Personal.

Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Burgaw, Pen der county, was in the city to day.

Mr. Thomas W. Strange, after an absence of about ten days on a trip to the North, arrived here Tuesday morning. During his absence he made a flying visit to Albany, where he had the plasure of meeting with Presidentelect Cleveland. Mr. Strange was an earnest advocate of Mr. Cleveland's nomination for the Presidency at the National Convention and worked faith- ver Cleveland, of New York; and Col. fully to secure his election after he was nominated, and that having been ac complished he had a strong desire to see the man for whom his labor and vote had been given. The Electoral College.

Maj. Charles W. McClammy returned this morning from Raleigh, where he had been in attendance upon the Electoral College of North Carolina, which assembled in the Senate chamber of the capitol yesterday and cast its eleven votes for Grover Cleveland for President, and for Thomas A. Hendricks for Vice President. Major Mc-Clammy had the honor of calling the College to order. Speeches were made by nearly all the electors and the scene was impressive. The ballots for President and Vice President were of red and white North Carolina silk, wove in New Jersey, the birthplace of the President-elect. Upon one was printed 'For President, Grover Cleveland, of New York;" while upon the other was printed "For Vice President, Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana." A vote of each kind was sent to the President and Vice President-elect.
