WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28, 1888.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Mr Blair called up the question of the second reading of the bill introduced by him, some time since, to give preference to disabled Confederate soldiers as between men who had been disloyal, in appointments to civil office.

Without disposing of the question the Senate took up the House bill to provide for the purchase of United States bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury, the pending question being on the amendment offered yesterday by Mr. Stewart, authorizing a deposit of gold or silver bullion and the issuance of coin certificates therefor.

Mr. Reagan presented an amendment which he desired to have printed, (to be offered hereafter), authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to cancel the interest bearing bonds with a hundred millions of gold now reserved in the Treasury for the redemption of legal tender notes, and repealing that portion of the resumption act which requires the redemption of legal tender notes in coin.

Mr. Beck gave notice that he would also offer an amendment to the bill which he had introduced, on the same subject.

Mr. Palmer moved that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Finance. The motion was entered and will be pending when the bill is taken up again next week.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, called up, and the House adopted, the resolution of the Committee on Elections, in the contested election case of Worthington vs. Post, from the 10th Illinois district. The resolution confirms the right of Post, the sitting member.

Mr. Plumb, of Illinois, from the Committee on Railways and Canals, reported a bill for ascertaining the propriety and feasibility of constructing the gulf and lakes waterway. Committee of the Whole.

Other bills were reported and placed on the calendar as follows: To define and punish the offense of firing woods, grass and forests on government lands; to authorize the appointment of clerks to Senators and Representatives not chairmen of committees; for the election of Senators by legal voters of the States.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the Union Pacific Railroad funding bill.

At the expiration of the morning hour the Military Academy appropriation bill was taken up and passed, after a brief explanation by Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina.

Mr. Holman, of Indiana, called up the general public land bill.

Mr. Smith, of Wisconsin, offered an amendment providing that all the deposits of coal and iron on lands of the United States shall be reserved to the United States, and no further grants or patents from the United States shall be held to include such deposits. Mr. Smith said that the object of his amendment was that the title to coal and iron deposits should never go out of the hands of the people. No disposition was made of the amendment, and it was left pending.

Mr. Payson, of Illinois, offered an amendment providing that no patent to mineral land shall issue except to citizens of the United States. He declared that no man should be allowed to acquire title to mineral deposits unless he assumed the burdens as well as the privileges of American citizenship. Pending action the House adjourned.

Raleigh News and Observer: News was received here yesterday of the death, on Sunday, at the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, of Rev. Jacob Udley, a venerable and estimable Baptist minister. Nineteen candidates for confirmation ranged themselves in a semi-circle before the altar-rail of Christ Church Sunday morning and received that sacred rite at the hands of Bishop Lyman. At night Bishop Lyman made a visitation to the Church of the Good Shepherd and administered confirmation to ten candidates.

Prof. Charles D. McIver, of Peace Institute, has just been elected and has accepted the position of principal of the Wilson Normal School, which will be in session in July. He has already been elected and will serve as superintendent of the Sparta Normal School, the session of which

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Workman: The revival which has been going on some time in the West Market Street Methodist Church, and in the Baptist Church on Washington street, still continues. Nearly fifty professions were made in the Baptist Church last week, and seven last night. A number joined the church at each place yesterday.

Goldsboro Argus: Sheriff Smith left yesterday for Raleigh to escort to the penitentiary four prisoners, all colored, Joe Dortch, Seaberry Sasser, Ed McKinzie and Jno. Jones, who go up from this county for terms ranging from four to ten years. Dortch and Sasser are the highway robbers; they go up for ten years.

Fayetteville Journal: Rev. Martin McQueen died at his residence, in Moore county, on last Friday night. A reporter talked with a number of farmers Saturday and they say that the best part of the fruit has been killed by the freeze during last week. If no further disaster happens, there will be a fair crop of apples, and few peaches. The plums are all killed.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mr. David Ramsaur, a prominent citizen of Lincoln county, died at his home, about two miles from Lincolnton, on last Sunday evening, in his 72nd year. His death was quite sudden, though no particulars have yet been received. —Capt. J. H. Kirkland, one of the most popular passenger conductors on the Air Line road, took his train out for Atlanta last Sunday for the last time until he has rounded up his honeymoon. From Atlanta he goes on to Lonoke, Arkansas, where he is to be married to-morrow to Miss Willa Chapline, daughter of Hon. J. B. Chapline.

—News reached the city yesterday of the killing near Beaver Dam, in Union county, last Sunday, of Will Rorie, a son of Cain Rorie, colored, by a young white man named Alvin Morgan. It is said that Alvin's brother Will was accessory to the killing. The parties got into a dispute about an old debt and a fight ensued. During the melee, Alvin Morgan drew a pistol and fired upon Rorie, killing him. The Morgan boys made their escape into South Carolina. The affair occurred at a place called Five Forks, six miles from Beaver Dam. Steps are being taken to secure the arrest of the Morgan boys.

Pender County—G. A. Ramsey for the Legislature.

EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:—As time rolls on we occasionally hear the utterance of some disgruntled aspirant for office wondering or surmising who will be the candidates to fill the various offices of the county, and though we have no such characters in our county to remind us of these facts, when we remember how fast time flies, its really getting time for those who have the interest of their county at heart to begin to make these pertinent enquiries and select, if possible, those men who are most suitable and will best promote the interests of the people. Of course the political cauldron of Pender is not much agitated yet, but her people, who are ever awake and on the alert on subjects of vital importance to her interest, are beginning to feel somewhat restless, and we hear good men, who are no aspirants for office, making the same enquiry. The Democrats of Pender county are buckling on their armor and are determined upon victory in the coming campaign, and in our opinion, it is absolutely necessary, to compass this end, that we put able and aggressive men upon our ticket to represent Pender county in the next General Assembly. A great many Democrats whom I have heard express themselves with me that Mr. George A. Ramsey, of Burgaw, is the man who can bear our standard to victory. We all know that Mr. Ramsey is the happy possessor of personal magnetism in a large degree; that he is level-headed upon all of the political issues of the day, and that any man who meets him in debate will find "a foe man worthy of his steel." Now, Mr. Editor, with the peerless Stedman for Governor and Ramsey for the Legislature, you can open the doors to receiver Pender back into the Democratic fold.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27th, 1888.
MR. GEORGE D. ELDRIDGE, Sec'y.,
National Life and Maturity Association,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—In acknowledging receipt of One Thousand Dollars this day paid me, being full amount of Policy in your company on the life of my late husband, Col. Ellery C. Ford of this city, allow me to thank you and the Company for the promptness displayed in the settlement. Col. Ford died on January 1st, 1888, and proofs of loss were furnished your company on February 23d. Under date of February 24th, I received notice that check was awaiting my order, and I have this day received the amount, as stated above, being in full, without discount, although the terms of the Policy gave you ninety days in which to make payment. Such promptness and commend itself to every one and can but add to the confidence felt by the public in your institution.

Respectfully,
JULIA A. FORD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2nd, 1888.
Dear Sir:—The management of the National Life and Maturity Association of this city is, to my personal knowledge, in the hands of as good business men as there are in any city in the country, men whose names, with those who know them, are the synonym of integrity, business capacity and intelligence, and you can rest assured that they are not men who would allow their names to be thus used unless they had personal knowledge and supervision of the management of the business. Any company with which they connect their names is worthy of confidence and patronage, and this fact alone would convince me of the soundness of the National Life and Maturity even if I had not other facts to justify my confidence in it. Very truly yours,
W. P. CANADAY.

VERMILION, KY., August, 1887.
MR. W. H. GIBSON represents as Special Agent the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C. I am acquainted with the directory of this Association. They are gentlemen of the highest commercial standing. Mr. Gibson and his company are entitled to the fullest measure of confidence and consideration. Very respectfully,
J. O. C. BLACKBURN.

COVINGTON, KY., June 30, 1887.
Dear Sir:—I know several of the Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association personally, and the others I know by reputation, and I take pleasure in saying that they are gentlemen of integrity, business capacity, and good financial standing. Very truly yours,
J. G. CARLISLE.

AND SEE WHAT SENATOR VANCE SAYS:
U. S. SENATE.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2, 1888.
Dear Sir:—An intimate personal acquaintance with several members of the Board of Directors of the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C., together with a knowledge by reputation of the high business standing and character of the remaining members of the Board, enable me to say that any business enterprise managed by them will be conducted with integrity, intelligence and business sagacity. In my opinion, no company could be better entitled to the confidence and the patronage of the public than such a company. Very respectfully yours,
Z. B. VANCE.
