SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
TORPID LIVER
Indicated by these marked peculiarities: Headache, dizziness, and pain in the face; a feeling of heaviness and fullness in the stomach; a feeling of weakness and languor; a feeling of chilliness and coldness; a feeling of heat and burning in the stomach; a feeling of nausea and vomiting; a feeling of indigestion and flatulence; a feeling of constipation and difficulty in passing the bowels; a feeling of general debility and weakness; a feeling of nervousness and irritability; a feeling of melancholy and depression; a feeling of loss of appetite; a feeling of loss of sleep; a feeling of general prostration and exhaustion.

BILIOUSNESS
If neglected, soon leads to serious consequences. Biliousness is a common ailment, and is caused by a torpid liver. It is characterized by a feeling of fullness and heaviness in the stomach, a feeling of weakness and languor, a feeling of chilliness and coldness, a feeling of heat and burning in the stomach, a feeling of nausea and vomiting, a feeling of indigestion and flatulence, a feeling of constipation and difficulty in passing the bowels, a feeling of general debility and weakness, a feeling of nervousness and irritability, a feeling of melancholy and depression, a feeling of loss of appetite, a feeling of loss of sleep, a feeling of general prostration and exhaustion.

OLIVE OIL
Governor Martin, of Kansas, is charged with the grave offence of having used "have saw" in a recent message.

Ex-Senator Simon Cameron celebrated his ninetieth birthday at "Donnell's" his country home, in Lancaster county, Pa., on Thursday. The mansion was crowded with invited guests and neighbors, who flocked in to offer congratulations. The venerable ex-Senator is still hale and hearty.

A New York gossip says Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt's social expenses are about $100,000 a year. This winter she is said to have spent $15,000 on her ball, $8,000 on a musicale, $10,000 on dinners, $2,000 on luncheons, $2,000 on breakfasts to friends at Delmonico's, $10,000 for an opera box, $5,000 for theatre parties, $3,000 for afternoon receptions, and the rest went for incidentals.

The Republican National League has had copyrighted a button of white enamel with gilt bars and lettering, which is to be worn by members of the League. The cost will be twenty-five cents each, and the money realized from their sale is to be used for campaign purposes. They will be sold only by the executive committee of the Republican National League, and no one but a member in good standing of some club represented in the League can purchase one.

At a large mass meeting of the Democrats of Lafayette Parish, La., a few days ago, a resolution was unanimously adopted tendering the thanks of the Democrats of that section to Senators Riddleberger, Stanford and Stewart, "who in voting for the confirmation of Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar as Associate Supreme Court Justice refused to prostitute themselves under the party lash." The meeting also unanimously endorsed the administration of President Cleveland and declared for his re-nomination.

Mr. H. W. Grady replies, at considerable length, to the criticism of Senator Ingalls, and as to the question of the Kansas Senator, concerning his speech in Atlanta in May, and his speech at the New England dinner last year, says: "I was as equally sincere when I spoke in New York. Barring certain phrases in the first speech, the questionable nature of which the enthusiasm of the occasion may have excused, there is not a word of either, assuredly not a sentence or conviction, that I do not deliberately repeat and defend. In both speeches there is candor and reverential love, earnestness and outspoken for every man who died or suffered for the South's cause, as based upon this - and stronger and better because of it - and perfect loyalty to the reconstructed Union."

The Rev. Dr. Gottheil, formerly of New Orleans and now of New York, has come out in favor of woman's suffrage. In a speech before the New York City Woman's Suffrage League he is reported as saying that in a few years the efforts of those striving for suffrage would be crowned with success, when impurity in politics would be succeeded by cleanliness. When 200,000 women in New York have to earn their living, fight single-handed against the world and preserve their honor, it was a pity to tell them that they have not the capacity to discern the class of men capable of holding office.

Boils, pimples, hives, ringworm, tetter, and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Meeting of the S. P. C. A.

The Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals met at the City Hall last night. The President, Mr. J. H. Watters, was absent, and Mr. A. S. Heide, the first Vice President, present, called the meeting to order and acted as Chairman. The Presidency and the 1st, 3rd and 4th seats of Vice Presidents were made vacant by the resignations and promotions. The 4th Vice President, Mr. A. S. Heide, was elected President of the Society, and Messrs. Marshall and Holden Vice Presidents.

The books, which were held open until last night for parties who wished to become original members were closed, and hereafter membership can only be secured by written application, which is subject to the action of the Society. The Society now consists of fifty-three members. After the adjournment of the regular meeting the Chairman of the Governing Board, which consists of the officers of the Society, called a meeting of that board to take some action toward securing badges for the Society.

No definite steps were taken in regard to the matter, but the President, Mr. A. S. Heide and the Secretary, Mr. Gilbert Greene, were requested to secure some designs and present them at the next meeting of the Board. The badges when received will be given to certain members who will be invested with police power by the Mayor.

A Fox Catches a Crow.

Did any of our readers ever hear of a fox catching a crow? If not, we can give them an instance. Some time ago Mr. Robert Fox, who clerks for Mr. W. H. Yopp, on South Front street, was at Rocky Point and while walking in the woods near that place with Mr. Mauger Croom, of this city, saw a crow perched on the limb of a small pine tree, about the height of a man's head from the ground. Mr. Fox remarked to Mr. Croom that he would catch that crow, and advancing by slow degrees, and very stealthily, with his right arm extended at full length in front of him, managed to get under the tree without alarming the bird. He then caught it by the feet and held it firmly. The crow fought like a good fellow but the fox held on tight and secured his prey. This is a fact and is perhaps the only instance of the kind on record.

The Services To-Night.

The Marshal of the Memorial Exercises at the Opera House this evening requests the ushers to be on hand at 7:15 o'clock, sharp. The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and all who propose attending are urgently requested to be in their seats at that hour. The doors will be closed during the exercises and open during the interludes.

The Pearson Meetings.

The preparations for the Pearson meetings which are to open here next week are about complete. The hall has been arranged, the seats and platforms are completed, and electric lights placed therein. In compliance with the suggestion made originally in the REVIEW, the city authorities have had a good board sidewalk made on Walnut street, between Front and Nutt, as this is to be the great thoroughfare for approach to the building. It is expected that a great many of our country cousins will come into the city every day during the meetings for the purpose of hearing the great evangelist.

City Court.

Sanford Smith, larceny. Case dismissed.

James Connor, a tramp, was allowed to solicit work in the city.

The Equator in the Gale.

The steamship Equator, Capt. Nelson, which arrived here this forenoon from New York, had some rough experiences on her passage to this port. She left New York last Saturday and on that night the storm struck her. Her mainsail was blown to ribbons, one of the smoke stack stays torn out and one of her lights smashed in. The fury of the sea was simply terrific. Not only did the seas break over the vessel, fore and aft, but water was thrown into the smoke stack. At one time the boat seemed inevitably doomed. She was well handled, however, and is safe in port to-day without having sustained any material damages.

Sheriff Taylor's House Burned.

We regret to learn of a disastrous fire which occurred yesterday at Sheriff Taylor's place on Town Creek about 10 miles below the city. At about 10 o'clock in the forenoon and during the high winds which prevailed then the Sheriff's residence caught on fire from a spark which fell on the roof and the house was soon burned to the ground. Some of the furniture was saved but a large part of it was destroyed with the house. The outhouses, barns &c. escaped.

Sheriff Taylor had insurance to the amount of $1,100 on the dwelling and furniture in the Liverpool London and Globe Insurance Company, represented here by Messrs Smith & Boatwright, but we doubt if this will fully cover the loss sustained.

Supreme Court.

In this Court on Tuesday appeals from this district were disposed of as follows:

The argument in the case of McDaniel vs. Allen, from Jones, by S. W. Isler for the plaintiff and Clement Manly for the defendant, was concluded.

Brooks vs. Stevens, from Jones, argued by S. W. Isler for the plaintiff and Clement Manly for the defendant.

Russell vs. Koonce, from New Hanover, argued by T. W. Strange for the plaintiff and Batchelor and Devereux and S. W. Isler for the defendant.

Taylor vs. Seaboard Road, from New Hanover, argued by D. L. Russell for the plaintiff and T. W. Strange for the defendant.

Strange (Assignee) vs. Manning, from New Hanover, argued by T. W. Strange for the plaintiff, and D. I. Russell for the defendant.

Personal.

Mr. W. W. Larkins, of Long Creek, was in the city to-day.

Mr. J. K. James, of Holly Shelter, Pender county, was here to-day for a short time. He reports farming operations in his neighborhood as greatly retarded by the rains.

Mr. W. H. Gibson, Special Agent of the National Life and Maturity Association, left here to-day on the steamer Cape Fear for Fayetteville, where he goes in the interest of his company. Mr. Gibson has labored among our people for several weeks and has done a first rate business here for his company. We commend him to the courtesies of the good people of Fayetteville.

Maj. H. J. Barnsworth, Inspector-General U. S. Army, is in the city and is a guest at the Orton House. He is here on business connected with the U. S. Engineer's office in this city.

We are requested to state that the orator, invited guests, and foreign consuls who are to take part in the Memorial Exercises to-night, are requested to meet at the Mayor's office at 7:45 o'clock, sharp.

More Light.

The most essential thing to a buyer of clothing is plenty of light, so that he may see what he is buying. The immense stores of S. H. Fishblate are the best lighted, by day or night, of any in the city. He keeps that class of goods that stand inspection with plenty of light. No Cheap John, shoddy, or moth-eaten goods in his establishment to palm off on the public. As regards Mr. Fishblate's prices and the quality of his goods, he guarantees to give you perfect satisfaction or cheerfully refund you your money. That is the kind of a house to trade with and we advise all of our readers in want of Custom or Ready Made Tailor Made Clothing or Furnishing Goods to patronize him and you will never regret it.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 45 bales.

A CARD.

I NOTICED IN YESTERDAY AFTERNOON issue of the DAILY REVIEW a statement to the effect that good beef is scarce in this market. THIS WAS CORRECT. It is always a difficult matter to get hold of real good beef cattle at this season. It is my business, however, to purvey to the wants in this line of my friends and patrons, and hence I have used extraordinary exertions to supply these wants. I received yesterday a fine drove of LARGE, FAT CATTLE which were brought here by my special order. These cattle are from Sampson county, and is as pretty Stall-Fed Beef as you will find in a day's journey by rail. They weigh from 900 to 1,300 pounds each, and are young and in splendid condition. They will be found on my stalls to-morrow and Saturday and every day next week. Orders received in advance and prompt delivery guaranteed.
