The Young Men's Democratic Association of New Orleans has carried its threat by placing a full municipal ticket in the field. It is headed by Ex-Mayor Joseph A. Shaké, and for mayor and General G. T. Haugreard is the nominee for commissioner of public works. The New Orleans Times-Democrat gives the ticket an enthusiastic support, against the Picayune, which supports the regular ticket, thinks the regulars will win by a decided majority.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland is going to have some pin-money. She writes to the Col. John B. Folsom estate found the Rudolf fifteen-acre farm and the McCabe lot at Folsomville, in the town of Beaufort, N. C., unproductive and running down. One of the heirs at law, who are lawyers, made application to the courts for the sale of the same, for which they had an offer of $750. Mrs. Cleveland receives an eighth of the amount less the costs.

Henry L. Levy, a young New Yorker not yet 30 years of age, was Wall street messenger boy a year ago. He had received a public school education in New York city and from his earlier years had shown wonderful artistic talent. Last year Levy sailed for France and became an art student. He aspired to a scholarship in l'Ecole des Beaux-Arts, the famous school supported by the French Government. His ambition seemed to his friends in this country to be ridiculous. Out of 340 aspirants, however, some of whom were mature artists, Levy not only stood among the eighty who were admitted to the school, but won first place over all competitors. He obtained the highest reward for drawing from life. His success makes him art pupil of the French Government until he is thirty.

It is a pleasure to record that the church militant has recently administered a sound drubbing to the rabid slave stealers who late last winter attacked a Scottish Free Church Mission on Lake Nyassa. The good men who went to Africa to preach peace and love thought the cause could be promoted if they strapped their muskets for a little while, and, with a few white men from trading company and their native allies, they marched against the slave and stormed and burned their stockade village. This unexpected conduct on the part of the missionaries is said to have so greatly demoralized the Arabs that no further trouble is expected from them. The missionaries are to be congratulated on the results of their present action.

The board of directors of the Southwestern Presbyterian University has unanimously given to the chair of theology the name of "The Palmer professorship," in honor of the Rev. Dr. B. M. Palmer, of New Orleans. The name was assigned to the chair in deference to the wishes of the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church, of which Dr. Palmer is the pastor. About $15,000 is needed to complete the endowment of the chair, and the ladies of the church have determined to raise the sum.

Messrs. S. A. Schloss & Co. propose having a big sale to-night at their salesrooms on Market street, Dawson's old stand.

Baptism.
The ordinance of baptism will be administered by the pastor at the First Baptist Church immediately after the morning sermon of to-morrow. The Rev. G. M. Tolson will baptize in the same church at 5 p. m.

The Children.
Rev. Mr. Pearson, in his services yesterday afternoon to the children, used for his text, "What think ye of Christ?" He would not tell them its location in the Bible but requested them to search for it and to find it themselves, which a goodly number of the children all over the city did with success, thus following the command to "search the Scriptures."

The Odd Fellows.
At a regular meeting of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., held Tuesday night Mr. N. Jacobi was elected representative to the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., and on Wednesday night, Mr. J. L. Dudley was elected representative from Orion Lodge, No. 67. The Grand Lodge meets the second Tuesday in May at Raleigh and the above named representatives, with Mr. R. J. Jones, the Grand Treasurer, will be in attendance from this city.

The Light Infantry.
The Board of Audit and Finance and the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, at their conference yesterday afternoon, agreed upon an appropriation of five hundred dollars for the Wilmington Light Infantry, in recognition of the valuable services rendered by the company on many occasions, and in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen at their last meeting, as published recently in the DAILY REVIEW.

Incidental to the Great Revival.
A few days since one of our popular Water street merchants, a young man and a bachelor, received a present of a bible from a young lady friend. He has since kept the sacred volume on a shelf in his store where it is not only ready at hand for use, but where its presence may serve as a reminder. He has made an agreement with his clerk that not one improper word shall be said in the presence of the Book and they are going to stick to it and make their customers stick to it too.

A Safe Investment.
Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised Druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to give relief in every case, when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe and can always be depended upon.
Trial bottles free at Wm. H. Green's Drug Store.

To-Night.
The Lilly Clay Gaiety Company will treat the boards at the Opera House to-night. The Louisville Courier-Journal says of them:

We know what an opera de camera is now. It was revealed last night at the beautiful theatre of our Musical Union before an overwhelming audience by Lilly Clay's Colossal Gaiety Company. It is called "The Little Devil's Revel" because in plot it represents an utopian government of women—a solitary Adam displays his duds in this bower of loveliness. An opera de camera is evidently a scene of female revelry where mirth, dance, song, and beauty hold high carnival—where lovely figures robed in exquisite dresses reign supreme. Who among the hundreds present last evening will ever forget the dreamy beauty of that charming and deliciously graceful series of dainty evolutions called the "Stephanie Gavotte"? We never before knew what a "Gavotte" really was. We know now. We want more. And when the superb chorus in unison chant the melodious strain

"And lo! a new thing in the sight of the sun,
We've had 'The Little Devil's Revel.'
everybody is satisfied of the absolute truth of the assertion. It is right there before us. But they have gone away—Lilly Clay and all her pretty girls—to ventilate their sweetness before other crowded houses and make other hearts happier and other pulses beat quicker. When they come back to Louisville they will meet with a monumental ovation. Opera de camera, as developed in "The Little Devil's Revel," is just what this city wants.

How His Influence is Felt.
It has been remarked that the quiet and good order of the city have been extraordinary since the Pearson meetings have been in progress. At night the streets are almost entirely deserted, except during the time when the throngs may be seen going to the meetings or returning from them. The young men have deserted their usual places of resort, the clubs and pool rooms are deserted and the parlor seances—well, those have dwindled to the few moments when the young man awaits his best girl's appearance, ready bonneted and hooded, for attendance on the meetings of the great revivalist and the few moments that are allowed him in which to say good night. Such is the wonderful power which this truly wonderful man exerts here over all classes of our people, of every distinction and of every grade in life.

The New Boat.
The new steamer spoken of by the REVIEW some weeks ago as having been agreed upon by the Carolina Beach Co. for use on the river this Summer is the Sylvan Grove, a handsome double-deck boat, which has been well known to excursionists in and about New York harbor of recent years. She is licensed for 600 passengers but has carried 800. She will run between Wilmington and Southport and it is said that she will make the trip in an hour and a half. She is handsomely furnished, and has ample and commodious accommodations for passengers. She has been considered one of the most pleasant boats of her class in Northern waters, and one of the swiftest and safest. She is to be commanded by Capt. John W. Harper, who will leave here with his crew about the 20th of this month to bring her here. She will probably begin the Summer schedule early in May.

The Indications hit it right this time—all but the rain. Last night during the night it was very warm, a result, perhaps, of an electrical display then in progress and this morning, at "getting-up time" it was cool enough for fires.

Mr. Geo. S. Willis has been appointed delegate from the lodges of this city to the meeting of the High Tent, I. O. R., to be held in Philadelphia on May 22d. Mr. W. F. Hewitt is alternate.

There have been some twenty-five or thirty visiting ministers at the Pearson meetings and they all, with one single exception, pronounce him the most remarkable preacher they have ever heard.

There will be a Saturday night sale at the store No. 11 Market street, where Mr. Ricaud, the assignee, is selling off a big stock of goods. See ad. in this issue.

Diocesan Convention.
The Convention of the Diocese of East Carolina will be held in St. John's Church, Fayetteville, commencing on Wednesday, May 23d. The following is a list of delegates and alternates from the churches in this city:

ST. JAMES'.
Delegates—Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Col. W. L. DeRosset, Col. John W. Atkinson, William Calder, Alternates—Clayton Giles, Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, T. W. Strange, Hon. A. M. Waddell.

ST. JOHN'S.
Delegates—Gabriel Holmes, Berry Gleaves, H. G. Smallbones, R. E. Heide, Alternates—A. H. Greene, Richard Chapman, J. C. Morrison, Dr. W. W. Harris.

ST. PAUL'S.
Delegates—J. J. Hedrick, Jr., Wm. H. Bernard, W. P. Elliott, DuB. Cutlar, Sr. Alternates—Hon. Geo. Davis, and Messrs. L. J. Poisson, R. H. Pickett and W. G. McRae. The report from St. Marks has not yet been handed in.

Merit Wins.
We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Wm. H. Green, Druggist.

A New Truck.
The Board of Audit and Finance, at their meeting yesterday afternoon, approved an appropriation of $2,000 for the purchase of a new truck for Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1. That now in use, although in perfect order, is not large enough and lacks many essential improvements. It was purchased by the company several years ago at a cost of $900.

Memorial Day.
The Ladies Memorial Association has invited Rev. Robert Strange to act as Chaplain on Memorial Day, and he has accepted it. Mr. E. P. Boatwright will have charge of the music for the occasion. We hope to announce the name of the orator in a few days. The ladies are already busy making their preparations. As everybody knows, or ought to know, the 10th of May is Memorial Day here.

City Court.
Frank Capps was before the Mayor this morning, charged with disordered conduct. Judgment $20 or 30 days.
Charley Sinclair, for blockading the street, was fined $5 or 10 days.
Robert McClarity, a tramp, was ordered discharged.

The new drinking fountain ordered by Mayor Fowler recently from Pa-tucket, R. I., has arrived and will be placed in position on Monday. It will be located at the Northeast corner of Market and Front streets, exactly where the lamp post now stands. It is arranged so that ice can be used if desired.

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday School at 3 p. m. Seats are all free and a cordial invitation is extended to any desirous of worshipping there.

An effort will be made to save the 750 tons of railroad iron on the schooner Douglas Hovey, wrecked on Frying Pan Shoals. Prompt action will be necessary as it is said that the quick sand on the shoals soon swallows its prey.

"Eternal Torment" is the subject to be discussed by Elder J. P. King at the Advent Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Schr. Addie G. Bryant, Captain Bartlett, cleared to-day for Port-au-Prince with 230,000 feet of lumber, valued at $2,805, shipped by Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop.

Mr. Jno. D. Williams, Jr., Statistical Clerk at the Custom House, has resigned that position and Mr. Joshua G. Wright has been appointed to the vacancy.

A fast freight and trucking schedule will go into effect on the A. C. Line next Monday. The run will begin at Savannah and end at New York. It will make the trip from Wilmington to New York in 32 hours and 15 minutes.

The steam tug Alexander Jones, Capt. Harper, will tow the dry dock to Southport to-day where a tug is waiting to take it away down South in Dixie.

At St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church to-morrow German services will be held at 11 a. m., and English service at 8 p. m.

The closing sorree of Prof. Belezza's dancing classes, at Germania Hall last night, was a pleasant and eventful occasion.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Produce Exchange will be held on Tuesday next at noon.

The steam tug Marie took a party of ladies and gentlemen to the Rocks this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson were among the guests.

Mr. W. M. Hays has been appointed health officer to fill a vacancy.
