THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21 1888 NO 69

CONSTITIATION Called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by the Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the liver to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as—

Loss of Appetite,
 Sick Headache,
 Bad Breath, etc.
 The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels.
 The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater constiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a small quantity, as per directions, after each meal. I was surprised, as per directions, after each meal. I continued it until I took two bottles. Since then I feel that I had done me so much good that I cannot experience any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have as yet not used it, having cured me."—Geo. W.
 Sims, Asst. Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

death was entered upon his seven-tieth year.
 In June, 1846, he graduated with high honors at Wake Forest College. August 3d of the same year the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention appointed him a missionary to China, and on the 13th of the following October he was ordained to the ministry at Raleigh.

For nearly forty-five years Dr.
 Yates successfully labored in his chosen field, Shanghai being the place of his residence and the point from which his operations were conducted, and Southern Baptists for many years have regarded him as their foreign missionary.

His death is a sore bereavement to the Baptist people of the South, and an irreparable loss to the missionary work, but his character and life work will stand forever as a lasting monument of his philanthropy and greatness of soul, and a shining example to the many good people who mourn his loss.

Peculiar in medicinal merit and wonderful cures—Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to take it, for now it will do the most good.

Best shoes for boys at French &

 See the "Artful," the best rat trap known, at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Ask those who have tried and they will tell you that the Boy Clipper Pencil is the best made. Sold only at Jacob's, who is the factory agent.

Indications.
 For North Carolina, fresh to brisk Southerly winds, becoming variable and warmer followed by colder weather and rain followed by fair weather.

The Champion Compress is still at work. There is but one vessel there now awaiting a cargo and that is the Swedish barque Magnus Huff.
 The cotton season is nearly over now.

Notwithstanding the terrific rain and wind storm of this forenoon services were held in the Tabernacle and there were quite a number of ladies, as well as gentlemen, who braved the storm to attend.

The broken gutters on Second street, in front of the Currie building, are a nuisance. When it rains they throw down a veritable shower-bath all over the pavement and make walking there exceedingly disagreeable.

We misunderstood Mr. Fishblate yesterday. The $150,000 for the new public building here is not an additional appropriation, but the appropriation itself. It will be about enough to erect a new building, after paying for the site, that will be about as handsome and imposing a structure as Vanderbilt's stables.

Exports Foreign.
 Nor barque Emmeline, Bugge, cleared to-day for Wolgast, Ger., with 297,963 feet cypress timber and 18,954 feet lumber, valued at $4,303, 70, shipped by Messrs. W. Walter & Fincke, and Ger barque Charlotte and Anna, Krueger, cleared for Bristol, Eng., with 4,053 barrels rosin, valued at $4,207,30, shipped by Mr. J.
 W. Bolles.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Children's Pants for 59 Cents, Worth $1.00 I. Shrier, at No. 16 North Front street, will sell, on Wednesday only, Children's Knee Pants for 59 cents, worth $1.00.

We are now receiving daily the handsomest line of Spring and Summer Clothing ever brought to this city, and the prices of them will be from 25 to 33 per cent. lower than any other house in the State, and under no circumstances will we be undersold. I. Shrier, the Old Reliable Clothier, 16 North Front street, Purcell House; sign of the Golden Arm.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R.
 French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

Electrical Instructors.
 We thank Mr. Fishblate for a full set of unique and instructive toys which are being given out by him to purchasers of children's clothing.
 They are styled "Electrical Instructors" and are arranged so that any question of the series on a printed card which may be asked will be answered at once by the indicator.
 The series are on Grammar, History, Geography, Matrimony and Conundrums.

On the River.
 The Carolina Beach people are looking out for a big business next Summer and we believe that they will do it. They now have an agent in New York sent out from this city who has gone there for the express purpose of selecting a boat to be put on the river to run a double daily schedule in connection with the Passport. The new boat will be a large side-wheel steamer, with plenty of room on board and a fast sailer.
 In a few days we hope to tell our readers all about her.

City Court.
 Alex Sutton was before the Mayor this morning charged with an assault with a deadly weapon on Mrs.
 M. Paul. He was placed under a bond of $50 for his appearance at the Criminal Court.

Wm. Connor, disorderly, $20 or 30 days.
 John Simmons, disorderly, $10 or 20 days.
 Mary Ann Barnes, disorderly, $20 or 30 days.

James Blaney alias Bryant, discharging firearms in the city limits, judgment suspended.
 The same defendant, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, $10 or 20 days.

Criminal Court.
 The following cases were disposed of in this Court to-day: State vs. James Capot, larceny, Guilty.
 State vs. Abraham Richardson, larceny, Guilty.
 State vs. Daniel Mack, larceny, Guilty.
 State vs. Samuel Cooper, larceny, Judgment nisi.
 State vs. Willis Singletary, assault and battery. Judgment nisi.
 State vs. Cornelius Wright, alias Cornelius Bloodworth. Guilty and defendant reneged. On trial.
 State vs. Rena Pearsall. On trial.

Grace Church.
 The Sunday School room of Grace M. E. Church is so nearly completed that services will be held there on Sunday next. Last Sunday was therefore the last worship in the Temple, the refuge so kindly offered the Front street congregation at the time of the great disaster which befell them. The following lines, commemorative of the event, have been contributed to the REVIEW for publication:

O Israel's hallowed temple thou Again we at Thine altar bow, But while we strive our voice to raise
 In accents loud of prayer and praise, We are filled with joy and sadness too, Because to-day we part from you.
 For two long weary years and more Thou'st welcomed us with open door Within thy sacred courts we've found True and unselfish love abound.
 Oh! can it e'er forgotten be The day of our calamity?
 That Sabbath day that dawned so bright Brought sorrow deep and dark e'er night,
 And 'midst the ruin of that day Old Front Street Church in ashes lay.

We sat us down our loss to mourn Homeless, weary, sad and forlorn, O God! we have no friend but Thee In this our dire adversity.
 God heard our cry and felt our grief And Israel came to bring relief, No longer weep, say they, and mourn
 Our Temple now shall be thy home.
 We went and found that God was there
 And Jesus oft hath met us here:
 O, may His spirit ne'er depart But take possession of each heart To-day we take our final leave To part with thee our hearts doth grieve;
 Thy roof hath sheltered us so long It seems again like leaving home.
 To our new house our footsteps turn With joy and gratitude we burn, Forgetting the sorrows of the way That now doth end in bright'ning day.
 We'll ne'er forget our sojourn here And Israel's seed who worship thee O God! Thy blessings rich send down
 And Israel's head with glory crown.
 —A. G. Hankins.

Wilmington, N. C., March 18th, 1888

Finest shoes for ladies, wear in the Charles Dickens in Wilmington.

 As long as the English language is used to express our joys and emotions, our griefs and our pleasures, just so long will the works of the incomparable Dickens be read by the American people. But to read is one thing and to get the correct interpretation of the writer's ideas and thoughts is another. An opportunity for this latter is now at hand.
 Charles Dickens, the younger, the son of the great writer, is now in this country and he is expected to visit this city and give some of his select readings at the Opera House on Saturday afternoon. The Norfolk Virginian says of his appearance in that city:

This distinguished gentleman read the first, second and third chapters of David Copperfield and Bob Sawyer's Party before a large audience at the Academy of Music last night.
 To say that the large audience was delighted would be to express its feeling slightly—it was simply charmed. He read the chapter from the great works of his father in as beautiful a manner from an elocution-ist standpoint as possible and in a style which called forth the admiration of the audience. His success was a complete one, and he will always attract a large crowd in Norfolk.

Wind and Rain.
 This city and section was visited today with one of the most terrific storms of wind and rain that we have had here in years. The storm signal, which had floated yesterday and last night, was ordered down at midnight in a dispatch from Washington City, both here and at Morehead, but the storm raged furiously to-day. There was but little rain during the night but for an hour or more this forenoon there was a perfect downpour, accompanied by thunder and lightning. Market street, between Front and Second, was flooded and the water covered the pavement on the South side, in some instances forcing itself into the stores. Between 7 o'clock a. m. and 11 o'clock as much as 1.10 of rain fell.

At 7 o'clock this morning the storm was centered at Pittsburg, Pa., and was then moving to the Southeast.
 The barometer there at that time was very low—only 29.16. At the same hour, at Charleston and this city, the wind was blowing at the rate of 24 miles an hour. This was the highest velocity it also attained here during the night. At 11 o'clock it was blowing here at the rate of 34 miles and the storm was at its height between this hour and 2 o'clock. No damage is reported here or at Southport, at the latter place the highest velocity reported is 36 miles, with the wind from the South.

The probabilities are for clear and cooler weather to-night.

50 dozen all wool flannel shirts, in all shades and colors, for men and boys, from 75 cents and upwards,

A little engineering skill displayed on the crossing on Market street, midway between Front and Second, would let the water off in a big rain like that of this morning, and prevent the back water from filling people's stores.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 74 bales.
