We hope that, by the time designated for the encampment, the Seacost Railroad will be completed, so that there will be every opportunity af forded to visit the Sound, as well as the other attractive places in the neighborhood.

City Court.

The first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of a countryman who was drunk and disorderly at Front street depot last night. The charge was clearly es tablished and the judgment of the Court was that the defendant pay a fine of $20 or be imprisoned for 30 days. One half of the amount of the fine was subsequently remitted.

Hattie Wilson, colored, disorderly conduct. There was no proof to sustain the accusation and she was discharged.

Louise Currie, colored, disorderly conduct. The defendant was clear ly guilty and she was required to pay a fine of $10 or be confined in the city prison for 20 days.

A party, whose name we suppress, was required to pay a fine of $10 or to be imprisoned for 30 days for disorderly conduct.

Charles Smith, colored, asleep in a private lot. This defendant was before the Court a few days ago on the same charge, when judgment was suspended. He is an old offender and had been repeatedly warned to find some other sleeping place, but without avail and so, in the judgment of the Court, a fine of $20 with the alternative of 30 days in the chain gang was none too severe punishment.
