WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1888

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

At the junction of Ocmulgee and Oheopee rivers in Tatnall county, Ga., in the centre of an old deserted field, stand four trees, one of them half demolished from a lightning stroke. The other three have intertwined their branches in such a manner that when seen from a distance they seem to form three gigantic figures "8." The fourth tree furnishes a figure "1," and all together, when seen from a distance, read '1888." The freak was discovered from camp meeting, and they think that during the present year either war, pestilence, or the end of the Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. world will come. The road that passes near the deserted field is now seldom used, through the fear of the Governor Lounsbury, of Connecticut, has appointed Friday next (Good Friday.) March 30th, as a day of fasting and prayer. The proclamation says: "I recommend to the people of this State that, abstaining from their usual vocations, they spend that day in penitential worship of God in their churches and private fastings and prayer at their homes. So, through that devotion which recalls the heroic self-denial of others, through that purity which follows penitence, and in that peace which follows purity, they shall the more surely preserve and transmit the rich earthly heritage which came to them through the sufferings of the fathers. So shall they be counted the more worthy to receive, as a crown to all temporal good, that blessed immortality which is the gift of God through the world's Redeemer."

A large proportion of the younger element of New York society is greatly interested in the preparations for the "Fashing Thursday in Venice" entertainment, to be given in the Metropolitan Opera House on April 11 and 12. Rehearsals of the unique dances and tableaux to be seen in this promised entertainment are being keld almost daily in pri vate residences in New York city, in Boston and in Washington. Young ladies from each of the three cities named are to take part. An Indian dance is to be given by sixty young people from Washington, under the supervision of Mrs. J. C. Black. There will also be a Greeian cymbal dance, a Venetian gondoliers' dance, and Swedish, Hungarian, Fashing and mirror dances. Some costly and dazzling costumes, will be displayed. Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew is chairman of the committee of ar-

At no other season is the body so much in need of, or so susceptible to the benefit to be derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, as now. The impoverished condition of the blood, the weakening effects of the long, cold winter, the lost appetite, and that tired feeling, all make a good spring medicine absolutely necessary. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will be convinced that it is the ideal spring medicine.

How a Dying Child Was Saved!

CICERO, HAMILTON Co., IND., Sept, 19, 1837 .-The following is a true account of what your S. S. S. has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 menths old a lump appeared on her heel, which slowly grew larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle finger and thumb of either hand became enlarged, the flesh becoming hard. The hip joints became involved, so that when seventeen months old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was wrecked, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Boston, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1886 We took the child away not knowing what to do. in this dreadful dilemma we were over-persuaded by friends to try "one bottle" of Swift's Specific, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a change for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord wills, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hazel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashen hue of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a blithe, cheerful, happy romping child. Should you wish to increase your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S. S. S., our names and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them. Kindly yours,
