunch, making 18,272 fish to the haul.

A Scotchman loves his Burns, an American would walk ten miles to get a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil to cure his.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

OPERA HOUSE.
Two Nights and a Matinee.
Friday & Saturday, Nov. 7 & 8.

Engagement extraordinary of the charming young American Tragedienne,
LILLIAN OLCOTT,
under the management of ROLAND L. TAYLEURE, supported by a great company.
FRIDAY EVENING Shakespeare's immortal love tragedy
ROMEO & JULIET,

JULIET.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
ROMEO.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
SATURDAY EVENING
Pygmalion and Galatea.
GALATEA.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
PYGMALION.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
SATURDAY MATINEE
Bulwer's LADY OF LYONS.
PAULINE.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
CLAUDE MELNOTTE.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
Popular prices. Seats on sale at Heinberger's on Thursday. Matinee prices 35 and 50c, and doors open at 1:30. nov 4 5c

For Sale.
1000 CABBAGES,
100 BLS. APPLES,
25 BLS. POTATOES,
MUST BE SOLD
W. E. DAVIS & SON
nov 4

New Goods!
JUST RECEIVED, HANDKERCHIEFS, Linen and Silk, all prices, stamped free of charge

Applique Designs, Tassels, Pom-poms and Corals.
Felt, Flush and Satts, all colors, for Fancy Work, Notions, &c.
MILLINERY—Hats and Bonnets, Straw, Felt and Velvet and Frames for making.
Wings, Birds, Ties, &c.
Respectfully
MISS E. KARRER,
nov 5 Exchange Corner.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Received To-Day!

CARPETS. CARPETS. CARPETS.
Extra Supers, 3-Ply, Ingrains, Body Brussels!

The stock is now complete and the most fastidious may be suited. Commencing to-morrow (Wednesday), we intend selling Carpets cheaper than ever sold in this market, and this will be on a basis of

CASH DOWN.
We are pleased to charge goods to prompt parties, but as money can be used to advantage, you can, if you wish, enjoy the benefit which will be offered.

DRY GOODS. DRY GOODS.
A good general stock and at as close prices as any house in this country.

R. M. MCINTIRE.
NOV 4

A Perilous Adventure.

Last night a German sailor, who said that his name was H. Beckman, called upon Mr. E. Peschau, German Vice Consul at this port, and asked for assistance. His story was that he was cook on board the German barque Carl August Capt. Doin, which sailed from Hamburg on the 10th of September last with a cargo of machinery and 160 small cases of dynamite, for Vera Cruz, Mexico. A few days since it was discovered that the cargo had shifted, in consequence of which the Captain determined to make a port on this coast. At about 10 o'clock on last Sunday morning, while the Captain and four of his crew were below endeavoring to right the cargo, an explosion took place, blowing up the deck clear aft. The carpenter, who was near the cook, said "make for the boat!" The vessel settled by the stern and then made a lurch forward, followed immediately by a list to one side when the boat was gotten afloat. The Captain and one man, who had been steering, and Beckman shoved off in the boat, and had just gotten clear of the vessel when the latter sunk. Those in the boat did the best they could until about 3 o'clock on Monday morning, when their oar broke (they had but one) and the carpenter in struggling to reach the blade of the oar capsized the boat and threw them all three into the water. Beckman, being a strong swimmer, struck out for the land, which was not far distant, and after a hard struggle reached the shore, having seen no signs of the others after the boat was capsized. He says that after reaching the beach he came to more water (probably the Sound) which he swam, and made his way to a farm house, where he was directed to Wilmington. Mr. Peschau provided the shipwrecked mariner with refreshments and lodging for the night, and to day has been investigating the case as far as he was able. He has ascertained that the vessel sailed from Hamburg for Vera Cruz on the date mentioned and that thus far the sailor's story is corroborated. He has also telegraphed to the Superintendent of the Life Saving Station, who is at Smithville, for information, but thus far has received no answer.

Inceciary Politics.

We are sorry to learn that the residence of Capt. J. B. Lindsay, at Lileville, was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. The building was entirely destroyed, the family barely escaping with their lives and such clothing as they could hastily gather together in their flight. There was no insurance.

Capt. Lindsay was the Democratic registrar for that township and the registration books were in his house. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, and it is thought that the house was fired for the purpose of destroying the books, which were, however, saved. Much sympathy is expressed for Capt. Lindsay and if the scoundrels are caught they will be summarily punished.

Frustrated.

Five Republicans from this city went up last night to various points on the line of the Carolina Central R. R., with the object in view, it is thought, of distributing bogus tickets at some of the polling places. The parties were all known and noted and telegrams to prominent Democrats were sent out to every point at which they stopped. One of them was found sitting very quietly near the ballot box at Lileville and was invited to move off a mile or so from the scene, and he moved. Their designs were known and frustrated and the net result is a loss of five Republican votes in this city.

Messrs. Jere and James Hewlett made another big haul of mullets yesterday at Masonboro. They got 2,310 bunches, with eight to the bunch, making 18,272 fish to the haul.

A Scotchman loves his Burns, an American would walk ten miles to get a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil to cure his.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

OPERA HOUSE.
Two Nights and a Matinee.
Friday & Saturday, Nov. 7 & 8.

Engagement extraordinary of the charming young American Tragedienne,
LILLIAN OLCOTT,
under the management of ROLAND L. TAYLEURE, supported by a great company.
FRIDAY EVENING Shakespeare's immortal love tragedy
ROMEO & JULIET,

JULIET.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
ROMEO.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
SATURDAY EVENING
Pygmalion and Galatea.
GALATEA.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
PYGMALION.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
SATURDAY MATINEE
Bulwer's LADY OF LYONS.
PAULINE.....Miss Lillian OLCOTT
CLAUDE MELNOTTE.....Mr. W. F. Burroughs
Popular prices. Seats on sale at Heinberger's on Thursday. Matinee prices 35 and 50c, and doors open at 1:30. nov 4 5c

For Sale.
1000 CABBAGES,
100 BLS. APPLES,
25 BLS. POTATOES,
MUST BE SOLD
W. E. DAVIS & SON
nov 4

New Goods!
JUST RECEIVED, HANDKERCHIEFS, Linen and Silk, all prices, stamped free of charge

Applique Designs, Tassels, Pom-poms and Corals.
Felt, Flush and Satts, all colors, for Fancy Work, Notions, &c.
MILLINERY—Hats and Bonnets, Straw, Felt and Velvet and Frames for making.
Wings, Birds, Ties, &c.
Respectfully
MISS E. KARRER,
nov 5 Exchange Corner.

PLEASE SOLICIT.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects, general interest but

The name of the writer must always be attached to the letter.

Communications must be written on one side of the paper.

Personalities must be avoided.

And it is especially and particularly to be noted that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SETH W. DAVIS, Auctioneer
BY S. H. TRIMBLE.

EXCHANGE CORNER, on Wednesday, Nov. 5th, at 10 o'clock, a. m. I will sell at public auction
3 Good, Large Horses,
1 Good, Small Mule,
1 Top Buggy and Harness.

And at my Exchange Room at 11 o'clock, a general assortment of Merchandise, Groceries, Notions, Carpets, &c. Also 1 fine Bar room Glass. nov 3 21

New Goods

AND A
New Milliner!

I HAVE RECEIVED AN INVOICE OF NEW MILLINERY, consisting of Felt, Velvet and Straw Hats and Bonnets in the latest styles. Also, Fancy Feathers, Ostrich Tips and Plumes, Pom-poms, &c.

MISS FRITCHER is a first class Milliner, from one of the largest Millinery Establishments in the country, has charge of my work room and comes highly recommended as a lady of taste and skill.

M. S. KATE C. WINES,
No. 19 North Second Street,
Nov 3 11

WILMINGTON & WELDON R. R. CO.,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 1st, 1884.

THE FORTY-NINTH ANNUAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company will be held at the Office of the Company in Wilmington, on Tuesday, the 18th of November, 1884.

nov 3 11 J. W. THOMPSON, Sec'y
WILMINGTON, COL. & AUG. R. R. CO.,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 1st, 1884.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCK holders of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company, will be held at the Office of the Company, in Wilmington, on Tuesday, the 18th inst.

nov 3 11 J. W. THOMPSON, Sec'y
M. CRONLY, Auctioneer.
BY CRONLY & MORRIS.

Partition Sale.
BY VIRTUE AND IN PURSUANCE OF A decree of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, in a certain ex parte special proceeding there pending, wherein Frederick J. Lord, Armand J. DeLoe, and Frederick J. Lord, and others are the petitioners, I, as Commissioner under said decree, will offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the Court House door, in the city of Wilmington, on Wednesday, the 5th day of November, 1884, a lot of land situated in said city, beginning in the West line of a private alley, which opens to South side of Market street, between Second and Third streets, at a point 108 feet South from intersection of said line of said alley with Market street, and running thence South 18 feet, thence East 17 feet, thence West 18 feet, 7 inches, beginning, being a part of Lot No. 4 in Block 183.

Terms of Sale—One-fourth of the purchase money to be paid in cash, balance in three equal instalments, in 4, 8 and 12 months, respectively. From said instalments, purchaser to give notes for deferred payments drawing interest from day of sale at rate of eight per cent.

A. J. DELOSSET,
Commissioner.

oct 3 11 oct 3, 15, 17, 24, nov 2, 4

M. CRONLY, Auctioneer.
BY CRONLY & MORRIS.

Partition Sale.
BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Superior Court of New Hanover county, in a cause there pending before the Clerk, between James C. Munda, executor of the estate of Mary C. Lor, Wm. L. DeLoe, et al., and others, plaintiffs, and Frederick J. Lord, Armand J. DeLoe, John R. London and others, defendants, I, as Commissioner under said decree, will offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in the city of Wilmington, at 12 o'clock, on Wednesday, the 5th day of November, 1884, all that lot of land situated in said city, beginning in the South line of Market street, 70 feet East from its intersection with Eastern line of Second street and running thence East with Market street 18 feet, then South parallel with Second street 30 feet to a brick wall, thence West with said wall 2 feet, thence South with said wall 27 feet and 3 inches to a brick building, thence with the line of said building East 4 feet, thence South with the Eastern line of said building 23 feet and 7 inches, thence West with the Southern line of said building 3 feet and 7 inches to a wall, thence South with said wall 56 feet and 9 inches to a stone wall, thence West with said stone wall 45 feet, and thence North parallel with Second street 125 feet to the beginning, being part of Lots Nos. 1, 2 and 3 in Block 183. said lot will be divided by a straight line running from North to South, and sold in two separate parcels; the West lot or parcel having a front of 23 feet on Market street and running back the same width 105, and the East lot having a front of 25 feet on Market street and running 125 feet, being 24 feet wide on its back line.

Plan of said lot can be seen at office of Cronly & Morris.