DYSPEPSIA.
That misery experienced with it, is not a daily lesson, where that we possess a delicate system, and are not used to a strong one. The stomach is the seat of the disease, and the liver is the source of the trouble. Among a dozen of the most common ailments, dyspepsia is the most prevalent. It is a disease of the stomach and liver, and is characterized by a feeling of fullness, and a sense of oppression, and a general debility of the system. It is a disease of the stomach and liver, and is characterized by a feeling of fullness, and a sense of oppression, and a general debility of the system. It is a disease of the stomach and liver, and is characterized by a feeling of fullness, and a sense of oppression, and a general debility of the system.

THE UNDERLYING CAUSE IS IN THE LIVER.
It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Alleviate Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time, Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

FOR GOVERNOR—LIEUT. GOVERNOR CHAS. M. STEDMAN.
Conscientiously and honestly devoted to the best interests of the Democratic party, with the success of which is inseparably connected the honor and welfare of North Carolina, and realizing the great importance of the approaching political conflict in the State, THE DAILY REVIEW, while for months having no doubt as to who should lead our columns in the fight, has up to the present time refrained from a formal announcement of its convictions, willing, if necessary, to sacrifice its own views, to give up the almost unanimous wish of this section of North Carolina, if by so doing the cause of the party could be advanced. Time has only served to strengthen our convictions. An honest and unbiased scrutiny of the availability of all the names mentioned, or likely to be mentioned, has confirmed us in our opinion that the standard bearer of the Democratic party in North Carolina in 1888, should be our distinguished townsman, Lt. Governor Charles M. Stedman.

We have come to this conclusion, with a full comprehension of the necessities of the impending struggle. Lt. Gov. Stedman is in the very prime of his physical and mental manhood. He can endure any amount of bodily fatigue and mental strain, and will be found equal to any emergency which the campaign may develop. He is a man of untiring energy, coupled with an ardent enthusiasm of character, which carries him far to the front in all his undertakings, and which ever communicates itself to those who come in contact with him. He is a man of personal and moral firmness, and if nominated would conduct the campaign in a manner which would bring pride and gratification to the breast of every white man in our State. Those who desire an easy going, milk-and-water candidate must seek some one else.

We believe that an aggressive campaign is necessary to our success, and if a man can be found in North Carolina better fitted than Lt. Gov. Stedman to conduct it, we do not know him. He is a frank, open and generous man, whose liberality is known of all people in this section, and whose disinterested kindness through a long series of years to the poor and humble has endeared him to that class by ties of the strongest nature. His private character is without stain, and the public is invited to a criticism of his entire life, both political and personal. In the two great requisites for leadership in the approaching contest he has few equals in our State. We mean the capacity for organization and for that style of public speaking calculated to arouse the masses of the people.

No one knows Lt. Gov. Stedman better than we who will not say unhesitatingly, that if he receives the nomination, every county in the State will be thoroughly organized. We need only refer to his canvass in 1884 to illustrate his splendid capacity as a speaker. He carried the flag of our party with credit to himself from the mountains to the ocean, creating an enthusiasm wherever he went, which has only been equaled during Vance's great campaign in 1876. His great capacity as a public debater is acknowledged by all, and in the ranks of the Republican party can be found no man who is his equal in this respect. He will undoubtedly be a very strong candidate in the West, both in the nominating convention and afterwards; for upon the one great issue, so dear to the people of our Western counties, he has been their constant and unchanging friend. Of all the public men in Eastern Carolina he has been, perhaps, the most conspicuous in his opposition to the internal revenue system of taxation. He has denounced it, in almost every political speech he has made, and his late interview with Mr. Mills, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, shows how decided are his convictions on this question. How strongly he endeared himself to the people of the East by his bold and uncompromising advocacy of the supremacy of the white race, it is needless to speak. We ask, what element of weakness does he possess as a candidate and challenge investigation and comment. We waive entirely the fact that he is in the line of promotion; that as Lieut. Governor and presiding officer of the Senate he made a reputation of which his countrymen may well be proud; that he comes from a section that has been totally ignored for over fifty years, and we rest his claims entirely upon his merits.

Fellow-Democrats of North Carolina: The people of the Cape Fear section will present to your kind consideration a man, who, if nominated, will achieve a victory unsurpassed in the annals of the State.

Humors run riot in the blood at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels every impurity and vitalizes and enriches the blood.

This is a wonderful climate of ours. A heavy rain will fall one day and street sprinklers will be needed the next.
There may be more cold weather to come but we doubt it. We think that East of this year will be a veritable harbinger of Spring.
Had the great American tragedian, Edwin Forrest, lived until yesterday he would have been 82 years old. He was born March 9th, 1806.
At the joint services held in St. James' last night there were present the Bishop, Rev. Dr. Carmichael and Messrs. Strange, Coerr and Arnold. Mr. Coerr preached an eloquent sermon.

There was a large congregation at the First Baptist Church last evening in attendance upon the union meeting. The services were conducted by Rev. Walter S. Creasy, of Grace Methodist Church.

Mr. A. Shrier's new clothing store on North Front street was illuminated last night with the electric light, and it made a fine display which attracted much attention.

Mr. Geo. H. Bellamy, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Brunswick county, has called on the primaries to meet on the 27th inst., to elect delegates to a County Convention to be held on the 31st inst., at McKeithan's store.

In speaking yesterday of the handsome beer wagon turned out by Messrs C. B. Southerland & Co. we neglected to state, as we fully intended doing, that the painting, which was executed in a very artistic manner, was done by Mr. J. H. Murray, the well known house and sign painter, whose work has been commended by many.

It is suggested by a steady attendant at divine services that it would be a matter of great convenience to all denominations if the various churches would adopt the same hour for the commencement of their services, for then one not hearing the bell of his own house of worship could go by that of some other church and be on time.

Personal.
Mr. Geo. W. Williams, of this city, was registered at the Battery Park Hotel, in Asheville, a few days ago. Mr. Charles E. French, of Minneapolis, is in the city on a visit to his father and brother.

The Wonderful Animals.
There was another good house present at the Opera House last night to see the marvelous performances of Prof. Bristol's trained horses. They are, without doubt, the most wonderfully trained animals in the world. Each part of the entertainment is a surprise and a delight and a wonder. There is a matinee in progress this afternoon and the show gives its last appearance here to-night.

Union Meetings Next Week.
The union meetings will be held next week at the First Presbyterian Church, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m., and will be conducted as follows:
Monday night by Rev. J. M. Tolson of the Brooklyn Baptist Church.
Tuesday night by Rev. D. H. Tuttle of the Fifth Street Methodist Church.
Wednesday night by Rev. J. W. Priuor of the Second Presbyterian Church.
Thursday night by Rev. W. S. Creasy of Grace Methodist Church.
Friday night by Rev. Dr. Pritchard of the First Baptist Church.

A Sad Accident.
Mr. Thomas Southerland, of Duplin county, was killed yesterday afternoon at Smith's Creek bridge, one mile North of the city, by the North bound train on the W. & W. R. R. which leaves here at 3:45 o'clock. He lives at Hallsville and it is said had walked to the city. The train was running rapidly at the time, as it was behind time. Mr. Southerland was walking towards the city, with his eyes bent on the ground and as he was quite deaf it is but fair to presume that he did not see or hear the train. He was struck by the pilot and knocked off to the ground near the edge of the creek and was instantly killed. It was found that the left side of his head was crushed in and that the left arm and left leg were broken. Death must have been instantaneous.

The body was brought to the city and coroner Miller held an inquest to-day, the jury rendering a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death as above stated.

Capt. T. J. Southerland and Mr. C. H. Southerland, who are distantly related to the deceased, were allowed to take charge of the body, which will be sent to his home in Duplin county for interment. Mr. Southerland was about 75 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Flow is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 206 bales.
Danish barque Rialto, Jorgensen, cleared to-day for Rival, Russia, with 8,419 barrels rosin, valued at $3,778, shipped by Messrs DeRosset & Co.

Memorial services in the Lutheran Church to-morrow at 11 a. m., in memory of Emperor William, will be in English and German. Thousands of churches will hold similar services in the country as well as abroad.

Races Yesterday.
Quite a crowd was assembled at Capt. Southerland's race track yesterday to witness some interesting races. Mr. R. C. Orrell's bay gelding, Strider, trotted a mile in 3:15 on a first trial and in 2:46 on the second. May Woolvin and Katie trotted against each other, and it was a close race, the former winning in 3:30 against 3:32 for the latter. Mr. Simon Sanders' mare and Mr. A. J. Flanner's horse also trotted against each other, the latter winning.

The German Mass Meeting.
The committee having in charge the arrangements for celebrating the ninety-first birthday of his majesty Emperor William of Germany, which would have occurred on the 22nd of March, will meet at the Lutheran parsonage at 8 o'clock this evening so as to properly arrange the holding of the German mass meeting, which in view of the Emperor's death will take the form and character of memorial services. The committee consists of Messrs. A. Adrain, Jno. Haar, Jr., F. W. Kerchner, Dr. F. C. Miller, Messrs. Sol. Bear, M. M. Katz, and F. Rheinstein, Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn and Rev. F. W. E. Peschan and Mr. J. A. Bonitz.

The Seacoast Railway.
Work on the railroad is progressing steadily. A large force of hands is already employed and this is being augmented every day. The rails have been ordered and the first cargo is expected here on or about the 20th inst. These rails are of steel. There are live men at the head of this enterprise and the indications now are that we can all take a ride to Wrightsville by rail by early Summer.

Howell & Cumming.
Messrs. C. B. Howell and W. M. Cumming, the latter of this city, compose the Wilmington Spring Bed and Mattress Company, a new enterprise lately started here. These gentlemen have located on Third street, opposite the City Hall and are already busy filling orders for their goods.

They manufacture, among other things, a spring-bed bottom which is a very ingenious one, with several features differing from others now in use and superior to many. We noticed especially a new and useful attachment, the invention of Mr. C. B. Howell, a patent for which has been applied for and which to be appreciated must be seen. The springs are all manufactured here and are of the best quality of Bessemer steel. A machine which the company uses for the shaping and filling of mattresses is a new invention patented last August, and it seems to us to be one that is needed to turn out mattresses of the best quality as well as those of less cost. On this machine mattresses can be made as thin as an inch, if desired, or as thick as any one may wish. They will be made of any material ordered, hair, pine fibre, moss, cotton, shucks, or straw, or of two or more materials, but a specialty is made of the pine fibre or, as it is sometimes called, pine hair, or pine wool.

We noticed at work in the Company's rooms to-day one mattress maker who left here some years ago, looking for work. He went to Charleston and thence to California, but has returned to his old home, finding here a prospect of steady work.

The Blood.
Is the source of health; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system serofula, humors, impure particles, and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired, and debilitated organs. A trial will convince you that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

No Cheap John, shoddy, or moth-eaten goods in his establishment to palm off on the public.
