The majority of the ill of the human body arise from a diseased liver. Simon's Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any other agency on earth.

It will take $50,000 to break up the great Eastern, which was sold recently for $80,000.

Mormons have a comfortable majority in the Utah Legislature. On point ballot there are thirty one Mormons to five Gentiles. It must not be assumed, however, that all the Mormons are polygamists. From choice, fear of the law, or as a matter of policy, many Mormons have recently declared against polygamy,
and have offered, if Utah should be admitted as a State, to prohibit polygamy in the Constitution beyond the power of amendment except by consent of Congress.

Speaking of Mayor Hewitt's message to the New York city council, the Tribune says: "Every part of the document bears signs of careful thought and diligent preparation.—
The mayor devotes himself to the solution of municipal problems with an energy and zeal which few of his predecessors ever equalled or approached. This message is far too weighty and lofty a document for so trivial and inconsiderable a body
as the board of alderman; but while nominally addressed to the small politicians who assemble at the City Hall, it is really meant for the highest intelligence and the most enlightened public sentiment of the community."

Preliminary preparations are being made for a grand military and civic celebration in Austin, Texas, on the occasion of the dedication of the new State House. The State Capitol is second in size to the National Capitol at Washington only, and cost 2,000,000 acres of land, representing a money value of nearly $7.
000,000. An effort will be made through the Texas Congressional delegation to secure the attendance of the President and Mrs. Cleveland to meet President Diaz and his wife and to commemorate the occasion with a grand peace festival. Gen.
Diaz has unofficially acquiesced in such a programme.

The members of the Korean embassy brought with them several wagon loads of trunks containing their wearing apparel. Each of them appears to have as elaborate a wardrobe as the most fashionable of American belles, and they change their costumes several times a day.
They have an infinite variety of hats, very tall, and all perforated at the top. They wear their hats to their meals, and have a different one for each meal. They take as much interest in everything that goes on around them as the Chinese and Japanese used to do when they first came to Washington. They are somewhat similar in color and appearance to their neighbors, but have the most peculiarly-shaped heads. The back of the head is not round in the least, but goes up from the neck as straight as an arrow.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 287 bales.

The receipts of naval stores to-day have been unusually light.

Nor. barque Veronica, Pettersen, hence, arrived at Havre Jan. 16th.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Schr. J. R. Bobcott, Metcalf, from Rockland, Me., for this port, arrived at Vineyard Haven Jan. 15th.

There was an advance of ten cents per barrel in the price of tar last night after our report was closed.

The Northwest cautionary signals which were hoisted last night, were ordered down at about 10 o'clock this forenoon.

There are but five boarders now in the county jail, all of whom are colored, with the exception of one white female.

Mr. O. M. Elyaw has opened a new family grocery store at the Northwest corner of Second and Market streets.

The price of spirits turpentine has again advanced and 40 cents per gallon was asked to-day, while 39 cents was offered freely.

The weather has been so cold to-day that the mud which was frozen last night has not thawed in places where the sun did not shine.

Wood has advanced in price in consequence of the cold snap, and it is now held at $1.10 per load delivered, of what is presumed to be a quarter of a cord.

There was a rush this morning at Heinsberger's at the opening of the sale of reserved seats for Mlle Rhea's performance to-morrow night, and the box sheet was nearly all cut out in a short space of time.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

Quite a number of vessels that have cleared from this port and have been wind and weather bound at Southport, took advantage of the fair weather this morning and went to sea.

Mayor Fowler found a colored man on the streets this morning so overcome by the cold that he fell and was unable to rise. The good hearted Mayor called a dray and had the sufferer conveyed to his home.

The street force this morning, under the direction of Capt. W. H. Sholar, began to build across Macomber's Ditch at Fifteenth and Dock streets. They found the weather so cold, however, that they were not able to make very rapid progress with their work.

Pender County Superior Court, Judge Shepherd presiding, which has been in session this week, will probably adjourn this afternoon.—The criminal docket was cleared yesterday and the civil cases were to have been taken up this morning.

Indications.
For North Carolina, colder, fair weather, fresh to brisk Northerly winds, becoming variable and diminishing in force.

Up and Down.
In accordance with instructions from headquarters the Northwest storm signal was displayed here last night and also at Charlotte and Morehead City. The cold wave signal was also ordered up here, but as there is but one flag-staff it could not be raised, the storm signal having the preference. At 9:30 this morning the signals were withdrawn at this city, Morehead and Charleston.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Almost a Fire.

At about 12 o'clock last night some lightwood in the shoemaker's shop of Mr. J. G. Voss, on Second street, between Princess and Chestnut, ignited by being placed too near the stove, and was in a light blaze where it was discovered by one of members of the Atlantic Hose Reel Company, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames without turning in a general alarm. The damage was very slight, as the fire was discovered before it had a chance to spread or gain much headway.

The Weather.

The weather grew rapidly colder yesterday afternoon as there began to be evidence that the storm was over, and there was a decidedly falling temperature all through the night. This morning was very cold, with the ground frozen solid and ice wherever there had been standing water. The atmosphere, though very cold, was bracing and invigorating, so that those who were in health and had proper clothing had no dread of freezing when compelled to be out of doors. The sun shone brightly, which was a great relief after the long spell of rainy and cloudy weather.

Election of Officers.

The Christian Association of Grace M. E. Church held a regular meeting last night for the election of officers, with the following result:
President—T. B. Kingsbury.
First Vice President—A. G. Hankins.
Second Vice President—Wm. M. Poisson.
Secretary—J. T. Medlin.
Assistant Secretary—Archie Warren.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. F. Garrell.
Visiting Committee—Mrs. J. W. Perdew, Mrs. W. W. Hodges, Miss Bella Bowden.

A Large Ship.

Br. ship Elta, Arthur, arrived here last evening and anchored in the stream nearly opposite the foot of Church street, where she lies to-day. The Elta is one of the largest, if not the very largest, sailing vessels that ever came to this port, registering 1,154 tons. She is also the first full-rigged ship that has been here for a good many years. She will load cotton for some European port, probably for Liverpool.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

City Court.

After a long and enforced absence, Obadiah Jenkins was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct yesterday afternoon. The charge was clearly proven, and the defendant was required to pay a fine of $20, with the alternative of 30 days in the chain gang.

Frank Maynard and Aleck Booth, two tramps hailing from Boston, applied for lodgings at the guard house last night. They claimed to be hotel waiters and said that they had been to Jacksonville, Fla., where they had been unsuccessful in obtaining work and were trying to get back to the city of culture, baked beans and John L. Sullivan. For fear that they might mistake their way officer Turlington was detailed to escort them to the city limits on the Boston road.

As We Predicted.

Our readers will remember that when we gave an account of the finding of the schooner William & Richard abandoned, water logged and dismasted, we stated that the condition of the vessel when found was such as to confirm us in the belief that the crew had been rescued by some passing vessel. That we were correct in our opinion the following, which we clip from the New York Herald of the 18th inst., is proof:

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Steamer Timor (Br.), Hodgson, which arrived at Liverpool yesterday from Savannah, rescued during a hurricane on the 31st ult., in lat. 33 N., long. 78 W., the crew and the captain and his wife and two daughters of the Boston schooner Henry & Richard, which was dismasted and waterlogged and had doors and boats smashed and cabins flooded. (The above vessel is probably schr. William & Richard, before reported seen abandoned.)

This news will afford consolation and relief to some anxious people in this vicinity, as one of the crew was from Southport.

See the "Artful," the best rat trap known, at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Lippincott's Magazine.

In the February number of Lippincott's Mrs. A. L. Wister translates a novel called "The Spell of Home," after the German of E. Werner, and the novel is thoroughly charming. Amelia Rives shows herself in a new and most interesting light in a brilliant story of ancient Athens, "The Man of the Golden Fillet." Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood gives an entertaining and valuable sketch of her "Efforts to Become a Lawyer." Agnes Repplier has a pleasant little essay on "Modern Word-Parsimony." An anonymous author discusses "Our Old Maids." "Life at a Working-Woman's Home," is a singularly clever and amusing glimpse into a curious phase of life. The poems are by Helen Gray Cone, Sarah M. B. Platt, Edith M. Thomas and Ella Wheeler Wilcox. The Monthly Gossip discusses a new and ingenious method of producing literature which is within reach of the humblest intelligence, and announces a scheme for a series of one hundred questions in literature and matters of current interest for answers to which a prize of one hundred dollars is offered.

Personal.

Mr. A. H. Paddison, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Louis Petteway has removed from Maxton to this city and has taken a position with Mr. O. M. Elyaw in his new grocery business, corner Market and Second streets.

Chadbourne Times: Mr. A. P. Yopp, who is chief engineer on the W. C. & C. R. R., and who has resided in this town for some time, moved to Conway last week, that being the life-over point for the W. C. & C. trains. We are sorry to part with Mr. Yopp and his excellent family. He is an honest christian gentleman and we congratulate our Conway friends in having him locate among them. Our loss is their gain. We wish Mr. Yopp and family every pleasure in their new home. Mr. Price Yopp is the son of Mr. A. J. Yopp and brother of Mr. W. Harriss Yopp, of this city.

Mlle Rhea.

The event of the season will be the appearance next week of the charming French actress Mlle Rhea. She opens her engagement on Friday morning appearing in "Fairy Fingers" her latest success. At the matinee "Pygmalion and Galatea" will be presented and "Frou Frou" on Saturday evening. The ladies have a treat in store in the gorgeous display of Parisian dresses, "Fairy Fingers" is a comedy-drama from the French of Ernest Legouve, entitled "Fairy Fingers." It was written originally for the famous Theatre Francaise, of which house it still remains a standard work. She first produced the play at Rouen and achieved a wonderful success in it. "Fairy Fingers" is beautifully written, cleverly constructed, and abounds in delightful surprises. It upholds the dignity of labor and shows how a young girl can, by her own exertions, raise herself above the need of aid from others. Besides being a remarkable strong play, it gives scope for a most bewildering display of gorgeous dresses. Among the dresses displayed by Mlle Rhea will be one originally worn by Madeleine Brohan on the first presentation of "Fairy Fingers" in France. "Fairy Fingers" will present a number of innovations that will be sure to please. One scene representing the interior of a Parisian dressmaking establishment will be of special interest to the ladies; it will be made extremely realistic by the aid of salesladies, customers, and a man milliner.
