ber of saloons in the State has been decreased 25 per cent and the revenue increased $4,300,000.
Senator Lamar may or may not be confirmed. At present it looks as though the "mays" will have it. There are two reports from the committee, the majority against him and the minority for him. It needs only two or three Republican votes with the Democratic strength to carry the day. Both of the Nevada Senators, Stewart and Stanford, say he ought to be confirmed and if they will vote as they talk there can be no doubt as to the result.

It is a melancholy fact that the American Society for Psychical Research in Boston, organized for the particular purpose of investigating ghosts, has been unable to find a single haunted house or to follow the peregrinations of a single specter. It has advertised for haunted houses to no purpose, and has vainly sought the society of the shades that stalk at night. The ghosts had had a brisk season just before the society was formed, and the members imagined they would have their hands full of business. They cannot make bricks without straw, however, and so they will have to wait patiently for another era of spectral activity to set in.

The Star is very kind when it says:

He (Cleveland) disappointed some of the Democrats in North Carolina who regard the abolition of the whiskey, beer and tobacco tax as the greatest of all questions, but they will not repudiate their President because of this.
Most assuredly not. The Democrats in North Carolina are not built that way—at least not all of them. We believe in the abolition of the internal revenue tax, or at all events, in a different method of its enforcement, but this fact does not diminish our regard and respect for President Cleveland, and our confidence in him as one of the most honorable, sincere and upright Chief Magistrates this glorious Republic has ever had.

Some tall swearing seems to have been done by Thobe (or Thobe, or Thobe, which is it?) and his supporters, in their endeavor to oust Mr. Carlisle from his seat in the House. A New York Herald special from Washington says:
Information has reached here from Kentucky which will enable Speaker Carlisle to effectually dispose of the sensational case which it was attempted to make against him before the Committee on Elections.
In the first place some of the affidavits are beyond question false. In the next place, bad as they are, they are found not to justify the version of their contents, which was given verbally to the committee by counsel and thus found their way into the press.
There seems to be no ground for doubt that some of the makers of these affidavits have fully exposed themselves to criminal prosecution. Some of the Republican members of the committee have expressed themselves strongly in the matter, and as indicated above.

Senator Sherman gave immediate orders to the Government printer to put his recent speech on the tariff into pamphlet form. The Republicans evidently intend to make free use of it as a campaign document. No time was lost in getting orders for the protection tractlet, a Senate page being pressed into temporary service as a canvasser. He succeeded in getting orders which, together with that of the author, will call at once for 40,000 copies. Senator Stanford asked for 6,000. Senator Sawyer ordered 5,000. Spooner went into the business, while Stewart, Paddock, Palmer and Davis took the manifest in smaller lots. The indications grow thick that the second batch of set speeches is not far off. Senator William Pierce Frye, of Maine, has been preparing an exordium; the Senator from Kansas, who ordinarily occupies the chair, is reported to be incubating an incisive effort, the delivery of which will bring him once more to the floor after nearly a year of silence; and on the other side, Joe Brown, of Georgia, has solemnly announced his intention of reading one of his ninety-eight page sermons, the text being one of reduction of the internal revenue.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Plow is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent.

Hon. W. H. H. Cowles, Representative of the Eighth district said to a New York Star correspondent in Washington City the other day:
"With the promise of the slight reduction in the internal revenue tax which has been promised us North Carolina will be as solid as a brick for the Democracy next year. The people do not there think President Cleveland is their great defender and champion. His recent tariff message is taking well with them and is growing more popular every day. They account for his position on internal revenue taxation on the ground that he considered it of secondary importance to the tariff question. They do not think that means that he would oppose by his veto any measure of relief for the internal revenue system."
"Taking the whole political field into consideration, the President has grown and strengthened in the hearts of the people of North Carolina ever since his inauguration, and he was never so popular as he is now. Things are looking particularly bright down there now, and we will give the Republicans such a beating this fall that we will drive them out of the State." North Carolina is one of the States which it was claimed would go Republican next fall on account of the President's recent tariff message.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 325 bales.

There was a sharp advance in cotton in New York to-day.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Br. barque Longfellow, Farady, sailed from Cardiff, Wales, for this port Jan. 4th.

Second Presbyterian Church: Annual congregational meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

The indications are that the cold snap has reached a climax and that it will be warmer to-morrow.

The advance in the price of coal has a tendency to keep the price of wood above the usual figures.

The weather grew somewhat warmer as the sun declined towards the Western horizon this afternoon.

The price of spirits turpentine still holds at 38 1/2 cents per gallon, at which price the receipts of to-day were sold.

The cutter Colfax went down the river this morning. She had steam and a spanking Northwest breeze to help her and she went off in fine style.

The weather has grown colder nearly all day, and a smart Northerly wind has been blowing to make out of door exercise rather unpleasant.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

It has been suggested that the dirt that will have to be removed in grading for the new public building might be well utilized to fill in the vacant lot on the East side of Third street, between Market and Princess, near Miss Hart's school house.

The improvements in Custom House alley have been completed and it is a piece of good work. The grade is regular from Water street to Front street, and there is no hindrance nor inconvenience in the passing of drays from one avenue to the other.

Mr. Gevarte Prigge, a gentleman long and favorably known to the mercantile community in this city, has entered into business here as a general merchandise broker, with an office in the Wessell building, corner Water and Mulberry streets. He will visit the merchants with samples and will give prompt attention to all orders, from the country as well as from the city.

Indications.
For North Carolina, colder, fair weather, with fresh to brisk Northerly winds, diminishing in force.

Neatly Trapped.
Mr. H. D. Murrell, who lives on Middle Sonnd, and who is fond of hunting has recently caught 35 chicken hawks and 5 owls in a steel trap on top of an ordinary stack pole. This was done by splitting the top of the pole and setting the trap in the crevice, and when the birds alight the trap is their only resting place and consequently they are caught.

Rehabites.
At a meeting last night of Unity Tent No. 90, I. O. of R., the following officers were installed by D. H. C. R. C. L. Cowles:
C. R.—J. T. Sholar.
D. R.—D. E. Savage.

L. S. to N. G.—P. F. Platt.
R. S. S.—W. G. Brown.
L. S. S.—J. H. Strauss.
I. G.—E. J. Moore.
O. G.—W. M. Hays.
R. S. to V. G.—Oscar Pearsall.
L. S. to V. G.—N. Jacobi.

The Opera House.
The Concert to be given by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, of Boston, at the Opera House, next Friday night, will be one of the notable musical events of the season and it will undoubtedly be attended by a large throng of the music loving people of the city. Mr. Thomas Ryan, the Nestor of the Club, and who was one of the original members, sharing with, and contributing to, its triumphs, will be with them next Friday night. He, of course, will be well remembered by the people of Wilmington. Mr. Louis Blumenberg, the violoncellist, was here with the Club last year for the first time and his excellent cello playing was a grand feature of the entertainment. The other members of the Club will be new to a Wilmington audience, but we are assured that they are all artists of unquestioned ability.

City Court.
The first case for the Mayor's investigation this morning was that of Emanuel Jones, colored, who was charged with a violation of one of the market ordinances by obstructing the alley on the South side of that building. The testimony showed that he was guilty and that he was also very independent in his defiance of the law, and he was required to pay a fine of $5, which was the extent of the penalty for such an offense.
Ella Gregory, colored, disorderly conduct, all about a man. She was found guilty and the judgment of the Court was that she pay a fine of $20 or work in the chain gang 30 days.
Nancy Gilmore, colored, disorderly conduct. This was a matrimonial squabble in which the husband seemed to be the principal witness for the prosecution. The couple have figured more than once before the Court, with the husband as the defendant. In the present case Nancy was required to pay a fine of $20 or be imprisoned for 30 days.

Robert Bridges was charged with an assault and battery. The case was continued, however, until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Personal.
Miss E. Karrer is in the city and is the guest of Mrs. H. C. Preupert.
Ex-Mayor Fishblate returned to the city last night from New York, where he has been for a week past.
Mr. Herbert McClannum has recovered from his recent brief but severe sickness.

The Board of Directors of the First National Bank did not elect officers yesterday afternoon as we stated that they would. The election will take place this evening.

The contract for carrying mails in covered wagons between the post-office and the railroad depots in this city from July 1, 1888, to June 30, 1892, has been awarded to Mr. A. B. Sandlin, at $840 per annum.

Criminal Court.
The attention of the Court was mainly occupied during the morning hour in hearing of cases of no importance to the general public, many of which were settled, some not pros'd and others continued. The Court will adjourn this afternoon.

Slight Fire.
The alarm of fire was sounded from box 24 at about half past 4 o'clock this afternoon. The firemen turned out promptly, but the fire was on the West side of the river, nearly a half mile from the ferry and was consequently outside the city limits.

The fire was on the roof of a shanty and the flames were soon extinguished without any great loss of property.

Industrial School.
There was an informal meeting of several of our citizens at the Produce Exchange yesterday afternoon to consider the ways and means for the establishment of an industrial school in our city. Mr. D. MacRae was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Oscar Pearsall gave his views at some length and thought that the sum of $3,000 or $4,000 could be raised to aid in the matter. After the subject had been fully and freely discussed it was suggested that Messrs. Oscar Pearsall and George R. French prepare articles of association and see what number of our citizens would become members and further, to canvass the practicability of the scheme and how it may best be brought to a successful result, and report thereon at some future meeting.

Mrs. Shackelford's Death.

In recording the death of this estimable lady the Goldsboro Argus says:
The death of Mrs. L. M. Shackelford, whose extreme illness at the residence of Dr. B. F. Arrington we noted some time ago, occurred yesterday at noon. She was surrounded by all her children, who have the consolation of knowing, in this sad hour of their irreparable bereavement, that she whom they mourn had every attention that love and friendship and science could lavish upon her during all the patient weeks and declining days of her sickness. She was in the 64th year of her age and was the wife of Mr. Jas. Shackelford, late of Wilmington, where her remains were taken yesterday evening for interment. The sympathy of this entire community goes out in all sincerity to those who have been thus sadly visited by Him who doeth all things well, and chasteneth in wisdom and love.

A Runaway.

Jim Williams, colored, hired a horse and buggy this morning from Mr. J. W. Taylor for a two hours' ride. He took with him a boy named Empie Durant and went to Mr. Heide's place, about four miles from the city. Returning to the city—Williams being drunk—the horse, when near Smith's Creek bridge, started to runaway, throwing Williams out on the ground and leaving him at the side of the road. The horse continued his flight until near Fourth street bridge when it ran into the soda water wagon of Mr. A. F. Lucas. The collision caused the breaking of one of the shafts and the whiffle-tree of the buggy to which the frightened horse was attached, by which means the animal was freed from the carriage and he ran across Fourth street bridge and was stopped upon reaching its South side. The boy was also thrown from the buggy at the same time, but with no further injury than a good fright and some slight abrasions of skin on the back of his hands. Williams was not harmed.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eyes in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eyes. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
