MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13, '88.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C.,

The programme for the celebraion to be held in Louisville. Ky, next fall, has been arranged. It comprises a general Confederate reunion, in which all the Southern States vill be requested to assist, the celebration to open on Monday, September 3, and continue for four weeks. There is to be during the first week an old-fashioned barbecue and camp fire at the fair grounds, parade and sham battle at Fort Buell. The second week will be devoted to a commercial conference and an industrial parade; the third to match base ball games between famous clubs and a regatta on the river, while the closing week will be reserved for a grand spectacular parade and "Roman Triumph," a grand flambeau parade and illumination, the whole to conclude with a grand carnival ball.

The Washington centennial celebration committee, of which Mayo Hewitt, of New York, is chairman, has decided upon formal ceremonies on the front steps of the sub-treasury, April 30, 1889, where Washington took the oath of office one hun dred years before, and also at St. Paul's Church, where he attended services upon the day of his inauguration. There will be in addition a trade demonstration, military and exercises at the Metropolitan Opera House. All the Legislatures, as well furnishing funds, and it would be a capital opportunity to establish the precedent of devoting a certain perupwards wherever they live. You are started centage of the money raised as a fund for some permanent memorial. The New York Historical Society stands in great need of a larger endowment, and a Washington fund with a flour scoop to dip it and a for the collection of historical papers and facts in the career of the great American would not be inappropriate. At any rate, it is a sorry fact that while we are passing through our age of centennials, upon which money is spent lavishly, the bulk of it goes up in fireworks, oratory and banquet fumes, the organized means of preserving history are ill-support-

The rumor that Italy will soon recall her Abyssinian expedition in view of the threatening aspect of European affairs is hardly supported yet by probabilities or existing facts. The troops of Gen. San Marzano form only a small part of Italy's war effective, and while they would undoubtedly be withdrawn on the outbreak of a European war to which Italy should be a party, their pres eat recall would properly be regarded as retreat and failure. This loss of prestige Italy cannot afford, how ever she may wish herself well out of the Abyssinian business. The es and Sauces. Highly recommedded as a night sembled 20,000 troops, of whom threefourths are now on the plains lying between the Red Sea coast and the African highlands. Nor can the Italians afford to wait long in inaction at Saati. They must soon attempt to ascend through the mountain passes to the plateau where King John is encamped, since the present season is the one most favorable for this operation. They would probably like first to be attacked on the plains below, but the King may wait on the defensive in the hope that heat, and coast fever will soon be his most effective allies,

It is announced that a party of Eastern capitalists have purchased the entire Clark estate at Enterprise, Fla, and are going to utilize the mineral springs, erect a very extensive sanitarium, and one of the finest hotels in America.

How Men Die.

If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many, however, have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened Lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste.
