Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

Among the earliest official acts of District Attorney Fellows, says the New York Star, will probably be the placing before the grand jury of one of the most gigantic cases in the history of the Courts-the suit of the German bondholders of the Kansas Pacific Railway against Jay Gould, Russell Sage et al, for the al

Since the promulgation of Ex-District Attorney, Martine's opinion that the acts charged against these defendants constituted a crime, there have naturally been many rumors as to the motives for Jay Gould's extended trip, especially at a season of the year when traveling for pleasure is rather the exception

Missionaries should be sent to Senate to a sense of their religious duties towards each other and the world in general. The Star of that city has recently drawn attention to the fact that as a rule the prayer of the Senate chaplain is daily delivered to an almost empty chamber. It is a rare thing for the presiding officer to call a quorum to order and frequently not more than a half a dozen Senators are present. Senators generally admit that it is a reproach to the body to thus ignore the only peligious service in connection with the proceedings, and numerous quiet efforts have been made to effect a reform. This recalls the fact, says the Star, that in the last Congress Senator Hoar offered a resolution to require the presence of a quorum at the prayer, but the second day after he himself failed to appear in time. When the prayer had been delivered Mr. Hoar entered the chamber, wearing somewhat of an air of embarrassment. His delinquency was observed, and the resolution became a dead letter. This ignoring of the prayer has grown to be a habit of the Senate. her experience below: When Judge Davis, of Illinois, was President pro tempore he entered the chamber with the chaplain one day and the only Senator visible was Mr. Butler, of South Carolina. Judge Davis did not pause an instant, but with all the solemnity and gravity usually observed by stroke with his gravel and said: "The Senator from South Caro lina will come to order."

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Barsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.
