Superior Court adjourned for the term late Saturday evening.
Fluting machines for less than factory prices at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

School Books and School Stationery you can buy cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Something new in the shape of a Stepladder at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

The Southwest cautionary signal was displayed to-day but the wind does not blow as it did yesterday, when no signal was shown.

Mocking Bird Cages. A large stock of assorted sizes which are to be had at very low prices at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Mr. Herbert McClammy has accepted an invitation extended to him by the Ladies' Memorial Association to deliver the address on Memorial Day.

Second Lieutenant D. P. Foley has been detached from the revenue cutter Cofax and ordered to the cutter on duty at Portland, Me., which is under the command of that clever gentleman, Capt. Frank Barr, so well known to many of our people.

For North Carolina warmer threatening weather with rain, followed this afternoon and night by falling temperature, fresh to brisk, and on the coast brisk to high, Westerly winds, shifting to Northeasterly.

Soundward the star of empire takes its way. Three miles of road are now completed and we are assured that it will all get there by the first of June, at the latest. The second cargo of rails is expected to leave Philadelphia to-day and the vessel has been chartered for the third and last cargo.

Maj. John W. Cameron, of Washington City, is here on a brief visit. Mr. J. H. Vollers, of Nichols, S.C., is here and will remain for several days.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. M. Judge is seriously sick and confined to his bed.
We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. T. Daggett, who has been very ill for some days past, is reported to-day as no better.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The reasons why you can be benefited by buying from the King Clothier, S. H. Fishblate: You are in a Reliable House. A large assortment to choose from. A saving of 20 percent. All goods steam-sponged. Exclusive styles sold by him only. All goods guaranteed sewed with silk. His stores are well lighted by day and night and you can see what you are buying, plenty of light being the most essential thing for buyers of clothing. If you are not satisfied with any article purchased from Fishblate's return the same and he will cheerfully refund you your money. With the above plainly before you how can you refuse to trade with a house of that kind.

Mr. Pearson in Asheville.
The Asheville Sun says: Rev. R. G. Pearson, the evangelist, arrived in the city last evening and is stopping with Mr. Robert U. Garrett. He will rest here until the first Sunday in May, at which time he will commence a series of meetings in the Farmers' Warehouse in this city. His meetings everywhere have been crowned with success in bringing souls to God, and we sincerely hope great good may result from his visit to Asheville.

The Reason Why.

Laid to Rest.
The funeral services over the remains of Capt. John Hewlett, of Masonboro, took place yesterday afternoon at Masonboro Baptist Church. The services were conducted by Rev. D. C. Kelley, the pastor of the church. There was a very large attendance, both from the city and the sound. The pallbearers were Messrs. Louis Todd, Richard Farrow, George Harper, William Huhn, Benjamin Farrow and James Walton. The patriarch was laid to rest in the churchyard near the church, of which he had been for more than half a century one of the most consistent members.

City Court.
Before the Mayor this morning H. Atkinson was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 or 20 days.
Bosen Jenkins, disorderly, $5 or 10 days. In consideration of the ten years of this offender against the peace and dignity of the city the fine was remitted and judgment suspended on condition that the parents of the boy give him a sound, substantial thrashing.

E. O. Penny, for resisting a police officer in the discharge of his duty, was fined $20 or 30 days.

Let's Make a Note of It.
There are a great many who assert that the moon has no effect whatever on the weather and there are others, the old farmers especially, who say that it has. Herschelle has decidedly agreed with the latter. The farmers say that an early full moon in April makes an early Spring and a late full moon in that month a late Spring. This year the moon falls on the 26th and the season is backward. They say, furthermore, that there is always a possibility of frost until after the full moon, when all danger is past. Now let us see how the full moon on Thursday and the weather will agree. We prophecy warm, fair Spring weather and a glorious day, on Sunday next.

A Well Managed Fire.
The big fire last night was exceedingly well managed. The wind was blowing at the time about half a gale, and from the Southwest. Had it gotten out there would doubtless have been another fearful disaster to record as a large part of the business centre would have been in its track. But our gallant firemen were equal to the task. From the moment that the flames burst from the skylight to that when the fire was thoroughly under control was not more than ten minutes. Some place it at five minutes. Many stout hearts quaked when they saw the fiery tongues leaping up to the sky and knew what inflammable material there was near at hand for the flames to feed upon but this fear soon gave place to a feeling of joyful security as our dauntless firemen carried their pipes to the top of the burning building and tearing off the blazing frames of the skylight poured in a perfect deluge of water upon the flames below. What this good work of the fire department means can be best estimated when it is understood that the wind was blowing even harder than it did on one other eventful Sunday, that of February 21st 1886.

The Storm Signal—Up and Down.
About 12 o'clock last night instructions were received here to hoist the cautionary Southwest signal, which was done. A storm was reported central in Kentucky, moving East. At that time the indications for this morning were Southerly winds, with rain, shifting during the day to Northerly, with colder, clearing weather. The signal was also ordered for Morehead and section. To-day at 10:25 a. m. they were ordered down. At that time the storm centre was on the Virginia coast moving to the East. The assertion that the winds would shift to Northerly to-day was repeated in this order.

The Fire Last Night.
About 9 o'clock last night the alarm of fire was sounded from box 24 which is for Market and Water streets. It was found to proceed from Mr. John Werner's barber shop, on the North side of Market street, one door West of Front. It seems to have caught on the second floor of the shop, and in the rear. The cause is unknown. As soon as possible the various members of the fire department were on the scene, the Atlantic getting on the first stream. At one time a serious conflagration was threatened but the boys worked hard and soon had the flames under control, confining them to the store in which it originated, which was completely gutted. Mr. R. R. Bellamy's drug store, on the corner, was damaged considerably by water, but not much by fire, as was also the case with Mr. J. Elsbach at the shirt factory just West of the barber shop, part of whose stock was removed, the balance being damaged by water. Mr. Greenwald's cigar store, just North of Mr. Bellamy's drug store, was also somewhat damaged by water on the upper floor.

The entire losses are variously estimated at from $4,000 to $5,000, which is all covered by insurance. Mr. Werner was insured for $600 in the Fire Association of Philadelphia, Messrs. Atkinson & Manning agents. The building Mr. Werner occupied is owned by Mrs. C. A. Fulton and Mrs. E. A. Wright. Mrs. Fulton's half was insured for $1,000, with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright, in the Virginia Fire and Marine; on Mrs. Wright's half there was no insurance. Mr. Elsbach's stock was insured with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright for $500 in the Scottish Union and National, and also with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, in the London Assurance Corporation, for $1,200. This building is owned by Messrs. T. W. Strange, Robert Strange and J. H. Strange, and is insured with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, in the Home of New York for $1,500. Mr. Robert R. Bellamy has $4,000 on his stock, with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, distributed as follows: Springfield, of Massachusetts, $1,400; Lancashire, of England, $1,600; Germania, of New York, $1,000. The building occupied by Mr. Bellamy is owned by Mr. R. H. McKoy and is insured for $2,000 in the Insurance Company of North America, represented here by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

Initiating New Members.
The big horse fountain on lower Market street was put to a new use last night, one which was probably not designed by those who erected it there. The Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. have recently taken in five or six new members and after the fire was out and the truck called off it was determined to initiate them. One by one, therefore, despite their struggles and resistance, they were taken up by some of the older members and gently lowered into the tank. The biggest man in the company, who was also one of the recruits, was the last experimented upon and as he displaced about a ton of water when he got inside, making it overflow at the top, they were forced to suspend proceedings.

The Minstrels are Coming.
The posters for the McNish, Johnson & Slavin troupe are up and they certainly attract a fair share of attention. As this will probably be the last theatrical entertainment here this season so we believe that it will prove one of the best. They will play here one night only, next Saturday. The box sheet will be open at Heinsberger's on Friday morning.

The steam yacht Thyra, which has been lying at Southport for nearly a week, came up to the city to-day and is now anchored in the river. She is schooner rigged, painted white and attracts much attention.

We booked to-day 14 new subscribers for the DAILY REVIEW in this city, 6 on Saturday and 2 on Friday. And they are all good men and true, nearly all of them having paid in advance.

The surveying corps of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. were engaged to-day in running experimental lines about the city, to see how they can best get in and to the water front. After that they will run another line to Fayetteville and it is expected that the work of construction will begin some time in June.

The Wrecked Austrian Brig.
Late Saturday evening the captain of the wrecked Austrian brig came up again to the city and this time reported to Col. John W. Atkinson, agent of the Underwriters. It was learned that the vessel is the Va, Capt. Capponi, and that she was bound from Kingston, Jamaica, to Trieste, with the cargo as stated by us Saturday, of logwood, rum, coffee, &c. The brig is ashore near Queen's Inlet, in about 12 feet of water, and is fast breaking up. Some of the cargo has already been gotten out of her and more will be saved, but probably the larger part of it will prove a total loss. Mr. J. M. Cronly, Deputy Collector, left here to-day overlaid for the scene and will take charge of such of the cargo as may be saved. It will be loaded there on a small coasting vessel and sent round to this port. It is understood that both vessel and cargo are insured at Genoa. The former is valued at about $2,500 and the latter at $27,000, but what kind of a brig it was that was worth only $2,500 it is hard to understand.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
At a meeting of the Pender County Board of Education, held at Burgaw, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, The soul of our beloved associate, EDWIN FENNEL, has been called from earth to heaven triumphantly through the inscrutable wisdom and compassionate mercy of God, be it therefore
Resolved, That the Board of Education has lost its most trusted and efficient member, the living generation a staunch, unflinching friend, his country a generous, noble, useful citizen and his family a head unsurpassed in tenderness and love.
And, That we emulate his virtues, cherish his worthy example of earnest life, manly, with deep, abiding sense, his untimely loss, and yet rejoice to enroll his name with those of our loved and sacred dead who have been called to their eternal rest, to change the cross for that glorious crown which awaits the pure in heart.
And, That a blank page of our Record be inscribed with his name.
And, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, to whom we tender our most earnest sympathies.
And, That the same be sent to the REVIEW and Messenger for publication.
