THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1884. NO. 298

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

There are now pending in the Superior and Circuit Courts of Chicago 674 divorce suits.

Dr. Tanner, who achieved notoriety by his protracted fast, is now residing on a ranch in Mexico.

Weather Prophet Wiggins sees fit to deny the rumor that he had joined the banners of the Salvation Army.

Gen. Logan's moustache has lost its presting glory. It has been trimmed to moderate length and shows gray hairs.

A worm which thirty years ago destroyed many of the pine trees in North Carolina is again making havoc this season.

Seven or eight persons have been frozen to death in the northern woods of Wisconsin this year, and Winter has not yet begun.

Mr. Bancroft, the historian, is, or has been, an unlucky user of horses. So many have failed him that he has given up riding.

Hon. Eugene Kelley, President of the New York Electoral College, donated his salary ($60) to the Little Sisters of the Poor of Albany.

The first Regiment of Chicago, one of the crack military organizations of the West, is making arrangements to visit Washington on inauguration day.

Great as the central postoffice buildings in London are, they are to be enlarged, a church and a hotel being removed to make room for the addition.

Mrs. Langtry will live for a time to come in London, having hired the house No. 86 Eaton Square for eight months. She will play a long engagement in that city.

Miss Kate Sprague Chase, the daughter of Chief Justice Chase, is now residing at Fontainebleau, France, devoting herself to the education of her family.

The annual expenses of Jay Gould's yacht Albatross are $70,000, and her owner expects to start with her on a Southern trip the latter part of this month.

The wife of Lieutenant Greely excites the envying admiration of her friends by displaying on her parlor floor a large rug of seal fur, a relic of her husband's Arctic life.

Yale College is the name of a man who lives in Boston. College is a colored man who was a slave in the South before the war. His owner, who gave him his name, was a graduate of Yale.

Mr. Manning's organ, the Albany Argus, states officially that all gifts sent to Governor Cleveland will be returned at once, and that all offers of an escort to Washington next March will be declined peremptorily.

It is announced that Mayor Edson, of New York, has decided to appoint as commissioner of public works Fitz-John Porter, now police commissioner, in place of Hubert O. Thompson, whose term expires next Wednesday.

M. Victorien Sardon once hired a house in the country to pass the Summer, and went in search of a farmer who had a milk cow. Having found one he said: "My good man, my servant will come every morning to buy a pint of milk." "All right. It is eight sous." "But I want pure milk—very pure." "In that case it is ten sous." "You will milk in the presence of my servant." "Then it is fifteen sous."

The fund for the family of the late A. M. Sullivan, started in the House of Commons, reached nearly $4,000 at the first meeting. Cardinal Manning is president of the committee, and among its members are such distinguished Liberals as Sir Henry James, the attorney general, Sir Wilfred Lawson, Jacob Bright, Labouchere, Bryce the historian and Passmore Edwards.

The hard times are having a particularly distressing effect in New York. Quartets of well known club men have been caught within a month dining for $2 for the party. Most club men are wiser than this, of course, and the executive committees report that they leave their bills persistently unpaid, so that newspapers are recalling the fact that the old Army and Navy, New York and Travellers' clubs died from too much of that sort of thing.

Mrs. S. M. B. Platt, the wife of John James Platt, who is the American Consul at Cork, has written a volume of verse and the book has just been published by David Douglass, in Edinburgh, under the title of "An Irish Garland."

Sir Moses Montefiore has fully recovered from his recent indisposition, though he is much depressed by the recent death of his housekeeper, an old lady forty years younger than Sir Moses and for forty years past his faithful attendant.

On Thanksgiving day there were 88 deep-sea vessels disengaged at San Francisco. Their tonnage was 140,750. At the same date last year the tonnage of disengaged vessels at that port was 136,247. In 1882 it was 65,133, and in 1881 it was 20,000.

Miss Alice Pollard, now 96 years old, and of sound mind and body, is the oldest parishioner of Dr. Bartol's church, in Boston. She bears the name of her ancestress who came out in the Mayflower, a little romp, who was the first to put foot on Plymouth Rock.

General Arthur Gorgey has finally been declared by his old comrades innocent of the charge of treason, under which he has suffered since 1849; but it is authoritatively declared that Kosuth not only refused to countenance the performance, but never will do so, and still believes that Gorgey betrayed Hungary in his surrender to the Russians at Villagos.

In a sermon at Baltimore Archbishop Ryan said that care for the poor is not only a divine and ecclesiastical law, but it is the highest wisdom of the political economist. "One half of the world does not know how the other half lives," he added, "but that other half will soon let them know, and assure them that they do not intend to live so any longer."

A prominent clergyman of Brooklyn, while boxing, received what the boys call "a jolly black eye." On Sunday he chose his text from Timothy, 5th chapter, 7th verse: "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course." Then he used St. Jacobs Oil.

As Christmas time approaches a war upon Turkey becomes daily more imminent. In fact hostilities have already commenced and quite a number of that tribe have been slaughtered.

Opera House.

The Musical and Literary entertainment at the Opera House last night, for the benefit of the Wilmington Library Association, was a most pronounced success, not only in the rendition of the different parts in the programme, but also in the financial result. The house was crowded with a fashionable, cultured and appreciative audience and, with the exception of one or two slight delays, the programme was fully carried out without hitch or failure. Those who took part in the entertainment have been making thorough preparation for the occasion for some time, as was manifest last night by the precision, skill and exquisite taste with which the several parts were rendered. The selections for the occasion were excellent, as the following programme will show:

PART FIRST.
Piano Duo—The Witches' Flight.—Russell. Misses Lavender and DeRosset.

Statuary—Exiles in Babylon. Misses Bolles, G. Gore and Greenwald.

Guitar Solo—Hernandez' Prison March. Mrs. Sears.

Humorous Recitation—How Ruby Played. Mr. T. S. Radcliffe.

Descriptive Song—The Raft.—Pin-suli. Mrs. Watters.

Illustrated Poem—"The Hanging of the Crane," W. H. Longfellow, recited by Miss J. W. Myers. Illustrated by Miss V. Gore and Mr. B. G. Empe and by a series of Tableaux—1. "The New Home;" 2. "The Light of Love;" 3. "A Royal Guest," Little Horace Clark; 4. "The Crown is on his Sister's Brow," Little Elliott Emerson; 5. "The Table Garlanded with Guests;" 6. "Chronicles of Pain."

The Golden Wedding—Introducing the Minuet by Miss Jessie Kennan, Miss Agnes Daniel, Miss Carrie Myers, Miss Lottie Green, and the Ringing of the Marriage Bells by "Troops of Children."

PART SECOND—THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Statuary—The Course of True Love—1. Making Love. 2. Quarreling. 3. Making Up. Miss Franky Clark and Master L. H. Myers.

Piano Solo—Polka de Concert—Bartlett. Miss H. A. Lavender.

Character Recitation—Widow Bettotte. Mrs. Sears.

Statuary—The Sculptor's Studio—Ophelia, The Avenger, Sea Nymph, Miss Bolles, Miss Draper, Miss G. Gore.

Vocal Solo—Vesperi Siciliana. Mrs. Kahnweiler.

Illustrated Poem—A Dream of Fair Women—Tennyson. Recited by Mr. T. W. Strange.

Impersonations—Helen of Troy—Miss M. DeRosset. "A Daughter of the Gods."

Iphigenia—Mrs. Sears. "My Youth was Blasted with a Curse."

Cleopatra—Miss A. S. Meares. "A Swarthy Queen, brow-bound with Burnished Gold."

Jephthah's Daughter—Miss J. W. Myers. "How beautiful a thing it is to die for God and for my Sire."

Rosamond—Miss Vic. Gore. "Whom men call fair."

Margaret More—Miss A. T. Lippitt. "O, true and loving heart."

Joan of Arc—Miss Lelia Hart. "Light of ancient France."

Eleanor of Castille—Miss M. Greenwald. "Faithful unto death."

Mr. Joe H. Hart was stage manager for the occasion and performed his difficult duties in a manner highly satisfactory to all.

The German Band.

As announced in our issue of the 11th inst., some of our German fellow citizens assembled at the Hall of Howard Relief Engine Co. last night to take measures looking towards the organization of an instrumental band. Mr. E. W. Doscher was called to the chair, and Mr. J. G. L. Geischen was requested to act as secretary. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the band, with instructions to report at the next meeting. A committee was also appointed to confer with individuals who might be induced to become members of the organization. The meeting was quite earnest and enthusiastic and unanimous in the determination to organize a first-class instrumental band. After transacting all necessary business the meeting adjourned to meet again at the same place next Wednesday night.

Mr. T. L. Vaughn, Tobacconist, Winston, N. C., says: "Having been a member for some time of the Mutual Trust Fund Life Association, I am well pleased with it and heartily recommend it to the public as entitled to confidence and patronage."

Personal.

Rev. J. W. Primrose, the new pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, with his family have arrived in the city and are sojourners for the present with Mr. W. H. Sprunt.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair in the Northern portion; partly cloudy weather and rains in Southern portion; lower temperature and Northerly winds.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port from the 1st inst. to date foot up 9 108 bales, as against 9,208 bales from December 1st. to 15th last year, a decrease this month of 100 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 75,517 bales, as against 71,237 bales to December 15th last year, an increase this year of 4,280 bales.

The Next.

Our music loving citizens will have the benefit of another rich musical entertainment at the Opera House next Monday night, when the Cornet Concert Club will give a concert and favor the audience with some of their selections, given in their best manner. It will be a treat well worthy the patronage of our people and we hope that the house may be crowded in appreciation of the efforts of the Club.

City Court.

There were several parties before the Mayor this morning, charged with failure to pay the licence tax as required by the city ordinances. The cases were continued until Monday morning.

Tom Whitfield, colored, was charged with breaking into the store of Mr. J. M. Hardwick, yesterday morning, as reported in our yesterday's issue. He was represented by Mr. Marsden Bellamy, as counsel, who asked for a continuance. The request was granted and the case was continued until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Postoffices.

We learn that a movement is on foot to have two new Postoffices established in Caintuck township, Pender county, for the convenience of the people. The new offices will be named; respectively, "Lonely," and "Keith." These will necessitate a new postal route from Viola to Colly and return, via the two new offices named above. If established they will prove a great convenience to many of the people whose nearest Postoffice now is from seven to ten miles distant. The necessary petitions have been drawn, signed and forwarded to Hon. W. J. Greene who never fails to look out sharply for the interest of his constituents.

Exports Foreign.

Br. barque Elizabeth Childs, James, cleared to-day for Bristol, Eng., with 3,962 barrels rosin, valued at $4,747, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co. Nor. barque Sidon, Jorgensen, cleared for Liverpool with 1,513 bales cotton, valued at $74,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. Ger. barque Der Nord, Wegner, cleared for Glasgow with 550 casks spirits turpentine and 4,000 barrels rosin, valued at $12,200, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, making a total of exports foreign amounting to $90,947.

For Safety's Sake.

The side door at the Opera House should always be in such a condition that it can be opened instantly in case of an emergency when an entertainment is being held there. Last night the house was crowded, and had there been any alarm of fire or other cause of excitement there was only one means of egress, and in case of a panic or rush serious injuries to persons must have resulted. The key to the side door should always be in the hands of some reliable person on the premises, so that it could be opened in a moment. This was a subject of much comment last night and this morning, and, we think, very justly, too.

To-day is the anniversary of the battle of Fredericksburg, Va., which was fought on the 13th day of December, 1862, just 23 years ago. The writer of this paragraph was in that battle and was severely wounded early in the contest.

Mr. J. C. Severson has been elected Assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. A. P. Yopp.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

Eight years ago to-day, on the 13th day of December, 1876, the first number of the DAILY REVIEW was published. It has not been a long period of time and yet the Editor and Foreman are the only two persons on the paper to-day who labored in getting out the first issue.

The programmes used at the Entertainment at the Opera House last evening were very handsome and very unique. They were gotten out by Messrs DeRosset & Meares.

Services to-morrow at 11 a. m., and 7.30 p. m., at Second Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. J. W. Primrose.

Glided five cents are going for five-dollars gold pieces, but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup needs no gilding to make it go.
