THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1884. NO. 306

Mme. Ristori doesn't object to the telling of her age, which is 63 years.

Dr. Oliver Swaine Taylor, of New York, who was graduated in the class of 1809 at Dartmouth College, was 100 years old on Wednesday.

Mr. Winthrop's chief wish has been to be able to deliver his address on the completion of the Washington Monument, at the laying of the corner-stone of which he was the orator.

Most of the traveling dramatic companies are submitting to a reduction of twenty per cent. in salaries. It has come to a choice between that and disbandment, so bad is business.

A Scotch colony, consisting of about 2,000 persons, is now being organized to go to Los Angeles county, Cal. Many well-to-do Englishmen are also constantly coming to this country, and the price of land is going up.

The Chinese soldiers' uniform consists of a blue tunic and as many ornaments as he feels like getting inside of. A good many of them use their shoes for breast plates and stuff cotton in their ears to keep from being scared.

Gen. B. M. Prentiss, who recently visited the battlefield of Shiloh, urges that the bones of the unknown Confederate dead be removed to the National Cemetery and their last resting place be properly marked.

Mile. Columbian is undergoing a fortnight's confinement in prison. This is the extent of the punishment which she incurred for her authorship of the libelous book about Sarah Bernhardt, entitled "Sarah Barnum."

The board of Erin, the highest authority in the society of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, have ordered the expulsion of Henry F. Sheridan, of Chicago, from the order, because he tried to convert it into a quasi-political organization.

Fanny Ellsler left a million of francs in bank with the Rothschilds, and this sum now goes to one of her cousins and her own grandchild. A long time ago she wrote her memoirs, but after she had read them carefully over she burned them.

The spot where the gunboats lay when bombarding Vicksburg is now a bank of sand, the course of the river having changed materially, and it is feared that the city will soon be left inland, the old bed of the stream close to the bluff having become a stagnant lake.

By the will of the late R. R. Springer, of Cincinnati, the amount given to charitable associations is about $500,000. Every Catholic charity is remembered and Music Hall gets $75,000; the College of Music $50,000, and the Art Museum $25,000. The estate will aggregate about $3,000,000.

Transatlantic cables cannot be laid and operated by everybody. The cost of the Bennett-Mackey cables is said to have been $7,300,000, and it is stated that the repairs necessitated by the recent break will cost $500,000. The Western Union Company claims that it is not afraid of competition, and boasts that the American Union cable was operated at a loss of $5,000 per day. Bennett and Mackey, however, are determined to enter the field of competition at an early day.

What consolation is it to a man who has slipped and broken through a cellar grating, to be told by Christian men to "flare up, hit it harder and then use St. Jacobs Oil?"

Last Night's Showers.

The showers last night extended a good ways South of us. Passengers arriving by last night's train from the South, inform us that it rained heavily at Florence, S. C. and that the showers were much more severe at that place than they were here. The rain seems to have been general all along the line of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, and also along the line of the Cape Fear river.

Vandalism.

The shade trees which border our streets are beautiful to look upon as well as pleasant in protecting the sidewalks from the glare and heat of the noontday sun; but we have heard serious complaints about the use of them as an advertising medium. Within the last two weeks hundreds of these trees, that were planted for the purposes of shade and beauty, have been disfigured by hand bills announcing the efficacy of some nostrum, much to the annoyance of hundreds of our citizens.

There was no City Court this morning. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 424 bales.

Christmas suits are now being made by Dyer. Call and leave your order for a fine suit of clothes made to measure.

Mr. Geo. F. Tilley, at his stall in the New Market, will to-morrow cut up that fine stall-fed ox. Leave orders early.

Four tramps—three white and one colored—applied for lodgings at the guard house last and were accommodated.

Ger barque Carl Max, Beyer, cleared to-day for Bremen, with 1,105 bales cotton, valued at $54,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Mr. John R. Marshall has opened at No. 24, North Water street, for the sale of produce. He offers in this issue some nice goods for the holiday season. Read his ad. and give him a call.

One of the most beautiful things we have seen this Xmas is a basket and hat ornament, made of tiny white shells, now at Conoley's drug store, and to be raffled. It must be seen to be appreciated.

Chicken thieves raided the premises of Mr. O. Fennell last night, and stole 16 chickens, the entire contents of the coop. They were very nice and fat having been fed for about two weeks with an express view to Christmas.

Goldsboro is moving heartily for water works for that beautiful and thriving city. We are glad of it, and would say to them: Go ahead and do not stop until your city is well supplied with water for any emergency that may arise.

A thunder shower is something unusual for the month of December, but last night was an exception to the rule, and for an hour or two the heavens were illuminated by frequent flashes of lightning followed by heavy peals of thunder, and accompanied by a heavy shower of rain.

For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, lower temperature and Northerly winds.

Organized.

At the meeting of those interested in the organization of an instrumental band by members of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co., held at their hall last night, the committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws presented the same and they were adopted. A committee was also appointed to purchase the necessary instruments. An election of officers was also held which resulted as follows:

President—E. W. Doscher.
 Vice President—M. Rathjen.
 Treasurer—C. F. VonKampen.
 Secretary—J. G. I. Gieschen.

A Serious Affair.

Last Sunday morning, just after the opening of the Methodist Sunday School at Fayetteville, one of the girl pupils fainted. In a few moments one of the boy pupils also fainted, but it was thought for a moment that his trouble was only a sportive imitation of the fainting of the girl, but this idea was soon dispelled by the fainting of three others in quick succession, and soon by others until nearly or quite twenty had fainted. There was, as may well be imagined, intense excitement and alarm at such a frightful spectacle, but some of the most active of those present, thinking that the trouble might be caused by gas escaping from the coal stove with which the room was heated, opened wide the doors and windows and with the advent of a plenty of fresh and pure air, the sufferers soon revived, with the exception of Mr. John C. Thompson, the Secretary of the school, who was prostrated and helpless for a considerable time, and is now confined to his house from the effects of the Sunday morning's accident.

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOBI'S Depot.

A Noted School.

The Horner School, at Oxford, N. C., is one of the noted and really meritorious educational institutions of the State. Messrs. J. H. & J. C. Horner, its principals, are among the best educators in the South, and the course of instruction pursued is precisely what is needed for the young people, to prepare them for the duties of life. The Spring term will begin on Monday, Jan. 12th. See ad. elsewhere.

A Suggestion.

It was a remark of one of our best and most energetic merchants last night, as he was admiring the display in the widows of the stores on Market street, that it would be a good plan for our merchants to keep up the attractiveness of their stores during the entire year, by so disposing of their goods in the windows as to give a pleasant and inviting appearance. This could be done without any outlay or expense further than a tax upon the skill and taste of the merchant. As a general thing the store windows in the city are attractive and even elegant, but there are instances where a little care and taste in adorning the windows would make an improvement. At any rate the suggestion was a good one.

Vessel Ashore.

The three-masted schooner Isaac L. Clark, Capt. Cranmer, bound from Fernandina, Fla., to Philadelphia, was wrecked on Friday last on Hatteras Shoals. The crew were saved. On Sunday morning the schooner drifted ashore at Messrs W. E. Davis & Son's fishery, on Stump Sound, and as soon as the sea subsided so as to make it possible to go on board of her, Mr. Henry Bishop, who has charge of the fishery, with a crew, went to her in a boat for the purpose of saving whatever was possible from the cargo. When she drifted ashore all her sails were blown away excepting the foresail, which was set. She also had a signal of distress flying. Her deck load was lumber, but it is not yet known here what constitutes her cargo below deck. The Isaac L. Clark is 335 tons burthen and was owned at Camden, N. J., by E. A. Cranmer. She was built at Bridgeton, N. J., in 1874.

Personal.

Mrs. Joe Person, who has been at Smithville for several days, came up from there to-day and is registered at the Pure House.

Mr. W. Alden James, of the United States Engineer Department and stationed at Georgetown, S. C., is in the city and will remain here during the Christmas holidays.

Maj. C. W. McClammy was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call.

Miss Kate Foster, who has been visiting relatives and friends in New Hampshire and Massachusetts since last July, returned to the city Saturday night.

Mr. R. K. Bryant Jr., of the Fayetteville Sun, was in the city to-day en route for his old home at Scott's Hill, where he will spend the holidays. He gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon.

Prof. E. A. Alderman, of the Goldsboro Graded School, and Mrs. D. G. H. West, and son, of Newton, arrived in the city last Saturday night and will spend the Christmas holidays with their father, Mr. James Alderman.

A Live Paper.

The New York World, since coming under its present management, has achieved a success which is entirely unprecedented in American journalism, and stamps its proprietor, Hon. Joseph Pulitzer, as one of the foremost journalists of the country. In taking control of the World, considerably less than two years ago, Mr. Pulitzer found many obstacles to contend with, which to almost any one would have seemed almost insurmountable in the struggle for an equal position among the great wealthy and influential metropolitan journals. This has long since been accomplished, and now in all that pertains to a live, great and influential newspaper, the World leads them all. This fact is established by the advertising patronage it receives, which "shows the just estimate that the people form of the value of newspapers." On Sunday last the World appeared with 24 pages or 168 columns of matter. Of these there were 62 columns, containing 2,125 separate advertisements. Evidently the World "do move," whatever the sun may do.

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost nothing equals the MABLEINE sold at JACOBI'S Depot.
