THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 20 1888 NO. 16

The Raleigh correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appal seems to think that Maj. Stedman will be nominated for Governor. In speaking of the political situation at the present outlook he says:

There has perhaps never been a time when politics loomed up so early preceding the opening of the active campaign in North Carolina as at present. Indeed it looks as if the campaign was really on us to hear the discussions and prophecies being daily engaged in. Both parties are to some extent "at sea" as to who will make the most available representative for the chief standard bearer, and especially among the Democracy the "Richmonds" are fast accumulating. It seems that every prominent man in the party has a following who loudly blow on every favorable opportunity the horns of their favorite. Next to the speculations as to who shall be the gubernatorial standard bearer, comes the momentous question, who will succeed Ransom in the Senate? Amid the conflicting news it is hard for the disinterested to draw a fair inference other than from what could seem to be the natural tendency of things. Taking precedent as a basis for the gubernatorial succession, it is rather fair to presume that the successful candidate will come from the eastern section of this State, and this being conceded, the inference can be still further carried out in the belief that the most active aspirant in that section will be the successful individual. That Lieutenant-Governor Stedman "fills the bill" in this respect is the current opinion, and wagers to this effect could be freely gotten. The Lieutenant-Governor, too, is busy at the helm in the way of "working the triggers," and together with his host of admirers, is earnestly striving to make "assurance doubly sure." The bulk of the talk here marks him as the favorite, thus far, at least. Among the Republicans the predictions are scarcely less indulged in, but are not of so wide a scope. Their list of available men is more contracted, but still there are more of them seeking the honor of the gubernatorial nomination than at any time since 1876. Whether justified by any reasonable cause or not, it is nevertheless true that the leaders of that party are far more hopeful of carrying North Carolina this year than they have been since the election of Governor Caldwell, and thousands who had heretofore become disheartened are exhibiting great confidence of success. In short, the political cauldron is beginning to boil in earnest, and gives promise of one of the most hotly contested political battles ever fought in the state.

The worst feature about catarrh is its dangerous tendency to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by purifying the blood.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.
The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 511 bales.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.
There was a sharp advance in the price of cotton in New York to-day.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.
Steamship Pioneer sailed for New York at about 7 o'clock this morning with a full cargo.

Mlle Rhea and her company arrived this forenoon and registered at the Orion House.
The box sheet for Mlle Rhea's performance shows that she will be greeted by a crowded house to-night.

The Wilmington Light Infantry were out on parade last night by the light of a very cold moon. They were drilled on Market street in the marching and manual at Market Dock in firing.

Crude turpentine advanced in price ten cents per barrel to-day for virgin and yellow dip and five cents per barrel for hard.

Schr. Wide Awake, Wingfield, from New York for this port, arrived at Delaware Breakwater Jan. 18th, and sailed again the same day.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

The congregations of Bladen Street M. E. Church are continually increasing and the building will hardly contain the audiences who go there to worship.

A Good Hint.
Goods are selling very cheap at the Ladies' Emporium on Market street, opposite this office, and the returns from the long ad. inserted in the Review have been so satisfactory that it has been ordered in for a month, instead of two days, as originally intended. One of the ladies says that the insertion of the ad. for two days only brought in more business in that time than they had had in a week previous. This is a good hint for others.

Appreciative.
At the last regular meeting of Hanover Council No. 25, United States Benevolent Fraternity, held in this city last Tuesday evening, Mr. William Goodman was made the recipient of an elegant gold-headed ebony cane in token of appreciation of his services as an officer of the Council ever since its organization. The handle of the cane bears the inscription: "Hanover Council No. 25, U. S. B. E., Wm. Goodman, January, 1888." The presentation speech was made by Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn in a neat, felicitous and appreciative manner. Mr. Goodman was taken entirely by surprise, but he responded gracefully and gratefully to this mark of the respect and esteem of the Council.

Pretty West India Fruit.
The British schooner Sarah E. Douglas, Capt. Cameron, from Nassau, is in port with an assortment of West India fruit. She brought, besides other fruit, 140,000 oranges and they are the brightest and prettiest West India oranges we have seen here in years. Of these 50,000 were sold here to parties in Charleston and another lot of 50,000 to parties in Baltimore, and they will be shipped hence to those places by rail. The balance of the cargo will be sold here by the consignees, Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

The Great Meeting.
It has now been decided that the meetings which are to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Pearson in March next will be held in the two front compartments of the Southern building of the Champion Congress, on Nutt street. It was a question whether the occupancy of the building for such a purpose would not affect the insurance on the property, but at a meeting of the insurance underwriters of the city, held yesterday, it was decided that the property would not be jeopardized providing gas or electricity were used in illuminating the premises. This obstacle being thus happily removed, the meetings will be held there, as we have stated. Plans for the seats may be seen at the office of Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, on Nutt street, and contractors who would like to enter bids for the construction of the benches, speaker's desk, music stand, &c., are invited to call and examine them. They are arranged for a seating capacity for 2,500 persons, with five feet aisles and proper means of egress in case of any accident. The plans which have been determined upon are very plain and offer every accommodation possible to the worshippers. They were drawn by Mr. W. W. Hodges, of the firm of Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

Personal.
Dr. E. W. Ward, of Onslow county, was in the city to-day.

Hon. John Nichols, representative from the Fourth Congressional District, arrived in the city this forenoon and is the guest of Mr. Jacob S. Allen while here.

Capt. J. H. Marshall, who is pilot of the steam yacht Thyra, Capt. G. L. Bulon, of the New York Yacht Club, is in the city and gave us the pleasure of a call to-day.

We regret to learn, as we do from the Weldon News, that Capt. E. D. Browning has for some weeks past been confined to his bed with rheumatism. He expects to be able to visit the Warm Springs of Arkansas in a short time, and hopes that those celebrated waters will effect a cure.

City Court.
The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of a young man, charged with fast driving. The evidence showed that the horse, for a moment, got the better of the driver and started to run, but was soon controlled and made to travel at a proper speed. The case was dismissed and the defendant discharged.

A colored man on South Water street, charged with offering liquor for sale on Sunday, was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

Herman Strauss, a drummer from Baltimore, was charged with a misdemeanor, in that he insulted ladies in a millinery store on Market street, yesterday morning. Mr. Thos. W. Strange appeared for the prosecution and Mr. J. I. Macks appeared for the defendant. The judgment of the Court was that the defendant was guilty and he was required to pay a fine of $50 for the offense. Defendant appealed when a justified bond of $100 was required for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

John Clayton Smith, colored, noisy in the Court Room, whereby the proceedings were disturbed, and he was fined $5 for contempt of court, with the alternative of working ten days in the chain gang.

Lizzie Alexander, colored, for keeping an unlicensed dog, was fined $1, which would be remitted when she procured the necessary badge.

Maggie Chance, colored, for keeping two unlicensed dogs, was fined $2, with a good chance of having the fine remitted when she procured the necessary badge.

Mlle Rhea.
To-night, the charming French actress Mlle Rhea appears at the Opera House beginning a two nights engagement. Mlle Rhea presents the three gems of her repertoire. Pygmalion and Galatea at the Saturday matinee, Erou Fron at night and Fairy Fingers, a new play from the French, this evening.

"Fairy Fingers" is a revelation of Parisian life that only an actress possessing the French vivacity and Parisian manners can truthfully depict. Mlle Rhea, both in her art and her nativity, fills the role to perfection. The play is cleverly written, full of dash and spirit, abounding in delightful comedy and beautiful sentiment. More than once dramatic authors will cast their nets into the ocean of literature before bringing to light so exquisite a pearl. It upholds the dignity of labor and pictures in striking colors the apathy of wealth when brought face to face with honest endeavor. The story of the play centres in the fortunes of Hortense, Duchesse de Lesneven, a dependent on her relatives, who impose many distasteful burdens upon her. She resolves to leave their home and fight her battle with the world alone; only in this case she does not fight in rags. On the contrary, she wins her victory in magnificent dresses. She goes to Paris, opens a dressmaking establishment, and soon becomes the modiste of fashionable circles. The dresses made under her direction are so marvellous that people say they must be the work of fairy fingers, from which incident the play derives its name.

Indications.
For North Carolina, warmer, followed by colder, fair weather, and light to fresh westerly winds.

There was a good supply of wood in market to-day and the price asked was not so high as it was yesterday.

Burnt Cork.
The Wilson & Rankin Minstrel Troupe, which will appear at the Opera House next Monday evening, is one of the best companies of its kind now on the road. There are 35 performers and all are artists in their peculiar line of burnt cork comicalities. They have received unstinted praise from the press in every place where they have appeared. The songs are all new, they have superb dances and their orchestral music is very fine. Of course there will be a full house to give them cordial greeting.

Royal Arcanum.
At the last regular meeting of Clarendon Council, No. 281, of this city, Deputy Supreme Regent, Nathaniel Jacobi, installed the following officers:

Committee Meeting.
The committee on music, who were appointed to make the necessary preparations for a choir of 50 singers to take part in the religious exercises which are to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Pearson, held a meeting this noon. Mr. C. H. Robinson was called to the chair and Mr. W. H. Alderman was Secretary. After a full discussion of the matter, the Secretary was requested to send invitations to the choirs of all the churches who will take part in the meetings, to meet at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church at half past 7 o'clock next Tuesday night, for the purpose of organizing a choir. The meeting then adjourned.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
