

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1888 NO. 20

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted. By JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor and Prop. SUBSCRIPTIONS, POSTAGE PAID: One year, $4.00. Six months $2.00. Three months $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers, free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will please report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

Diarrhoea is that misery experienced when you suddenly become aware that you possess a disordered stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics are divided into two classes: those whose temperament is subject to St. Mark's Cholera; those, fleshy and plump, who have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time, Start the Liver to working, when all other remedies soon disappear.

A six days' walking match is to begin in Madison Square Garden on February 5. Four English pedestrians have come over to take part in it.

Money is abundant in New York and loans can be made on call at extremely low rates; one firm loaned $1,000,000 on Thursday at 3 1/2 percent on ordinary stock collateral.

The Austrian minister of public instruction has issued a decree forbidding the use of small printed books in public schools, as they are the cause of the near-sightedness so prevalent among school children.

Alta California: Governor Foraker says in his message: "Next after God it is our duty to take care of America." This is delicious. The idea of the Governor of Ohio taking care of Deity is a museum idea that ought to be stuffed.

New York wholesale dry goods men say business for 1887 was fully up to expectations, and collections on the first of this month were unusually good. One old Broadway house sold $1,000,000 worth of goods more last year than in any year since it was established.

The finest house in Washington is that of B. H. Warder, on K street. It cost $400,000 and looks like a Venetian palace. It has a bathroom of white marble, and in one of the bedrooms there is an apartment walled with mirrors, so arranged that a woman can see herself on all sides, without turning her head.

A sale of ten shares of the New York Chemical Bank stock rather astonished Wall street last week. It brought $8,375 per share. The par value of a share is $100. Ninety per cent was paid to the stockholders last year, with an extra ten per cent as a Christmas gift, in addition to which 150 per cent was added to the surplus account.

They are talking about establishing a Maple Sugar Exchange in Vermont to guard against adulteration. It is said that the widespread adulteration of genuine maple sugar and syrup is resulting seriously to the sugar industry of the State. The annual product is about 12,000,000 pounds; and it is thought that the organization of an Exchange would increase it 25 per cent.

The New York Sun, which, by the way, is now an out and out Democratic paper, has published a most exhaustive review of the political situation in all the wards of that city. It finds reason for encouragement on every side, and says that everywhere the party is united and thoroughly harmonious. It could find no signs of factional fights and jealousies, and predicts that the result of this unity and co-operation in the party ranks will be a sweeping victory for the Democracy this fall.

The Blaine men of New York, it is said, have picked out Senator Everts, Chauncey F. Depew, Wm. H. Robertson and Thomas C. Platt, as their delegates at large to the National Republican Convention. Possibly the name of Levi P. Morton may be substituted for that of Mr. Platt. The entire State delegation will undoubtedly be controlled by Platt, and it will be for Blaine, if Blaine is a candidate. With the "Man from Maine" out of the field, Senator Frank Hiscock would probably be New York's choice.

The appearance of so many leading Democrats of the metropolis in Washington within the past month has started the rumor that the politicians of New York city are trying to bring pressure to bear upon Mr. Cleveland to supplant Postmaster Pearson by a Democrat. It is the only office of any prominence not controlled by the party of the majority in New York State. The Democratic politicians do not hesitate to say that the only link now wanting to make perfect the chain that will re-plant Mr. Cleveland is the control of the New York Postoffice.

Catarri originates in scrofulous taint. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thus permanently cures catarrh.

There is a strolling band of musicians travelling about our streets, playing for the contributions they may be able to pick up. There are six or seven of them and they play remarkably well.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of a new enterprise on Fourth street, just North of the new iron bridge, a family grocery store which has just been opened in the Genaust building.

Perhaps we were "a little too previous" in a personal in yesterday's issue, in saying that Mr. A. F. Lucas will leave the city. He will do so only in the event of being able to dispose of his business here advantageously.

Mr. T. B. Maguire will lecture on labor at Meginney's Hall to-night at 7.30 o'clock; the public are invited to be present. Mr. Maguire is one of the Executive Board of the General Assembly of Knights of Labor and a resident of New York city.

The Eastern carriage way across Fourth street bridge has been completed and was thrown open to the public yesterday, so that the people of Brooklyn have as much and as good accommodation as they have ever had, so far as that thoroughfare is concerned.

We regret very much to hear of the extreme sickness of Mr. Frank W. King's little boy, the last of five children. In this connection we are requested to state that Mr. King's store will be closed for a day or two while he is in attendance on his sick child.

A Literary Treat.

The hall of St. Agnes' Guild was crowded last night, by an intelligent and refined audience to hear a lecture upon "The Universal Infringement," by Hon. A. M. Waddell. The speaker was humorous and satirical by turns, but always intelligent and entertaining. He demonstrated how prone we poor weak mortals are to make fools of ourselves, but he told it in such a pleasant and humorous way that none could get angry, and all were delighted.

The Baptists.

The Brooklyn Baptist Church, having bought the building formerly known as "Minnie Hall," on the S. E. corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, are making extensive and important changes in the structure, preparatory to using the second story as a house of worship. It is expected that the work will be completed in about four weeks, when that growing church will have a commodious and comfortably arranged house of worship, which will be an ornament to that part of the city and a great convenience to the congregations who may worship there.

The Singers.

The first meeting of the different choirs of the city, who are to take part in the Pearson revival meetings, was held at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church last night. There were about 25 ladies and gentlemen present, and after some preliminary conversation the singers were arranged around the organ, with Prof. VanLaer as conductor, and Miss Anna Sprunt as organist and several tunes were sung. The selections were from Gospel Hymns, and they were sung with fine effect. The next meeting will be at the same place at half-past 7 o'clock, sharp, next Tuesday night, when it is hoped that all singers who take an interest in the proposed meetings will be present and will bring a copy of the Gospel Hymns with them. Steps were taken last night to secure a supply of these hymns which will be here in a few days, for the use of those who wish to sing and have no copies.

City Court.

David Bryant, colored, furnished the first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The defendant was charged with throwing rocks in the streets, and as the charge was sustained, he was required to pay a fine of $10 or work 20 days in the chain gang.

Samuel Wilkins, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $20, with the alternative of 30 day's imprisonment.

Mack Winberry for attempting to rescue a prisoner who was in charge of an officer, was fined $10, with the alternative of 20 days in the city prison.

Willie Robinson, Cornelius Bloodworth and J. Franklin Evans, three colored boys, charged with vagrancy, were fined $5 each with the alternative of five days in the city prison.

Wesley Evans, colored, cruelty to animals. Bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $50.

E. A. Feely, disorderly conduct. The testimony showed that the defendant had visited several families in the city, claiming that he was a physician, and had asked for any cases of rheumatism or neuralgia, which he treats as specialties. His manner had been otherwise harmless although he was frequently in an excited condition. In explanation of his conduct, the defendant gave abundant evidence of intelligence and education, but was evidently cranky. His case was held under advisement for the present.

The Carnival issue of the St. Paul Herald has been received at this office. It consists of 16 pages, lithographed covers in five colors, representing street scenes in St. Paul during carnival time, and a very fine double page lithograph of the grand Ice Palace now being erected in that city. This issue will be sent post paid to any address at 10 cents per copy, three for 25 cents. Address, ST. PAUL HERALD, 33 Union block, St. Paul.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Personal.

Mr. J. D. Shaw, of Rockingham, is in the city to-day.

Mr. A. C. Melke, of Lumberton, was visiting our merchants to-day.

Mr. W. F. Cook, of Whiteville, has been on our streets this forenoon.

The Weather.

It seems that one day of pleasant weather is all that be afforded, and that only in occasional doses. Yesterday, although it was cold, was pleasant from the sunshine, after many days of gloom and rain and mud. To-day the sun has been obscured and a drizzling rain has made exercise out of doors anything but pleasant.

The Next.

The Boston Star Concert Company will be the attraction at the Opera House to-morrow night. They were here a year ago for the first time and they made such a favorable impression at that time, that the announcement of their return is hailed with delight by all who had the pleasure of hearing them when they were here before. They are all artists and they afford one of the best entertainments that can be produced. We hope they may have—as they richly deserve—a crowded house.

The Opera House.

The "Jim, the Penman" Company, from Madison Square Theatre, New York, arrived here to-day, and will appear at the Opera House to-night. We regret that the night gives every indication of being inclement, which will have a tendency to keep many at home who, were the weather pleasant, would gladly attend. The company is a good one and the play one of the most fascinating and popular productions that has been witnessed for a long time. Its run in New York was almost unprecedented, and it has received the highest praise of the press wherever it has been presented.

A Memory.

Capt. James P. Powell, who for many years commanded one of the packets running between this city and Philadelphia, and who will be well remembered by many of our citizens, is now living at the advanced age of 75 years, in Macon county, Mo. Messrs. Geo. Harriss & Co. were in receipt of a letter from the captain this morning, in which olden times were pleasantly reverted to, and which stated that the writer was in excellent health and is now engaged in agriculture. In fact, he has left off ploughing the sea and gone to ploughing the land.

Superior Court.

The following were the proceedings before this tribunal to-day up to the hour of closing our report:

Sallie Sampson vs. Wm. Sampson, continued. S. M. Empie for plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Wilmington Mutual Insurance Company vs. G. A. Peek, compromised and settled. H. McClammy for plaintiff; J. I. Maeks for defendant.

Anna Larsen et al vs. C. C. Williams, et al. Jury out. C. P. Lockery for plaintiff; T. W. Strange for defendant.

Luey W. Murchison, vs. J. B. Farrar, et al. Decree. Steadman and Weill for plaintiff; H. McClammy for defendant.

Bynum and Cotton vs. J. F. Garrell, agent. Transferred to motion docket. T. W. Strange for plaintiff; J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for defendant.

A Venerable Citizen.

Yesterday was the eighty-sixth anniversary of the birthday of Mr. George R. French, senior member of the firm of George R. French & Sons, of this city. The occasion was made pleasant and memorable by a family gathering and by many tokens of kind remembrance and of the love and esteem in which he is held, not only by his family, but by many others who have known him long and who called yesterday to pay their respects and to offer their congratulations that he had been so mercifully spared for so many years. Mr. French, although not a native of North Carolina, has been continuously in business in this city since 1823, a period of 66 years. He has always been an honorable and upright man in all his dealing and we but voice the wishes of a large number when we hope that he may yet be spared many years of health and prosperity.

The Publisher's Book Sale.

The book sale at 119 Princess street has indeed a wonderful collection. It embraces all kinds of literature. You can buy a book to suit your pocket, from five cents up. Mr. Lit, the manager, positively guarantees to sell all books for less than half the regular price. The sale closes Saturday, January 28th.
