as second-class matter A special cable dispatch to the New York Sun from Berlin, under date of May 3d, says: "While the Emperor is quietly sinking, the doctors continue to squabble. Prof. Bergmann is a distinguished surgeon, and his anger against Dr. Mackenzie is so great that his followers and friends are all in full hue and langer. cry. Bergmann is a man of irascible temper. I learn from private sources that at a dinner party last night he said Dr. Mackenzie was beneath his contempt as a surgeon, and that his failure with the Emperor would prove it. Mackenzie, it must be said in common justice, has proved anything but a failure. It is only a doctor's quarrel now, but it is constantly spreading. The crowd around the Emperor's palace is increasing, as he grows worse. A disturbance was caused by a man who asserted that the British doctors were injuring the Emperor today. The man was arrested. Ignatius Donnelly's "Great Cryptogram" has been published in Lonceived with derision. The Standard, in a long review, shows plainly that author of his own story, arbitrarily selecting his words and then bewildering the reader with a reticulation of figures to make a semblance of justification for them. The Standard and other papers treat with much respect the literary argument against Shakespeare's authorship as a solid and conscientious piece of criticism, containing indeed nothing new, but the old matter very strongly arranged. One of Donnelly's points against Shakespeare's character is ruined, however, by the opportune announcement of Charles Athill Bluemantle pursuivant at arms in the Heralds' College, that he has examined the papers relating to the grant of the Shakespeare arms, and finds that a patent was undoubtedly issued to John Shakespeare, father it, 1500 at Philadelphia, large classes of of the poet, in 1596, upon his established at Yale, Wellesley, lishment of the fact that his social position warranted the issue. Donnelly had charged fraud upon Shakespeare in the use of arms.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "A significant fact in American polities is the melting away of the enormous Republican majorities in the great States of the Northwest. For many years these majorities ranged in several of these States from fifty to one hese instruments, but the Mason & Hamlin hundred thousand. In 1880 Senator Conkling, at the Chicago Convention, when Blaine's nomination was advocated by a Michigan delegation, said 'anybody,' meaning, of course, any Republican, 'can carry Michigan.' So it was at that time. Michigan had frequently given sixty and seventy thousand Republican majority. In 1884, only four years later, Michigan was saved to the Republican party by a beggarly majority of three thousand, and only because the Vice Presidential candipurity and refinement of tone, together date, Gen. Logan, traversed the Senses of Taste and State on the eve of the election, and smell. made the most earnest personal ap-Mones to his Grand Army friends. Northwestern Democrats really believe Democratic chances for 1888 are good in Michigan, Wisconsini Minnesota and even in Illinois. Re- 235 Greenwich St., New York. publican politicians of course deny this, but it is wonderful to note how cautious they are in making estimates of the results. A Western Senator, a Republican Presidential candidate, said to-day, in the course of conversation on political prospects in the West, that he thought the Republicans could carry Illinois by ten thousand and Michigan and Wisconsin by five thousand each. As he was not talking for publicathe Republicans a fearfully narrow margin in these States, which 'anybody could carry' so short a time back."

The importance of purifying the blood can not be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Peculiar Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla pecul-iar curative powers. No To Itself other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. Impurities in the blood produce diseases. Bodily and mental health depend upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood, particularly in the spring and during the hot summer months, becomes clogged with impurities, which poison it and generate disease. A harmless blood purifier, without a particle of mineral poison in it, such as mercury or potash, is necessary to remove these impurities and to restore the healthy tone of mind and body. The best purifier and tonic known to the world is Swift's Specific (S.S.S.). In regard to its wonderful purifying and tonic powers we give a few testimonials as

Mr. Wm. A. Siebold, with Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce Street, New York, writes March 29th, 1883: "I feel it my duty, for the benefit of others who may be afflicted as I was, to write you this letter, which you can use as my testimony in any way you choose, I will answer any inquiry from others in relation to the facts herewith stated. In February last I suffered great pain and inconvenience from boils, all over my neck; I could not turn my head without acute pain and my blood was in poor condition. After trying all the usual remedies in such cases, and finding no relief, by the persuasion of Mr. J. W. Fears, Manager of your New York Office, I used one bottle S. S. S, and I improved rapidly and very soon I was entirely relieved of my "Job's Comforters." Now not a sign of my affliction can be seen. I feel strong and cheerful. S. S. S. is a fine tonic as proved in my case. I sleep soundly and my appetite is good.

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a well-known physician writes from Ellaville, Georgia: "I use S. S. S. in convalescent fever cases with the best results. It will, in my judgment, prevent summer dysentery, if one will take a few bottles in the spring, thus preparing the bowels for the strains of summer."

Mrs. Scott Liston, 116 Zane street (Island), Wheeling, West Virginia, writes: "Having used S. S. S. for the blood, I can safely say that it beats anything I have used to cleanse the blood and make a new being out of a per-

Mr. M. S. Hamlin, Winston, N. C., writes: "I use it every spring. It always builds me up, giving me appetite and digestion, and enabling me to stand the long, trying, enervating hot summer days. On using it I soon become strong of body and easy of mind." Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed
