An Atlanta man, who is a preacher and an editor, was sent to jail the other day for contempt of court. He had been called as a juror, but re-swearing was wrong and contrary to the teachings of the Bible.

A Woman's Discovery.
"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutch upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for a Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs.

them being again in attendance.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by light rains, nearly stationary temperature, and light to fresh winds, generally easterly.

Mr. C. H. Robinson, of this city, Grand Master in North Carolina, has called a special Communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons at Morehead City on Tuesday, May 1st, 1888, to lay the corner stone of the Teachers' Assembly building.

A slight error in yesterday's issue needs correction. We understand that Capt. Weeks is to have nothing to do with the running of the new mail boat between this city and Southport. Mr. Richard Doshier has the contract for the mail and he will put on the boat.

Mr. Preston Cumming has been designated by the Ladies' Memorial Association as Chief Marshal for Memorial Day and he has accepted the appointment. The names of his aids will be announced in a few days.

There is an exhibition at Heinsberger's to-day several large photographs taken by Mr. Cronenberg, one of them, a view of Market street near Front, being particularly clear and distinct.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met last night at the City Hall.
Those present were Mr. R. J. Jones (chairman), and Messrs. Wm. Calder, W. I. Gore and John W. Hewitt.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The bond of J. W. Perdew, standard keeper, with W. M. Poisson and H. Vollers as sureties, was approved.

The bill of Burr & Bailey, amounting to $575, for repairs to the Opera House, was approved.

Bills covering current expenses amounting to $512.65 were audited and approved.

Sinking fund $15.11.

Before adjournment the Board met in consultation with the Chairman of the Aldermanic Committee, to arrange the tax assessments for the coming fiscal year. The assessments of the various business was agreed upon, but no final action was taken, as the matter comes first before the Board of Aldermen.

The general assessments will be increased in order to meet the increased taxation incurred by reason of the subscriptions voted to the railroads.

Ger barque Emilie, Schultz, cleared to-day for Trinidad, with 25,000 shingles and 305,000 feet of lumber, valued at $5,137, shipped by Mr. E.
Kidder's Son.

The readers of the New York Star are agitated on the following query:
"If a hen and a half lay an egg and a half in a day and a half how many eggs will six hens lay in seven days?" There was nearly a column of answers in Sunday's issue of the Star.
How many of our readers can solve it correctly?

Big Fruit Farms.

The country round about Burgaw will soon be famous for its big fruit orchards. We have spoken previously of Mr. J. T. Collins' fruit farm and we now learn that Mr. W. T.
Bannerman has a young orchard in which there are 1,300 fine fruit trees.
These are about three years old and they promise a fine yield this year as nearly all of them will bear this season. The peach crop around Burgaw promises unusually well.

Established Facts.

It is an established fact that I.
Shrier sells fine Custom Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Gent's Furnishing Goods, 25 per cent. lower than any other house in the city. His large increase in sales shows that the public appreciate the same. A saving of 25 per cent. guaranteed.

The Military Encampment.

Raleigh News and Observer: Our hospitable old sister town of Wilmington is making arrangements to entertain the State Guard in grand style at the approaching encampment at Wrightsville. It is expected that the encampment will be a magnificent success in every respect and all preparations necessary to make it so are on foot. The various military companies of the State will turn out in full force and we shall expect the Governor's Guard to outshine all others on that occasion.

Personal.

Mr. W. T. Bannerman, of Burgaw, is in the city to-day, en-route for Columbia, S. C., where he goes on a short business trip.

Rev. Mr. Pearson returned from Orton this morning on the steamer Louise greatly refreshed by his stay there. He has proved himself an expert fisherman. He caught yesterday eight beautiful trout.

Capt. Jas. N. Macomber, of Harnett township, is in the city to-day and he says that the people of his section are in good spirits and hopeful of good crops this year.

We were pleased to receive a visit this morning from our esteemed friend, Mr. Daniel Robinson, of the Black river section of Sampson county, who is in the city on a brief visit.

Mr. E. A. Hawes, of Point Caswell is in the city to-day. From him we learn that the corps of surveyors for the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. are now near Point Caswell and that the line when it crosses Moore's Creek will be laid straight for this city.

A Long Tramp for a Small Boy.

A little fellow ten years of age arrived here recently all alone from Jacksonville, Fla., he having walked nearly all of the way. His name is Willie Gerken and he is the son of Mr. W. H. Gerken, formerly a well known citizen of this place but now a resident of Jacksonville. Little Willie was very anxious to see his relatives here and on several occasions informed his parents that he was bound to make the trip. With this end in view he saved up his pennies and sure enough, one day, he slipped off from home and started on a long tramp to Wilmington. He had but $2.50 in money and this he managed to eke out with on his journey. He got a lift here and there but walked most of the way. He paid for some of his food but generally it was given him. The little fellow eventually turned up all right here, where he was expected as his parents had written that he had disappeared and his relatives here were on the look-out for him.
It was a long tramp for anyone, and especially for a little boy only ten years old. But Willie was a naughty boy to leave his home in this manner and "hadn't order have done it."

Notes About the Lutherans.

The Church Council of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church met to-day at 4 p. m. to transact its regular quarterly business and to elect a delegate to the next convention of the N. C. Synod, which meets in St.
James' Lutheran Church, Concord, N. C., on May 3d. Rev. F. W. E.
Peschau is President of the Synod.
A German Lutheran church was dedicated at Ridgeway, Warren Co., N. C., two weeks ago. At Ridgeway there is a German settlement which was made by the Seaboard Railroad through the German Immigration Board of New York City.

The Lutherans in the kingdom of Saxony, Germany, last year raised the sum of $600,000 to aid the poor and needy. This was independent of all other contributions towards the work of the Church, as ministers, missions, etc.

The Lutheran ladies of our city are already speaking of the crowning of the "May Queen," which they usually have once a year, in Luther Memorial building.

Southport and Cincinnati.

Our friends in Brunswick county will read with much interest the following, which we clip from the Charlotte Chronicle, it appearing in that paper in the shape of a correspondence from Salisbury, under date of the 14th inst:

Our citizens were pleased yesterday morning to hear that the South Atlantic & North Western railroad was not a dead issue, and that Col.
Bilheimer had not forsaken the building of the road. It was reported that he was in Albermarle and he was looking for in the afternoon at this place, accompanied by an English gentleman, who was representing London capital. On their arrival in town our citizens made arrangements to meet them at the Boydson House and enquire their wants. Upon enquiry it was found that these gentlemen were going by private conveyance over the entire route from Southport to Bristol, calculating the cost of building the road, enquiring as to what the road might expect as to freights, both received and shipped, and everything else that might be of interest to the road. Mr. Austin, of London, Eng., was introduced by Col. Bilheimer, assuring our people that he was perfectly satisfied as to what he had seen and heard along the route, and feel sure that the road will be built as all his company wanted was an assurance that they would get their interest on the cash invested, and he felt satisfied and would recommend the investment. They left this morning for Mocksville and Wilkesboro, and will go on to Bristol, Tenn. The building of this road will open the finest country in North Carolina, and shorten the distance to the sea coast by many miles, and will soon be the best paying route in the South. Every county along the line will very rapidly renew their subscriptions and aid all they can to push the road to completion.

So if Salisbury gets to the sea coast and the West before Charlotte does to Weldon, don't be jealous of us. As it is no mistake our people have turned their back on the past and are taking rapid strides to a prosperous future. We don't parade our intentions to the public, but when we are ready we put up the cash and the wheels roll. Soon the cry will be at our depot on the arrival of the present system. "Change cars for Cincinnati and Southport."

Very Good Reasons.

The reasons why you can be benefited by buying from the King Clothier, S. H. Fishplate: You are in a Reliable House. A large assortment to choose from. A saving of 20 per cent. All goods steam sponged, Exclusive styles sold by him only.
All goods guaranteed sewed with silk.
His stores are well lighted by day and night and you can see what you are buying, plenty of light being the most essential thing for buyers of Clothing. If you are not satisfied with any article purchased from Fishplate's return the same and he will cheerfully refund you your money. With the above plainly before you how can you refuse to trade with a house of that kind.

Last Sunday at the Lutheran Church.

Three times last Sunday St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was filled with very large congregations.
Not only were all the pews down stairs occupied, but also those in the gallery, and in two of the services some stood in the vestibule.

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, the pastor, preached two sermons, the morning sermon being on eternal punishment, the night sermon on the nature of eternal punishment.

The attendance upon the funeral services of the late Mr. A. Lessman was unusually large. The singing of the choir in the various services was very appropriate and fine. The Lutherans have, no doubt, one of the best choirs in our city. Some who cannot understand German have attended German services to hear the sweet music rendered by the choir.

This church was never in a better condition than now. We understand they will soon celebrate the 30th anniversary of the organization of the congregation. Mr. Peschau is greatly beloved by his congregation and admired by all with whom he comes into contact. He preaches a good sermon and he never preaches on any subject without having first thoroughly mastered all of the leading arguments in relation to it. His enunciation is clear and distinct and every syllable is plainly uttered. So perfect and unimpeachable is his accent that few would imagine him to be a German born and bred.
Indeed, it is difficult to convince some of this fact.

Superior Court.

The Superior Court has been engaged nearly all day in trying the civil suit of E. S. Jaffray & Co vs. Sol. Bear et al. There is a brilliant array of legal talent engaged. It is likely that the case will take up all of tomorrow as well as to-day.
