The State mineralogist reports that California last year produced $12,962,928 in ores and bullion.
The expenses of living in the city of New York may be conjectured from a remark in the Mail and Express that a man on an income this side of $5,000 finds the country healthier than the city.
The golden rose sent by Pope Leo to Miss Caldwell will be ceremoniously presented to that lady at the laying of the corner stone of the Catholic University in Washington, D. C. on the 24th inst.
An immense iron pipe is being laid connecting the oil fields of Pennsylvania with the city of Chicago. The pipe will be eight inches in diameter and 210 miles long, and will require 14,000 barrels of oil to fill it. The largest pump ever made has just been completed to force the oil through the pipe.
Mr. W. C. Chamberlain, the wealthy Texas ranch man, who went to Paris to be treated by Pasteur for hydrophobia caused by a wolf bite, has returned completely cured. He is a firm believer in Pasteur and says that he owes his life to him. When he left Paris the total number of patients treated by Pasteur was 6,500.
Mrs. John Sherwood, who is a mistress of deportment, repudiates the etiquette which demands that a lady should bow to a gentleman before he can presume to bow. She says it is an English custom, which has no rights that society in America is bound to respect.
The use of brownstone in building business structures is almost entirely discontinued in New York. It is used for dwellings, but its chief employment is for window and door trimmings. Wherever it forms building material, it is massed with the most plainness and simplicity.
Capital Commissioner Isaac G. Berry, of New York, has estimated that $24,545 will be needed to properly repair the $17,000,000 Capitol at Albany. It is likely that $350,000 will be voted for that purpose by the Assembly at its present session. Lobbyists think that $423,000 should be used; that they urge, being well blot out all that has been done of the originally splendid paintings of the late William M. Hunt, of Albany.
Eighty-eight Michigan counties were voted under the local option law, and all but two of them have voted for prohibition shall prevail for the next three years. The legislature blunderingly provided for prohibition counties the same tax law should be suspended May 1st, while prohibition would not go into effect till the first day in May. Accordingly free wine is available in such counties for the next week.
The liver and kidneys are sluggish and inactive, Hood's Sarsaparilla will rouse them to prompt and energetic action. Take it now.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Sadly Disappointed.
There was a great deal of disappointment expressed yesterday over realization of the fact that the Memorial Services could not be held at the Cemetery. The ladies had made great preparations and all had a large amount of beautiful flowers prepared. But Mr. Donlan, the Superintendent at Oakdale, was probably the most thoroughly disappointed of any. He always takes much interest in the event and cheerfully assists the ladies in their preparations at the grounds. This year he had made more elaborate preparations than ever before and the disappointment to him was indeed a very great one.
Wide-Awake for May.
Steffeck's fine painting, famous in Berlin, of Queen Louise and her two young sons (the just dead Emperor William and his elder brother Frederick), is reproduced as the frontispiece of the May Wide-Awake, which, in connection with a little account entitled "His Mother's Boy," also gives a portrait of the late Emperor from the very last photograph made of him. This number, in its series "Children of the White House," by Harriet Taylor Upton, prints a delightful chapter entitled "The Family of James Madison," fully illustrated from paintings never before engraved; among them are four beautiful portraits of Mistress Dolly Madison, and one of a favorite grand-daughter of President Jefferson, Septimia Randolph. The stories of the number are particularly good. There are poems by Frank Dempster Sherman, Miss Perrault, M. E. B., Christian Burke, and good things to read in the "Contributors and the Children," by Mrs. Mary B. Dodge and others. $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

Clerks in Council.
A large and enthusiastic meeting of clerks and employes in business houses was held at the city court room last night and much interest was manifested.
On motion, of Mr. J. S. Barrentine was elected chairman and Mr. W. N. Jacobs secretary.
Mr. T. M. Pickett addressed the meeting, stating the object for which it was called, and moved that a committee of five be appointed to request the dry goods, shoe, grocery and clothing stores to close at one o'clock every Friday afternoon, commencing on the first of June and ending the 15th of September, in order that the clerks might have some need recreation. The committee appointed consists of Messrs. T. G. Pickett, J. D. Mallard, J. M. Chestnut, Jas. Yopp and Henry Persse.
After this, a committee, consisting of W. N. Jacobs, Chas. Cutts, Jno. Roddick, Jas. Ford and J. F. Whitaker, was appointed to see the ladies and gentlemen of the city and request them to sign a petition not to purchase goods at any store during the holiday season which will not grant the clerks a half holiday.
It was also moved and carried that the city papers be requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting, after which the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.
The petition will be prepared immediately, and the first committee will wait upon the merchants to get their sentiments in regard to the half holiday question, and this committee will then confer with the second committee, who will at once commence the work assigned to it.
Wake County Primaries.
It is currently reported here that most of the townships in Judge Fowle's own county, out side of Raleigh, have declared against him. That this is true as to a large number is beyond question, as will appear by reference to the State Chronicle received last night. Whether the gentlemen in Raleigh who run politics can control the country delegates when their Convention meets, is yet to be seen. But the fact remains the same, that there is a very large sentiment which was so strong and aggressive in Wake County against Judge Fowle that it expressed itself openly and defiantly at the polls. This is only another corroboration that the strength claimed for him is entirely fictitious and exists only in the imagination of newspaper correspondents.
In view of these reverses will Judge Fowle continue any longer in the field?
Death of a Wilmingtonian.
We regret very much to learn of the death of Mr. Fred H. Burr, a native of this city, and up to about eight years ago a resident here. He died at Morganton at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was the second son of Col. James G. Burr, of this city, and was aged 39 years, having been born May 21st, 1849. Mr. Burr was for many years a conductor on the Carolina Central R. R. In 1879 he married Miss Lillian Walton, of Morganton, in this State, and in 1881 he removed to that place where he has ever since resided. His death was sudden, although he had been for some time past a sufferer from rheumatism. His wife and two charming children, both girls, survive him. Col. Burr left here this morning to attend the funeral, which will take place at Morganton to-morrow afternoon.

Asheville Primaries.
A telegram just received in this city from Judge Charles A. Moore, of Asheville, states that Stedman has swept the primaries held there to-day. Out of 36 delegates from Asheville township to County Convention 35 are for Stedman.
Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday School at 4 p. m. At the evening service the sermon will be the last of the series on "Social Amusements;" subject, "The Theatre." Seats free. All are welcome.
The Cornet Concert Club and the Germania Cornet Band, are two musical organizations of which any city might feel proud. They added largely yesterday to the interest of the services by the delightful music they rendered.
Rev. F. W. E. Peschau and Mr. W. H. Strauss have returned to the city from attendance on the Lutheran Synod.
The steamer Sylvan Grove will leave to-morrow at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for Harper's Peir, returning at 6 o'clock.
Services in St. John's Church to-morrow at 7:30 and 11 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Nearly There.
A small party of gentlemen, the Editor of this paper happening to be of the number, rode down the Seacoast Railway yesterday as far as the terminus. We rode on a flat car without springs and over a new road and the unanimous verdict of the party was that the riding was as good as that on many old and settled roads. President Latimer and Superintendent Chadbourn were with the party and the visit was for the purpose of inspecting progress. For a short distance, on the way down, the run was at the rate of 25 miles an hour, and on the return we made one mile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. We found the road completed to within about one-half mile of the Lewis Martin place and the track layers are expected to get there to-night. By Tuesday night they hope to reach the creek and if they find the trestle all ready for them to cross when they get there they will probably be at the Sound by next Saturday night. The indications now seem favorable to the opening of the road by the first of June but we think it will be a little later than that.

Lecture.
On Friday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock, at the Opera House, Rev. W. S. Creasy will deliver a lecture on "Stepping Stones to Success" for the benefit of Grace M. E. Church.
