Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use a greater costiveness.

There has been much heavy hauling in wagons of late on the turnpike and as a consequence the road is being cut up in places. The officials, however, are working hard to keep the road up to the fine standard it has always maintained and are dropping more shells into the cuts as fast as they appear.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Death of Mrs. Taylor. We regret very much to learn of the death of Mrs. S. E. Taylor, the estimable wife of Sheriff E. W. Taylor, of Brunswick county. She died last midnight and as she was lying sick in her husband's house at the time it was destroyed by fire a few days ago, and had to be removed therefrom, it is thought the shock sustained then had much to do with her death. The funeral will take place at Zion Church, on Town Creek.

St. Patrick's Day.

The Hibernian Benevolent Association celebrated St. Patrick's Day by a parade this morning from their hall, on Third street, to St. Thomas Church, where an eloquent address was delivered by Rev. Father Moore. This marks the entire observance of the day here. The fact that it invariably falls due in the Lenten season will account for the quiet manner in which it is always observed.

Mr. Pearson in Wilmington.

The Rev. R. G. Pearson reached the city last night after a fortnight's rest at Beaufort. He was met at the depot by Rev. Messrs. Primrose and Creasy and Mr. B. F. Hall, and is the guest of Mr. Hall, on Ninth and Princess streets. Mrs. Pearson is with him.

Mr. Pearson met the pastors, who propose to work with him in the meeting, at Dr. Pritchard's residence this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and after a season of prayer, in which each engaged, he gave them a talk as to the principles on which he should conduct the meeting. His church membership is in Nashville, Tenn. His wife is a Baptist, as is the wife of Mr. Moody, and she is said to be a useful assistant in the work to which Mr. Pearson has devoted his life.

The pastors were much pleased with his talk. The hours selected for services will be 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Mr. Pearson, we learn, is a minute man. Beginning at 7:30, a service of prayer and praise will be conducted by the pastors in turn for half an hour. Precisely at 8 p. m. Mr. Pearson will enter the Tabernacle and after a brief prayer, will begin to preach. Immediately after preaching, the inquirers and those who are willing to work in the inquiry room, will repair to the large warehouse, directly west of the Tabernacle, which is being fitted up as an inquiry room. A platform, five feet square, is in the centre, and the seats radiate from it in all directions. The choir will be expected to sing during the after-meeting, and a small organ will be used.

Rev. P. H. Hoge will lead the preliminary meeting to-morrow night. Mr. Pearson, with the pastors, went to look at the Tabernacle this morning and expressed himself as much pleased—says it is much the best audience room he has had in the State. He thinks he can be heard distinctly in any part of the large room.

Mr. George Chadborn has promised to have Nutt street covered with sawdust in front of the compress.

The Big Freeze in New York.

A gentleman in this city has received from his son, now in New York, a letter under date of the 14th inst., which tells largely of the terrible snow and freeze-up from which the people there have suffered. We have been kindly permitted to make use of the following portion:

We have had the worst snow storm that this city has ever been visited with. On Monday afternoon a light rain commenced falling which, during the night, turned into snow, accompanied by a very high wind. The storm continued all Monday when the snow ceased to fall, but the wind kept blowing during the whole of yesterday, drifting the snow in piles varying from three to nine feet high and stopping all travel. No means of getting about but by an occasional hack, which charges so exorbitantly that none but the rich can afford to pay the price. The roads stopped running early Monday morning. The surface roads tried to fight it out during the morning of Monday, when they were forced to suspend, and up to to-day have not commenced running. From present appearances they will not be able to resume soon, as another snow storm has now commenced, threatening to be one of considerable fall. The snow covers everything, no place less than three feet deep. And it not only covers this city but it extends for hundreds of miles outside, stopping all trains and not allowing either ingress or egress. For twenty-four hours no trains have either arrived or departed. No mails are received and none sent. In fact, we are in a sort of isolated position, even the rivers being so full of ice that the ferries are either stopped or the boats run at irregular intervals. But Yankee perseverance and pluck are at work and to-day they are building fires in the street to melt the snow, besides carting it away, hiring hands to shovel, and the pile of snow is being increased in height to such an extent that in some places it is difficult to see across the street. The suffering among the poor must have been awful, not only for food but for fuel, as no coal dealers will deliver any coal. Well-dressed people can be seen on the streets dragging coal on sleds, or carrying it in pails and bags to their homes. If the blockade continues much longer a scarcity of provisions will be experienced, which will add to the horrors of the scene and eventually lead to a riot, as even now the cry for milk can be heard, there being none but condensed milk in the city. It is a beautiful sight, but one that adds a feeling of dread as you look upon the pure white snow covering the whole town with a mantle of virgin purity.

At the Tabernacle.

A goodly number of visitors have dropped in at the Tabernacle during the past few days. Mr. Pearson will preach his first sermon there to-morrow night.

Col. Roger Moore has been appointed Chief Usher. He has selected five assistants and each of these will select a number of others from each of the churches until a sufficient number have been secured to seat the vast congregations promptly and decorously. The Chief and his five assistants have been sworn in as special policemen by the Mayor, and a detail of police will be on guard in the streets near the building during the continuance of the services.

Mr. Thos. C. Craft has furnished the seats on the rostrum, free of charge. Rev. Dr. Pritchard will deliver an address to the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church to-morrow afternoon and will afterwards administer the rite of baptism in the church.

There was a conference at the Opera House to-day relative to a street railway here but up to our close nothing definite had been determined on.

Services in St. John's Church to-morrow at 7:30 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Bishop Watson will preach on Conversion at the evening services. Mr. Geo. Harris, Jr., we are pleased to note, has so far recovered as to get abroad again.
