THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY JANUARY 31 1888 NO. 25

PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written only on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 809 bales.

See the "Artful," the best rat trap known, at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

January leaves us to-day and the first month of the new year is gone already.

New River oysters were selling this morning at 80 to 90 cents per gallon from carts.

There is quite a large number of strangers in the city to-day, many of whom are from the surrounding counties.

The Lutheran Publication Company, of this city, has secured another press, which has been necessitated by their increasing business.

Mr. W. H. Chadbourn, Jr., did not start out to-day on the survey of the road to the Sound, as was intended but hopes to get out to-morrow.

You will find at Heinsberger's an elegant assortment, just received, of fine wire masks for ladies and gentlemen and some other articles needed for masquerade balls.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

The masquerade ball of the Germania Cornet Band is to take place on Thursday night, February 2nd, instead of to-night, as we stated yesterday. Somehow we got the motion in our noddle that yesterday was the first of February.

Mrs. James Brown Potter, a new star in the theatrical world, will make her debut to a Wilmington audience next Monday night. Her business manager, Mr. H. B. Lonsdale, arrived in the city last night to make the necessary preparations for her appearance. She will be supported by an excellent company.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

Indications.

For North Carolina, slight change in temperature on the coast, cooler in the interior, fair weather and winds becoming light to fresh westerly.

Pistol Shooting.

Somebody was shooting last night in the vicinity of McRae and Mulberry streets. We do not know who the party was that did the shooting, but we know that five shots were fired, the first three being followed in about ten minutes by two more. There was no disturbance that we heard further than the firing.

Last Night's Fire.

At about 9 o'clock last night the kitchen on the premises of Mr. J. H. McFarley, on Eighth and Castle streets, was discovered to be on fire. Two alarms were sent out, the first from box 23 and the second from box 35. The firemen turned out promptly, but the building was considerably damaged before they could get to work and get the flames extinguished.

The Festival of Months.

The Festival of Months, to be given on the 7th, 8th and 9th of February next, by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, promises to be a grand, unique, entertaining and interesting affair. The ladies who have the affair in charge are working earnestly for a success, and we have no doubt that they will make of it a complete triumph.

Matrimonial.

There will be a double wedding to-morrow night at Whiteville, the brides being Miss Mamie and Miss Lula Schulken, daughters of Mr. Martin Schulken, of that town. A party from this city, friends of the family, will leave for Whiteville on to-morrow afternoon's train to attend the interesting ceremony. We failed to learn the names of the young gentlemen who are to be united with the Misses Schulken in the bonds of matrimony.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

Ready for the Flames.

The fire apparatus which has recently been put on the steamer Marie was tried yesterday afternoon at the Champion Compress and the results were eminently satisfactory. With a pressure of 75 pounds of steam the rotary pumps threw a stream over the masts of the schooner Lizzie Wright, lying at the dock. This was through one hundred feet of hose and an inch-and-a-quarter nozzle. The next time there is a fire on the river front Capt. Edgar Williams will be heard from.

City Court.

There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was disposed of in the following order:

Madison Larkins, colored, charged with bastardy, was the first case. Guilty. Judgment $5 fine and bond in amount of $50 for the maintenance of child when born.

Wm. Mitchell, colored, disorderly conduct. Complaint dismissed at the request of the prosecutor.

The Salvation Army.

The Salvationists were on the streets again last night and a meeting was held at the corner of Front and Market streets. There were several speakers, and one of them, a female, announced that they proposed to hold a meeting "somewhere on the wharf" next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock; and also, that they expected reinforcements about the 16th of February, in the persons of Major Wells and Kusiek, who are now leading detachments of the Army in Chicago and Salt Lake City.

Chicken Thieves.

The premises of Mr. James F. Post, Jr., on Seventh street, between Princess and Chestnut, were raided by thieves last night and twelve of his chickens were stolen. Officer Turlington saw a man on McRae street during the night acting under suspicious circumstances, gave chase and after a good long run he succeeded in capturing five of the chickens, which the thief had dropped in his flight. The thief managed to escape. Mr. Post was present at the City Court this morning and identified the captured fowls as his property and they were delivered to him.

Wide Awake.

February Wide Awake has come; bright with pictures and full of entertainment and wisdom for young folks. One series of papers alone is enough to make the fortune of a magazine, "The Children of the White House," a familiar sketch of the children of John Adams, with many curious portraits and relics. "About Rosa Bonheur" is accompanied by copies of several of her pictures, with a portrait of the artist herself in her studio. "My Uncle Florimond" comes to its third instalment. Mrs. Sherwood takes "Those Cousins of Mabel's" to Richfield Springs. Olive Risley Seward visits the Great Wall of China. Oscar Fay Adams occupies himself with Esop, the story-teller. And many more. The number is very rich, varied and interesting. A sample copy can be obtained by sending five cents to the publishers, D. Lothrop Company, Boston.

The Opera House.

Mr. Fredericke Warde is a tragedian of undoubted merit; the play of "Damon and Pythias" is especially adapted to the display of his great histrionic powers; he was ably supported last night by an exceptionally fine and strong company, and his appearance at the Opera House was greeted by a large throng of our most refined and cultivated people. The play was presented with due regard to all its requirements and Mr. Warde—always popular with our theatre-going citizens—obtained a new hold on popular favor by the efforts of last night. The role of Damon, which was essayed by Mr. Warde, is an exacting and trying character, but he was fully equal to its faithful rendition. The company was listened to with the most profound attention and interest and the frequent bursts of applause with which their efforts were greeted was abundant evidence that they were fully appreciated. Mr. Warde may always be sure of a crowded house whenever he visits Wilmington.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Railroad.

The mules and part of the drays and utensils for grading the Seacoast Railroad will arrive here to-night, and work will be commenced to-morrow or next day. The Directors held a meeting at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, (too late for us to report the proceedings), at which it was probably determined when the work will be commenced.

This Morning's Fire.

There was an alarm of fire turned in from box 31, corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, at about 3 o'clock this morning. The fire was in the house of James Tucker, colored, on Fifth street, between Brunswick and Bladen. The department were promptly on hand and the flames were speedily extinguished. The damage was very slight.

Superior Court.

The first matter for the consideration of the Court this morning was the hearing of the case of E. S. Jaffray & Co. vs. Sol Bear et al., which was continued from yesterday. Mistrial. J. W. Thompson vs. S. VanAmringe. All the issues found for the plaintiff. M. Bellamy for plaintiff, A. G. Ricard for defendant.

James H. Carraway vs. Kate Carraway. Verdict for plaintiff, and decree granted for divorce.

Some Pigs, Those.

Mr. A. B. Rooks, of French's Creek township, Bladen county, slaughtered four hogs on Friday, the 20th inst., two of which were aged 17 months and 20 days and weighed 300 and 269 pounds respectively; the other two, aged 12 months and 6 days, weighed 196 and 210 pounds.

Last February Mr. Rooks killed a lot of porkers, one of which weighed 416 pounds and another, aged 12 months and 6 days, weighed 272 pounds. Good pigs that, don't you think?

Personal.

Maj. T. D. Love, of Bladen county, is here on a short visit.

Mr. R. C. Johnson and Capt. A. C. Ward, of Pender county, were in the city to-day.

Mr. Frank C. Gould, of Warsaw, N. Y., who has been visiting his former rector, the Rev. Chas. T. Coerr, leaves the city this evening for Florida, where he intends to spend the winter.

Mr. H. B. Lonsdale, business manager for Mrs. James Brown Potter, is in the city for the purpose of making arrangements for the appearance of Mrs. Potter at the Opera House here next Monday evening.
