WHAT HAS BEEN SAID ABOUT

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

By

Southern People

WHO HAVE USED IT.

Like previous testimonials these have all been received during the past few weeks. They come from people who having bought and used Brown's Iron Bitters have received such marked benefit that they willingly testify to its merit. It seems scarcely possible to submit stronger evidence than this. If you are feeling poorly, and are disposed to try Brown's Iron Bitters, you can obtain it from any reputable druggist. There are, however, preparations containing Iron, from the sale of which the druggist obtains a greater profit than he makes on Brown's Iron Bitters. For this reason some may try to persuade you that something else is just as good. Do not be deceived; Brown's Iron Bitters is the only Iron medicine which does not blacken the teeth, produce headache, or cause constipation. Price of the genuine Brown's Iron Bitters is $1.00 per bottle. Every bottle has trade-mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Capt. T. C. Epps, 917 Clay St., Richmond, Va., says:

"I have never recommended any medicine, but Brown's Iron Bitters have done so much for me and my family in curing malaria and keeping wife and children hearty, that justice tells me speak."

Mr. S. W. Wilson, Norfolk, Va., says:

"I am satisfied that there is no remedy in the world to compare with Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and torpid liver. It cured me when other medicines gave only temporary relief."

Mr. W. J. Kilmartin, Bollingbrook Hotel, Petersburg, Va., says:

"I was persuaded to try Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion and heartburn. One bottle dispelled my trouble. I gratefully recommend it."

Mr. H. C. Burkhimer, 18 Market St., Wilmington, N. C., says:

"I suffered intensely with dyspepsia. My case was a most stubborn one which all remedies failed to relieve. Brown's Iron Bitters corrected the disorder, and am I now entirely free from it. Can highly recommend this valuable medicine."

Mr. Jno. V. Little, 45 Trade St., Charleston, S. C., says:

"I used Brown's Iron Bitters in protracted debility and found it a powerful tonic and invigorator. It certainly has no equal and I certainly recommend it."

Prof. R. H. Clarkson, Columbia, S. C., says:

"I used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family last fall and winter with much benefit, and heartily recommend it."

Mr. John Scherf, (proprietor Rankin House) Columbus, Ga., says:

"My wife suffered for two years from dyspepsia. Brown's Iron Bitters cured her. Nothing else did any good."

Mr. Wm. McCormick, Savannah, Ga., says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of dyspepsia, with which I had suffered for twenty years. It is a wonderful medicine."

Mr. John C. West, Attorney at Law, Waco, Texas, says:

"I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family. It is the best tonic in use for male or female, old or young, and is gaining ground here every day."

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, DECEMB'R 12, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Francis W. Shain, a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, who is only 31 years of age, has been elected to an honorary membership in the Royal Society of Surgeons of Belgium, and has been presented with a Royal gold medal appended to a fac simile of King Leopold's crown and colors. Dr. Shain is the surgeon of the Red Star steamer Nordland, and won these honors by removing from the face of a lady connected with the Court of Belgium a tumor which had defied the skill of the Royal physicians.

Mrs. J. C. Croly (Jennie June) says the woman's exhibits at New Orleans ought to represent what women could do to make money. One woman in New York is an inventor and maker of surgical instruments. She has made all the instruments used by Dr. Marion Sims, and by other well-known physicians. A woman on the Bowery devised the application of bronze, gold and silver to wall papers, and is paid an income of $18,000 a year for the discovery! There is a woman in Westchester county, at New Rochelle, N. Y., who has made screws and bolts for thirty years, and has a large establishment.

The general committee of the New York County Democracy has unanimously adopted a resolution pledging that organization to attend the inauguration of President Cleveland in Washington. Judge Andrew White promised to take a carload of members of the Twenty-third District to Washington and keep the silver punch bowl, weighing 16½ pounds, which has been presented to him, full of punch from the beginning to the end of the journey. One hundred members of the Samuel J. Randall Association, of Philadelphia, have signed the roll and paid the first instalment of the $50 each required for the trip to the inauguration. The Tammany Democracy have also determined to attend the inauguration in large force, and claim to have secured the right of column in the civic portion of the procession.

Somebody asked Mr. Blaine in Washington the other day as to the status of his libel suit in Indianapolis, but he appeared indisposed to talk much on that subject. It is believed by his friends that he is inclined to let it quietly drop out of sight. He has made no answers to the second series of interrogatories filed by the defendant, nor has he taken any notice of the summons which was served on him when he was at Fort Wayne, Indiana, in October last, to appear in person. The defendants are resolved to insist upon the personal attendance of Mr. Blaine if the suit is continued. One of Mr. Blaine's intimates reports that he was convinced within twenty-four hours after instituting the suit that he had made a mistake, but let it drag on through the Presidential campaign because it would have been a greater mistake to discontinue it

Notwithstanding the disturbed condition of Ireland and the known distress that exists there, the country is steadily growing in wealth, and were its domestic affairs once settled on a good basis this progress would become very marked. Since the establishment of the Postoffice Savings Banks in 1861 the deposits have annually increased in value, upward of two millions sterling having been deposited in these banks at the end of 1882. In addition to this more than two millions sterling was due to depositors in the ordinary savings banks, making in all upward of four millions deposited as the savings of small capitalists. Nor is this all. The savings of the Irish middle classes in the joint stock banks have been more than double during the last 20 years. Still further, the investments in Government and India stock, on which dividends were paid at the Bank of Ireland at the end of 1882, amounted to nearly 32 millions sterling.

Some of the ladies of New York society have, under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Clews, instituted a movement which might be followed with advantage, perhaps, by their sisters in other cities. They have organized a class to meet weekly for the purpose of talking over and discussing the news of the day of this country and abroad. They are at last awaking to the fact that there is very little wisdom in spending years of early life in the study of the history of the past, and then resting content in perfect ignorance of all the events and happenings which make the history of the world of their own day. Perhaps they see the place woman occupies in English society, and appreciate how great an influence some of the wives of public men there wield; perhaps, as is rather meanly hinted in Boston, they are envious of feminine culture in another American city. Whatever be the reason, though, for the formation of the ladies' newspaper class, it will probably result in good.

DECEMBER DRIPPINGS.

A fruit grower with twenty-five years experience comes to the conclusion that dwarf pears are vastly inferior to standards. Mr. P. T. Barnum, on the contrary, has made dwarf pairs profitable, where standards would not have begun to pay.—Boston Transcript.

A great big dog was roaming about the yard muzzled, when a little girl rushed into the house in terror. Her sister, younger but more valiant, coolly surveyed the situation and reassured her by remarking: "He can't bite; he's got on his bustle."—Hartford Post.

An exchange says that "the Russians are so fond of tea that they continue to pass hot water through the exhausted tea leaves long after they have lost the power of imparting their taste thereto." In other words, the Russians are so fond of tea that they will drink plain hot water.—Lowell Courier

A queer marriage custom prevails among the exiles in Siberia. If a man wishes to get married he applies to the governor, who selects one of the female prisoners, with whom the matrimonial candidate is expected to "keep company" for two or three days. If at the conclusion of this term the male party declares that the lady selected is not to his mind, he receives twenty-five blows with a stick, and another bride is chosen for him—and so on. In most countries the candidate for matrimony doesn't receive the blows with a stick until sometime after he is married. We don't know but what the Siberian plan has its advantages.—Norristown Herald

Tone up the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Thousands have found health and relief from suffering by the use of this great blood purifier when all other means failed.

"Do you understand how to take care of children?" asked Mrs. Crittenden. "Yes, indeed, I does, mum. I tuk care ob a little young chile for more dan twenty yeahs"

Rev. J. E. C. Barkam, Warrenton, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the most gratifying results. I find it be not only a restorative in every sense, but also a most complete tonic and appetizer."

A muff is defined as "a thing which holds a girl's hand without squeezing it." Correct. But any fellow is a "muff" who will keep hold of a girl's hand without squeezing it.

Mr. W. F. Wasson, (ex-sheriff) Iredell co., N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has improved my digestion and general health."

Society in Philadelphia is all torn up by the question whether a lady should recognize a gentleman while he is having his shoes blackened on a street corner.

Dr. G. M. Robertson, Elm Grove, N. C., says: "I prescribe Brown's Iron Bitters and find it all it is recommended to be."

Judging from the experience of those who have undertaken the job, the North Pole is a very hazardous one to climb.

Mr. J. D. Suttonfield, Reidsville, N. C., says: "My wife's mother was in feeble health for twenty years, skilled physicians failed to relieve. Brown's Iron Bitters benefited her wonderfully and she recommends it to others for complication of diseases.

She was a venerable maiden. She remarked: "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind." The fellow was feeling around her ancient waist.

Mrs. A. L. Walker, Milton, N. C., says: "I took Brown's Iron Bitters while suffering intensely with dyspepsia. am entirely free from it now and attribute my recovery mainly to the use of this valuable medicine."

"Big money in it," is the head line found over a churn in a rural contemporary. We have no doubt about it. But the trouble is to churn it out.

Rev. G. W. Offley, New Berne, N. C., says: "I have taken Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it one of the best medicines known."

Lots of people love Cleveland for the enemies he has made. Lots more of them love him for the postmasters he will make.

Mr. T. H. Thompson, 22 N. Front St., Wilmington, says: "It affords me great pleasure to state that I have been cured of dyspepsia and indigestion by a few bottles of Brown's Iron Bitters and I heartily recommend it to others."

It is the Democrats who are doing the new hat wearing tricks now-a-days; a glossy silk plug is a sign of better times.

Mrs. W. K. French, 619 Market St. Wilmington, writes: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family with most gratifying results in cases of malaria and weakness and cordially recommend it as a most excellent tonic."

A fleshy young lady was caught kissing and hugging her lean lover, and in explanation said she was taking antifat.

Mrs. C. E. Creasey, Concord, N. C., says: "I felt weak and debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters greatly improved me."

This has been a beautiful Fall. In fact, the Republican party never had such a fall.

Mr. H. Burkhimer, 18 Market St., Wilmington, says: "I suffered intensely with dyspepsia, my case was a most stubborn one, which all remedies used failed to relieve. Brown's Iron Bitters corrected the disorder and I am now entirely free from it. Can heartily recommend this valuable medicine."

Mrs. E. H. Bowling, Wake Forest College, N. C., says: "I have unbounded confidence in Brown's Iron Bitters. Its virtues are truly wonderful."

A new American play is called "A Bottle of Ink." It generally requires several bottles of ink and a French dictionary to make an American play.

Miss Margaret M. Pope, Rich Square, N. C., says: "I suffered with dyspepsia, nervousness and soreness of lungs. Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me, and restored my former health. I have every reason to gratefully and cheerfully recommend it."

A Card.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE.
