

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII

WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1888.

NO 116.

Nominated for the office of Lieutenant Governor, one without profit in any way, he made a campaign which will long be remembered in the annals of our party. When he has been struck down not one word of complaint has ever fallen from his lips. The tempter has never entered his heart; the enemy has never dared to whisper treason into his ear; and even those who differed with him bear glad testimony to his heroic fortitude and his sublime faith in the principles of the Democratic party. In the line of promotion, from a section, ignored for half a century, with a record wonderful for its purity, his nomination almost a necessity, shall such a man be sacrificed uselessly and without cause? We appeal to the Democrats of the great West to see that he has fair play. Of all the men of Eastern Carolina he has been your most pronounced, bold and open friend, ever demanding and insisting that the whole internal revenue system should be abolished. In this matter he has never counted the cost, but has defied all opposition and demanded it as a matter of justice to the people of Western North Carolina. To the magnanimity and generosity of the people of that section, we present his unbroken record of friendship in their behalf. We rejoice to believe that the nomination of Lieut. Gov. Stedman can be prevented by no trade or combination. As candidate after candidate has been named, his friends have still made good the fight; their strength unshattered and their columns unbroken, the victory is already well nigh won, and we call upon the Democrats in every county in the State not to throw it away by indifference or neglect. Common justice, the necessities of the situation, and the welfare of the party and the State alike demand the nomination of Lieut. Gov. Chas. M. Stedman.

The news comes in with a rush and it is all for Cleveland. He is a bold man—or a silly one—who would aspire to the nomination against our Grover.

Roswell P. Flower thinks that the Republican party will go into liquidation very soon, and that its last convention will be held at Chicago.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself and superior to all other preparations in strength, economy, and medicinal merit.

The Passport will go out to the Blackfish Grounds on Thursday. She will leave here at 4 a. m. and will stop at points on the way, going and returning. It is likely that there will be fine sport on that day. The wind will probably get around to the South-to-night or to-morrow and then won't the fish bite?

Some enlargement of the store occupied by Mrs. Wiggins is now in contemplation and with this in view she is offering for sale at cost the entire stock of trimmings, embroideries, notions, &c., with the expectation of enlarging the millinery department.

Home again. You will find us back in our old quarters, No. 27 Market street, from where we had to move on account of the late fire. We are now prepared to furnish our customers with the best of Ship's, Gent's Drawers and Furnishings, Goods. Try us, Wilmington Street Factory, J. Elsbach, Prop.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young. In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, you cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Indications.
For North Carolina, warmer, except stationary temperature on the coast, fair weather and winds becoming light to fresh variable.

Pentecost.
The Jewish Feast of Pentecost, or Sh'voo-os, Weeks, will be celebrated this evening and to-morrow. It is the anniversary of the divine revelation at Sinai, 3,200 years ago, and a solemn festival of rejoicing. It is likewise called the Feast of Weeks, seven weeks being counted from the Passover, until its commencement. Deut. xvi: 9-12.

Howell & Cumming.
Attention is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Howell & Cumming, as it appears in this issue. A few months ago the firm established themselves in business here and they have already made a handsome success. The upholstered spring beds they manufactured are a specialty but they make also many other articles in their line of business. They are located on Third street, opposite the City Hall.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:

John Bennett, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.

Jim Bennett, disorderly conduct. Judgment suspended.

A case against John Hawkins was continued until to-morrow.

Big Time on the 20th.
The thirty-fifth anniversary of the Wilmington Light Infantry falls due on Sunday next, the 20th inst., but Monday will be observed. At the regular company meeting held at the Armory last night arrangements for a due celebration of the auspicious day were inaugurated.

Lieut. Morrison submitted and read the programme for the celebration, and the same was adopted, as follows:

Company will assemble Monday morning next at the Armory at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 12 o'clock the flag presentation will take place in front of the City Hall. The company will be in full dress uniform. The presentation on behalf of the ladies will be made by the Rev. Dr. Carmichael and the accepting speech will be made by Col. J. L. Cantwell.

The members will then disperse, but will reassemble at the Armory at 2 o'clock in fatigue uniform, to take the steamer Sylvan Grove for an excursion to Carolina Beach. The boat will leave at 3 p. m.

As soon as the arrival is made at the Beach, the annual target shooting will take place for the Company gold medal, which was won last year by Private J. S. Hooper.

Returning home the boat will leave at 6:30 p. m. and arrive in the city at 7:30 o'clock. The company will then march to the corner of Front and Market streets, where they will disperse and go home to prepare for a reception to be given at the Armory at 8:30 o'clock that night.

The reception will open with music by the Cornet Concert Club, after which there will be singing and music by the company choir.

The Germania Cornet Band will play next and then the toast programme will be carried out with music alternating.

The following committees were appointed:

On steamer Sylvan Grove—Captain John H. Daniels, Second Lieutenant J. C. Morrison, President D. T. Cronly, Private Walker Taylor, Private J. W. Carmichael.

Resolution of Thanks.
As the second quarterly conference of Grace Methodist E. Church, South, held on the fourteenth day of May, 1888, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The congregation of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church South, having worshipped for more than two years in the Temple of Israel in this city, commencing immediately after the great fire (February 21st, 1888) in which their former beautiful church edifice went down in flames, and

WHEREAS, Appreciating as we do the kindness of the Rabbi, Rev. Dr. Mendelshon, and his congregation, in tendering them house of worship to us in such fullness of religious spirit, and fraternity, in the hour of our calamity, therefore, by this Conference be it,

Resolved, That in behalf of ourselves, and the congregation which we represent, we tender to Dr. Mendelshon and his congregation our most hearty thanks for their kindness to us in our hour of need, and assure them that we shall ever cherish in our hearts the beauty of the act and the spirit that prompted it.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Secretary to the congregation of the Temple of Israel, and that the city papers be requested to publish the same.

W. M. POISSON,
Secretary.

Butt's Panorama.
The entertainment at the Opera House last night, which consisted of Mr. Butt's panorama of Scriptural scenes, was well attended but not by as large an audience as the merits of the paintings would have justified. The explanations of Mr. Frazier, the lecturer, were clear and explicit and altogether the exhibition was a very pleasing one. Tonight will be the last here and those who have not yet attended have the opportunity offered them.

Ger barque Margarethe, Supplies, cleared to-day for Glasgow with 1,100 casks spirits turpentine and 3,676 barrels rosin, valued at $21,400, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.
