

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XII

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1888

NO 5

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted, By JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor and Prop. SUBSCRIPTIONS, POSTAGE PAID: One year, $4.00. Six months $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers, free charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will please report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

Nothing like it. Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest aperient and tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

FOR WHOSE BENEFIT
A physician's opinion. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like the Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.

The Southern girls in Washington have formed a club—"The Dixie Cotillion."

The German Crown Prince refuses to consent to a regency for Germany in the event of the Emperor's death.

The coldest spot in the world is said to be Werchojansk, in Siberia, where the mean temperature for the year 1885 was 2.9° below zero.

In two London churches, actors have been invited to read the lessons for several successive Sundays lately with great satisfaction to the audiences.

Miss Story, the daughter of a clergyman in the north of Ireland, has won the literature scholarship of £100 a year for five years, awarded by Royal University of Ireland.

The strike of the Philadelphia and Reading employees has had the effect of producing an increase in the price of coal in New York city. Great anxiety is now felt for fear of a freeze while coal is up to an almost prohibitive price.

Tom Woolfolk, the Georgia family exterminator, who is now in Macon under sentence of death, has become of late a close and diligent student of the Bible. The strangest thing about his religious condition is that he is seeking consolation from an aged colored preacher.

The relative strength of parties in the German Reichstag, which differs very little from what it was at the last session, is: Conservatives, including Imperialists and Free Conservatives, 117; Clericals or Centre, 101; Poles, 18; National Liberals, 99; Liberalists, Progressists or Radicals, 34; Social Democrats, 11; Independents, including the Alsace-Lorrainers, 22; total 397.

A race at Fort Dodge, Ia., recently showed what an excellent thing in a horse a fast walk is. Fifteen horses started to go a mile and a half. They were to walk the first half mile, trot the second and run the last. The fastest walkers got such a start in the first half mile that neither the fast trotters nor runners could overtake them.

The Russian military authorities are training falcons to fight the carrier pigeons now adopted by all the European armies for carrying messages in time of war. At some recent experiments pigeons sent up at a distance of several miles from the falcons were speedily overtaken and killed by the birds of prey, some of them even bringing the captured birds to their master.

The Second Adventists of Battle Creek, Michigan, believe that the end of the world is close at hand. They are getting their lamps trimmed. They have discarded their jewels and like empty gewgaws belonging to the earth, and, to prove earnestness, they are making extraordinary efforts to spread their gospel. At a recent meeting $3,000 in cash was poured into the church treasury and about $2,000 in jewelry turned in. The latter will be sold to the ungodly and the entire proceeds devoted to establishing missions in Switzerland, Norway, England, South Africa and Australia.

Recent measurements of Mt. St. Elias and Mt. Wrangel and other high peaks of the west show that Wrangel and not St. Elias is the highest. Mt. Hood used to be called 16,000 feet high. Triangulation makes it 13,000, an aneroid barometer made it 12,000, and a mercurial barometer 17,256. St. Elias, estimated at 12,672 feet high, proves to be 13,500. Wrangel rises 18,000 above Copper river, which is of itself 3,000 feet above sea level, and the mountain is at least 1,000 feet higher than any other North American peak.

The "prazdnik" is the latest variety of charity fair. It is an imitation of a Russian festival in which all classes participate, and gives the young who play that they are subjects of the Czar a chance to appear in picturesque array either as members of the nobility or as peasants. The decorations are furs and skins, gay banners, armor and various Russian devices. A prazdnik lately held in New York, under the patronage of the Russian consulate, is said to have been highly successful in its main object of enticing the reluctant dollar from the pockets of the visitors.

Speaker Carlisle yesterday announced the committees for the House. North Carolina has one chairmanship, that of Mr. Cowles, of the Eighth district, on the Committee on Expenditures of the Department of Justice. Mr. Henderson, of the Seventh district, is on two committees, Judiciary and Pensions, as is also Mr. John Nichols, the Republican member from the Raleigh district, the Fourth, who is on Public Buildings and Grounds and Labor. Mr. McClanay, of the Third, is on Agriculture; Mr. Rowland, of the Sixth, on Postoffices and Postroads; Mr. Cowles, of the Eighth, is on Patents and Mr. Johnston, of the Ninth, is on Public Buildings and Grounds. Mr. Latham, Democrat, from the First, and Mr. Brower, Republican, from the Fifth, are nowhere mentioned. There are in all 49 committees.

Catarrh originates in scrofulous taint. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thus permanently cures catarrh.

The parade and inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry last night was satisfactory with the exception of the lack of members. There were 30 members present out of a roster of more than 70, which is a fact to be regretted.

Indications. For North Carolina, colder fair weather, with light to fresh South-easterly winds, becoming variable.

An Explanation.

At the opening of the Criminal Court this morning, Mr. C. P. Lockey arose and stated that he thought he had a right, as a member of the bar and as an officer of the Court, to call attention to a newspaper article which appeared in the columns of this morning's Messenger, and that if he had not the right, then he asked the privilege of calling attention to the article in question, which he declared was in many respects untrue. He then proceeded to read the article alluded to, which was an account of the difficulty yesterday afternoon between himself and Col. B. R. Moore, Solicitor of the Court. Mr. Lockey said that he did not attack the Solicitor in the Court room as the article stated, nor did he strike the blow with a paper weight. The difficulty occurred, he said, in the County Commissioner's room, where he went to Col. Moore as the latter emerged from the Court room and said, "Col. Moore, you must not call me a liar again in open Court, if you do you will see fun." To which, Mr. Lockey stated, Col. Moore replied, "Conrt is not in session now, and I pronounce your statement that, a lie." "I then," said Mr. Lockey, "struck him with my hand in the mouth. Col. Moore then seized a hatchet and I took up a paper weight, but seeing that would be no defense against an attack from a hatchet, I dropped it and ran down stairs to the street, where I remained in the vicinity of the Court House for sometime, instead of leaving to be seen no more, as stated in the newspaper article alluded to." This was in substance the statement of Mr. Lockey.

Col. Moore said, in substance, that what Mr. Lockey said to him in the Commissioner's room was that, he (Lockey) had a right to argue to the jury that both Col. Moore and Mayor Fowler had manufactured testimony in the case under consideration, which he (Col. Moore) denounced as false when Lockey struck him." It was a matter which at present was not for the Court to consider and he was somewhat surprised that the attention of the Court should have been called to it in that public manner.

His Honor Judge Meares said in substance, that it was a matter not properly before the Court. That it was well-known that no assaults could be made in the presence of the Court, as such acts would not for a moment be tolerated, and thought it strange that, if men had the pluck to fight, they should select some public place for the attack where they knew that they would not be permitted to proceed, instead of taking some quiet place where there would be no probability of interference.

In his Now Field.
Rev. Dr. Yates preached last Sunday morning and evening to his new flock at Durham, and both sermons were favorably received by his congregation. A pouring rain kept many from attending who would have been present had the weather been such as made it possible for them to be out. Those, however, who were present were highly pleased with their new pastor, and we can assure them that they will like him more and more as they become better acquainted with his sterling qualities of head and heart.

Bound to Florida.
The magnificent new Ponce de Leon hotel at St. Augustine, Fla., is to be opened on Tuesday next and a large party of excursionists, some two hundred in number, composed of wealthy Northern men and their families, left New York to-day in a special train to be present on the occasion. This train will arrive here to-morrow morning about 7 o'clock and the party will take breakfast at the A. C. Line restaurant at Front street Depot. They are accompanied by a splendid band of music, said to be one of the finest in the country, and they have intimated their intention of serenading (by daylight) the officers of the A. C. Line in this city. Those of our citizens who may want to hear some good music will probably hear it if they are on hand to-morrow morning near the depot.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacobi's, who is the factory agent.

Personal.

Mr. Henry A. London, of Chat ham county, who has been in the city on a brief visit, returns home to-night.

Mrs. Samuel J. Person, relict of the late Judge Person, of this city, died on the 2nd inst. at Winston, in this State. Mrs. Person was a Miss Tyler, of Virginia, and was nearly related to President Tyler. She was, we think, his niece.

Good Music.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on the night of Friday, the 13th inst., at which time the famous Mendelssohn Quintette Club, of Boston, will appear. This Club has been in existence nearly forty years, and it has maintained a high position as one of the leading musical organizations in the country. They need no endorsement from us, for their superior merits are well known to our music loving people.

The Week of Prayer.

The meeting at the First Presbyterian Church last night was fairly alive with the enthusiasm of deep religious feeling and was attended by a large congregation which completely filled the house. The singing was excellent. The services were conducted by Rev. W. S. Creasy and Rev. Dr. Pritchard and they were full of love and devotion for the great work of the Master. The meeting to-night will be held at Fifth Street M. E. Church, and will be conducted by Revs. J. W. Primrose and G. M. Tolson.

City Court.

There was but one case for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was as follows:

Willis Wilson, colored, was charged by Mr. S. H. Terry with larceny of wood. The testimony of Mr. Terry was that he had been missing fencing stuff for several weeks and that the depositions had become so large that he kept on the lookout to see if he could find out the guilty parties. Yesterday he detected the defendant in the very act and arrested him and brought him to the guard house. In the opinion of the Court the defendant was clearly guilty and he was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the present term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

Criminal Court.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal to-day, up to the hour of closing our report:

- State vs. Gid Edwards, robbery. Verdict guilty. Judgment five years in the State Penitentiary.
- State vs. Frank Myers and Henry Richardson, affray. Defendants submit. Judgment one penny and costs.
- State vs. James Ingram, forgery. Guilty. Judgment three years in the Penitentiary.
- State vs. John Roberts, larceny.—Not guilty and defendant discharged.
- State vs. Sim Franks and Henry Kirkas, affray. Defendants submit. Judgment $5 and costs.
- State vs. John Walker and David Hawkins, affray. Guilty. Judgment one penny and costs.
- State vs. Sallie Moore, Olaf Olausen, Wm. Walsh and Harry Jensen, assault and battery. Now on trial.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

The Opera House.

The "Way of the World," so far as Wilmington was concerned, was not favorable last night to the Weston Brothers and their company of comedians. They played remarkably well, and in some respects the performance was better than on the previous night, but the audience was very small and there was a "beggarly account of empty benches." We regret this as the performance was entertaining and worthy of patronage.

A Pleasant Occasion.

Concordia Hall was in a blaze of splendor and beauty last night. It was the occasion of the first ball of the season of the Wilmington Cotillion Club, and the ball was graced with the presence of the elite of the city. There were matrons and maidens in attendance, and in the rivalry for beauty it was hard to tell who were the most charming and lovely. The committee of arrangements was composed of Col. F. W. Kerchner and Messrs. Pembroke Jones and W. A. Bryan, which is a sufficient assurance that nothing was neglected that should conduce to the pleasure of the occasion. The floor managers were Messrs. James H. Watters, W. A. Dick, H. M. Emerson, T. W. Strange and W. L. DeRosset, Jr., who were attentive and efficient in the discharge of the duties devolving upon them. The music was excellent, and at a late hour the guests sat down to a superb collation, which was highly enjoyed.

Mr. Geo. C. Kelley.

We find in the New South, published at Birmingham, Ala., the following complimentary allusions to Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, a Wilmingtonian who went to Birmingham some years ago and is now one of its most trusted and valued citizens:

One of the most important industrial enterprises in the "Magic City" is the Baxter Stove Works, established here less than six months ago, and now in the full tide of a splendid success.

The capacity of these works is one hundred stoves a day, and so great is the demand for them, even as far as Texas, that it cannot be met with the present facilities, and these will soon be doubled. This speaks eloquently of the enterprise, the pluck and capacity of Southern men, and it is but one of many instances where our manufacturers are making successful headway.

The officers of the Baxter Stove Works are men of first class ability. The President, Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, has displayed the very highest order of executive capacity, both in the mercantile and manufacturing departments, and he is to-day one of the most popular and influential leaders in our business circles. As proof of this, he was recently elected President of the East Birmingham Land Company, one of the strongest organizations of the kind; and under his able and energetic administration its stocks and lands will make rapid progress in value. The people of Birmingham are justly proud of these institutions and look with great interest to their future work in developing the wealth and promoting the growth of our immediate section.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

John J. Hedrick,
January 6th, 1888.

We want to talk to our friends about Towels. Towels are an interesting subject to all nice Housekeepers. We have a weakness that way, and consequently find ourselves overstocked. We do not design to exaggerate, but confidently believe that we have more Towels than any two stores in the city, and have always sold them cheaper. We intend to sell them cheaper yet. Listen, our 37 1/2 cents Damask Towels with fancy border, have been reduced to 25c. We sold a Scotch Huck towel very large size at $3 per dozen, they are worth $4, these we let you have at $2.75. We give you a Huck towel that would be cheap at 20c for 15c. A pure linen Huck towel, a little smaller size, at 10c. Cotton towels as low as 5c, and elegant towels up to $1.50 each, which will be sold at a reduction. To those, who are well posted, the superiority and cheapness of our linen stock are as familiar as "household words," the prices named above are for cash, but prompt paying customers will get them all the same; if you desire to derive the benefit of the above offer, call early. So much for towels. Next week we will give you some information in relation to other goods.

Respectfully,
J. J. H.
