THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1884. NO. 272

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

President elect Cleveland will be forty-eight years old on March 18—fourteen days after his inauguration.

Carter Harrison, just defeated for Governor of Illinois, has begun to cast his eyes on Mr. Logan's Senatorial seat.

Victoria Alevandria Olga Mary, of Wales, is said to be a startling likeness of her grandmother, the Queen, at the same age, 16.

It is believed that nearly all the money General Mahone received in the last days of the campaign was spent in the Fourth District to defeat Evans.

Late discoveries have rendered insulation so perfect that there is less loss of electricity between here and Europe than there was formerly between Philadelphia and Camden, N. J.

Queen Victoria has almost a mania for collecting relics of engagements in war. Among others, she has mounted in crystal and silver the musket ball that ended the career of Nelson.

Don Cesar de Bazan Bombasts Furore Baine seems, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, to think he lives in Mexico. He is mistaken. Two deuces and a razor will not win this present jack-pot.

Governor Cleveland will be succeeded by Lieut-Governor David B. Hill. Mr. Hill is spoken of as a man every way worthy to fill the vacancy which will be caused by Governor Cleveland's resignation.

Governor Waller, of Connecticut, cheerfully congratulates his opponent, who will be Governor Harrison by the will of a Republican legislature, though the people of the State, by a large majority, wanted Governor Waller.

A premium of $36,000, says the New York World, has been offered by the Mexican Government to any one who will establish in that country a paper with a cost of $150,000. The Government will also concede the right to all contract plants on the State lands.

The Richmond State suggests that in view of the triumph of Cleveland and Hendricks, "it would be a graceful act for us to make our thank-offering in the form of a contribution to a fund for the destitute," the money to be distributed to the deserving poor, without regard to race, party or creed.

Congressman Bisbee, of Florida, a strong Republican, not only concedes Cleveland's election, but he goes further and declares that the Democrats have good cause to rejoice, and that it was a member of that party he would see to it that at least the cities and towns of Florida were "painted red" because of the victory.

Sir Moses Montefiore's uncle "Josh" was perhaps the most remarkable of his father's seventeen children, for he was a lawyer, an author, a buccaner and a score of other things, was married a second time at the age of 73, and died at 81, leaving a young widow and six small children, the youngest of them being only six weeks old.

Senator Zorrilla, the Spanish revolutionary leader, now lives quietly in London, but watches closely the drift of political affairs in Spain, ready to return there at the first favorable opportunity. He denies that he is an Internationalist, and repudiates any connection or sympathy with Nihilists, Communists or Socialists.

Col. Lendall Pratt, of Hyde Park, New York, aged 73, an ardent Republican, became a maniac on Friday, owing to the contradictory reports coming to the result of the election. He was removed to the insane asylum, but was unguarded, he tore away the hair of a widow, and, throwing himself on the ground, was picked up a corpse.

At a private interview, Mr. Cumberland, the mind-reader, offered to glean the mind of Mr. Gladstone's mind all his future intentions as to Egypt and home policy. Mr. Gladstone, so the story goes, admitted the accuracy of the revelations, but solemnly bound him to secrecy. On the day after Mr. Cumberland had forty-four visits from members of Parliament anxious to consult him.

Europe and British India consume about 150,000 gallons of handkerchief per annum. There is one great perfume distillery at Cannes, in France, which uses nearly 100,000 pounds of acacia flowers, 140,000 pounds of rare flower leaves, 32,000 pounds of jasmine blossoms, 20,000 of tuberose blossoms, and an immense quantity of other material.

The value of the invention of a means of steering balloons, made by Captains Renard and Krebs, was again demonstrated, it seems, Saturday, when the aeronauts traveled through the air from Mendon to Billacourt, near Paris, and turning with ease, made their way back to the starting point. The propulsion and steering were as fully successful, it is stated, as in a former trial.

One of the largest dealers in drugs in Great Britain, Mr. John Thompson, 58 Hanover St., Liverpool, England, writes: "It is a great pleasure to sell a remedy which gives general satisfaction, and our people, like their American cousin, have become convinced of the fact that St. Jacobs Oil conquers pain."

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 851 bales.

Chickens are cheaper. There are lots of them in market to-day.

Business has not been lively in the Mayor's Court for several days.

We are not feeling very much depressed about the result of the election.

Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., of the Fayetteville Sun, is in the city to-day and called to see us this afternoon.

One case of disorderly conduct was settled before the Mayor this morning by the payment of a fine of $2.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

It looks to us as if some of the telegrams received here yesterday were a little out of order. What was the matter?

Some very fine New River oysters sold to-day from carts as low as 60 cents but were generally held at $1 per gallon.

The New York Tribune of yesterday virtually gives up the contest, and concedes the election of Cleveland, of course with a proviso which is that Blaine is defeated unless he makes material gains in New York and Kings counties. Faint hope!

In view of the fact that the cholera may reach this country the sanitary precautions should be doubled everywhere. A good place to begin such here is on Front street. Between Orange and Princess it is in an exceedingly filthy condition.

The man who pays his honest debts, and does the best he can to compensate his fellow-man for favors rendered to him, is doing well, and the man who wears comfortable clothing bought of Dyer, is also doing himself a great favor.

Through an oversight purely accidental, the names of the following Assistant Marshals were omitted in the list published on the 13th inst.

Col. T. F. Toon, S. A. King, C. H. Dock, J. W. Powell, N. McPhaul, J. P. Stanley, John Waters, J. W. Moran, Columbus Co.; E. T. Boykin, J. D. Kerr, W. A. Johnson, J. W. S. Robinson, Sampson Co.

The good Democrats of Pender had a rousing time at Burgaw on Wednesday night last. There was a large turnout and all were enthusiastic and happy. A torchlight procession was one of the features of the occasion; flags decorated the buildings and patriotic speeches were made by Representative elect J. T. Bland, Mr. G. A. Ramsay, Dr. W. C. Murphy, Maj. C. W. McClammy, W. T. Bannerman, Esq., and Dr. R. T. Sanders. It was one of the largest turnouts ever seen in Burgaw, and the best of good feeling prevailed and every one was jubilant at the result.

There will be a TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION, A GRAND DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS AND A BALLOON ASCENSION. A cordial invitation is extended generally to the Democrats throughout the State and Union to join us on this glorious occasion. All the different Democratic Clubs are expected to participate. Arrangements have been made with all the railroads and steamboats for reduced rates, and tickets will be good for one week.

Death of Lieut. George W. Ward.

We are pained to announce the death of Lieut. George W. Ward, which occurred at his late residence in Rockfish township, Duplin county, on the evening of the 9th inst. His disease was congestion of brain. Lieut. Ward was Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Duplin county at the time of his death, and during the late war was a gallant and faithful officer in Company K, of the Third North Carolina Regiment. He bore to the grave many and serious wounds as evidence of his devotion to duty and the cause he so nobly espoused. His courage was of the highest order, yet in the peaceful pursuits of life he was gentle and affectionate as a child. He leaves a wife and family of children besides brothers and sisters and a large circle of acquaintances to mourn his loss. Many of his comrades in arms in the late war reside in this city and vicinity and will learn of his decease with tender and sincere regrets. A brave soldier, a kind neighbor and a good man has departed.

The Base Ballists.

They have been here and they have gone! They played their little game and went away satisfied. There was a large crowd assembled at the Athletic Grounds yesterday afternoon to witness the contest between the Female Base Ball Club, of Philadelphia, and the Recreation Nine, of this city, but there was not so much as the semblance of a contest. It was a dead give away on the part of our boys. The females demonstrated at the outset that they could neither pitch, catch, bat nor run—four very important requisites in first rate base ball playing—and after the first inning the boys humored the joke by not attempting to play. It was a snide show, but there was lots of fun as the young men were very good natured and gallant enough to let the girls win by a score of 18 to 16. As base ball players the girls were nix, and one of them had a hole in her stocking an inch long.

The butcher does have some funny expressions, he told his assistant the other day to break the bones in Mr. Williams' chops, and put Mr. Smith's ribs in the basket for him, and tell Mrs. Black to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for her cold.

Good Reading.

Hon. A. H. VanBokkelen received the following dispatch this noon, which he kindly permitted us to copy: NEW YORK, Nov. 14, 1884. HON. A. H. VANBOKKELEN—Cavalry of vote in State outside of New York City is complete. The city will be completed by Saturday night, probably. Plurality now exceeds 1,250, with 8 city districts completed. The final result will not be less. It is absolutely certain that New York's 36 votes will be for Cleveland and Hendricks. MAURICE J. POWERS.

Judge Powers is one of the police justices of the city of New York, is a prominent and active politician, and is one of the high officials of the County Democracy, and knows just what he is talking about.

Personal

We are sorry to learn that Capt. F. G. Robinson is no better to-day. Mr. J. S. Hill, General Baggage Agent for the Associated Railways, was in the city yesterday.

We regret to learn that Mr. J. H. Pugh is quite sick and confined to his house.

Col. T. C. Fuller, of Raleigh, with his wife and daughter, is in the city and registered at the Purcell House.

Mr. W. M. Hand, deputy Sheriff of Pender county, is in the city to-day for the purpose of rectifying the vote for State Senator for the Senatorial District comprising New Hanover and Pender counties.

Mr. E. G. Blair has returned to the city from a hurried visit to Burgaw and Goldsboro, where he witnessed the demonstrations at both places in honor of the great victory. He says that both events were very successful and Goldsboro, he thinks, was the most handsomely illuminated city he ever saw.

In Case of Fire.

Our fellow citizens of the Fifth Ward have recently been made more secure against the devastations of fire by the organization of two hose reel companies, both of which are composed of colored men. The Bannaker hose reel company is established at the corner of Castle and Ninth streets, and the Columbia hose reel company has its headquarters on Front street, nearly opposite the cotton factory. Both companies are composed of first class men and they will do effective work whenever their services may be demanded. These organizations have been for a long time needed in the Fifth Ward.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

DIED.

GARRISON—at his residence at Long Creek, Pender county, N. C., on the 13th inst. at 10 o'clock, of heart disease, JAMES GARRISON, Esq. In the 10th year of his life he was stricken with the "passing away." Thus he is lost to society much of that noble and sternness of integrity, of principle and of the ability, duty and obligation, so greatly needed, and so much missed, in these days of false pretense and demoralization. Mr. Garrison was a model of a man in honesty, principle and loyalty to duty, family, friends, State and country. He was a worthy exemplar of the old style of a gentleman, as he was true in all the relations of life. His crowning virtues of candor, charity and religiousness, State and country. He was a noted member of the Presbyterian Church and a consistent member of it until death. His house, one of wealth and luxury until the death of his wife, was a home of hospitality and kindness. For a number of years he had been a generous and accomplished wife, to extend generous and hospitable to the hosts of visitors and friends, who gathered around them and were always the welcome guests of the home. His wife, a devoted and noble woman, was a true helpmeet to her husband. Her noble and now sorrowing wife, she was snatched by her warm heart and tender hands his passage to the grave. The large assemblage that attended his funeral and burial at the family cemetery, attested the high estimation in which he was everywhere held, and that his neighbors honored and loved him. His old family services were there in sympathy and wept mournfully always in his memory. S. S. S.
