The Daily Review has the largest single issue circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

In the consumption of soap per capita the United States lead. Italy is last on the list.

There was a case in the Bankruptcy Court in London a few days ago in which a banker's clerk, with a salary of £100 a year, had run up a bill of £51 for flowers for his buttonhole.

A woman, whose son had been ruined by dissipation, was fined £2 in Hamilton, Ont., the other day, with the alternative of ten days in jail, because she knelt before a saloon and said God to curse the liquor traffic.

The price of natural gas has been reduced in Pittsburgh from 40 to 30 cents per 1000 feet, with a rebate of 10 cents for prompt payment. This reduction is said to make the cost about equal to the cheapest coal that can be bought.

A deep cave has been found to exist under the town of Blankston, Iowa, by a farmer who was sinking an artesian well. Three unsuccessful attempts were made to sink the well, but each time the drift sank into the cave.

A Chicago man wanted a divorce because his wife persisted in singing lyrics. The Court laughed at him, and he would have lost his case had not the law summoning the wife to the witness-stand and started her singing. At the first verse the Court threw up the gavel and a divorce was granted.

The Moscow Gazette remarks that edition having reached as high as Lieutenant-Colonels it will probably not stop there, and we must be prepared for still more surprising revelations; while the Fedomost believes that the ruler of Nihilism has now eaten through every class of society, private and official.

Dr. Franz Liszt sends a letter to a German paper, stating that he is overburdened with appeals for his autograph and requests to examine musical compositions and to give his opinion upon them, and that he now intends all unsolicited correspondents in their letters will receive no answer.

In the Northeastern island of Terra del Fuego the native people, who inter-marry frequently with the more Southern Yahgans (as they are called by the English missionaries), are the tallest men on the globe, according to the report of the French mission to Cape Horn presented to the Academy of Science, Paris, by Dr. Hahn. In stock and speech these tall people appear closely related to the Patagonians of the Continent.

Two Frenchmen, the brothers Forre, have invented a new kind of harp made entirely of wood. Instead of string the inventors use strips made of American fir. The sound is produced, as in the ordinary harp, by the contact of the fingers, but the player wears other gloves covered with rosin. The body of the instrument is said by the Monstrous to be of remarkable parity.

In the course of the present session Parliament will be asked by Mr.
Gladstone to grant Prince Albert Victor the sum of £15,000 a year, to commence when he attains his majority in January. This is the same amount which was voted to each of the Queen's younger sons on coming of age. The sum of George III. each had £21,000 a year in addition to other allowances. It was announced that the vote will be opposed, on the ground that the Queen does not spend all her income.

The Joalsafarer, a Norwegian bark, from Portland, Oregon, has arrived at Falmouth, in England and reports having touched at the famous Pitcairn Island on the 21st of July, where she was boarded by James Russell McCoy, the principal inhabitant of the place.
McCoy stated that there were 130 inhabitants then on the island, that they were all well, and wished their respects be conveyed to the people of England. They were in want of nothing present, but would be glad to receive newspapers.

An eminent Presbyterian divine announced to his congregation that he would be obliged to take a vacation on account of bronchitis, when the elders immediately raised his salary and advised him to take Dr. Bul's Cough Cure and be cured.
