WHO SHALL BE FAIREST?

Who shall be fairest? Who shall be rarest? Who shall be first in the songs that we suig!

She who is kindest When Fortune is blindest, Bearing through winter the blooms of the spring

Charm of our gladness, Friend of our sadness, Angel of life, when its pleasures take wing!

She shall be fairest! She shall be rarest, She shall be first in the songs that we sing!

Who shall be nearest, Noblest, and dearest, Named but with honor and pride evermore?

He, the undaunted, Whose banner is planted On Glory's high ramparts and battlements hoar;

Fearless of danger, To falsehood a stranger, Looking not back while there's duty before!

He shall be nearest. He shall be dearest, He shall be first in our hearts ever-

"Mrs. Partington, what do. you use for a very bad cold?" asked Mrs. Dull. "Handkerchiefs, ma'am," answered 'the aged dame, looking over her spectacles. Alandkerchiefs are a desideratum in the event of a eoid, but a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a necessity because it not only relieves, but cures the worst cold or cough.

She Got the Cloak.

When Mr. Montgomery carrie home the other night he found Mrs. Montgomery eeping. Great, salty tears chased one another down her fair cheek.

"What is the matter, dear?" he asked as he placed a new clove in his mouth and prepared to kiss her. 'Oh, everything is the matter," she sobbed as she placed one arm about his neck and laid her head down on his shoulder. "I want to die."

"Oh no. you don't dear," he remonstrated. "Tell me what is the matter. Now do.

"Fergy," she questioned, "do you love me as much as you did when you married me?" "Why, of course I do. What put such a question in your head?" "Ase you sure that you do?"

"What do you mean. Ellen? You know that I love you as much as I ever did, and more if anything."
"Don't be silly, Fergy. How am to know it? The minister was here to-day and said that a loving husband was continually showing his devotion for his wife. He always bought her everything that she wanted and did everything that she wanted him to do.

"Yes. What are you driving at?" "It pained me when I heard that, and I have been crying all day." "I have been unkind to you?"

"No-o-o, but then the minister went from here over to that hateful Mrs. Brown's, and I just know that he said the same thing to her.

"Well, what of it?" "Nothing; only Mrs. Brown is going to have a new sealskin cloak, and she will go around and tell * hat the minister said. Then she will tell how much her husband loves her and hint that you and I are going to separate." Mr. Montgomery ordered the new cloak the next morning. and incidentally put out a story about the minister having lost a great many friends, and that he had better look for a different field. - Minneapolis

But the cause may be removed and joy restored by the use of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which, as a tonic and nervine! for debilitated women, is certain, safe and pleasant. It is beyond all compare the great healer of women.

In a general melee at Athens, Tenn., Saturday, which grew out of a political contest, Deputy Sheriff Lassiter attempted to disperse a crowd and was attacked, whereupon he drew his revolver and fired, killing William Blackstone and wounding two others. .

"Consumption Cure"

would be a truthful name to give to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the most efficacious medicine vet discovered for arresting the early development of pulmonary disease. But "consumption cure" would not sufficiently indicate the scope of its influence and usefulness. In all the many diseases which spring from a derangement of the liver and blood the "Discovery" is a safe and sure specific. Of all druggists.
