WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1888.

NO 126

One of the newly elected pages of the Iowa House of Representatives is a ten-year-old girl.

A collection of orchids owned by Mr. William H. Chadwick, of Chicago, is probab-y the finest in the United States. He has in his greenhouses about 3,500 plants, comprising 560 varieties.

A scientific journal says that there is no properly recorded instance of a railroad locomotive ever attaining a speed greater than eighty miles an hour, and that higher speeds are mythical.

Nearly all of the United States Senators are large men, their average weight running close to 180 pounds. Their entire weight, according to a statistical correspondent, is nearly 14,000 pounds.

European nations have already appropriated about 6,500,000 of the 11,000,000 square miles of Africa, and as the great desert occupies 2,300,000 square miles, only about 2,500,000 square miles remain to be scrambled

Sho Nemoto, a Japanese student in the University of Vermont, gives some interesting facts about his country. The Japanese, he says, read more American than English books. Last year 85,000 English and 119,000 American books were imported. Until recently all the editors of all the newspapers were men, but in March last a temperance paper was established in Tokio by Miss Asai and Mrs. Sasaki, the secretary of the Tokio Woman's Chris-

Two large walnut planks were on view in New York last week before being shipped to the Brussels and Paris exhibitions. They were 2-inch black walnut planks, 40 inches wide and 22 feet long, each one weighing 600 pounds. They were cut in Evansville, Ind., a fornight ago. One is perfect, without a single flaw, while the other has one small knot in it, about one inch in diameter. They will both be oiled and packed, and the one for the Brussels exhibi. tion will be shipped on Wednesday.

Gen. Joseph E. Johnston says that he has no doubt that his contribution to the Grand Army fund will be followed by that of other Ex-Confederates, and adds. "There was no animosity between Northern and Southern soldiers during the war. I remember three or four times when, under flags of truce, the opposing ranks rushed together and broke into fraternal groups. I never met a veteran of Sherman's army without pleasure. The animosity against the South was fomented by politicians, not by veterans."

Cremation is gaining ground slow ly but surely in New York City, and the crematory operated by the United States Cremation Company, at Fresh Pond, L. I., is now paying expenses. Since the organization of the company in December, 1885, there have been 186 bodies incinerated-129 males and 57 females These were the bodies of people in all the different stations and employments of life, although the more intellectual occupations are best represented, as a rule. Merchants stand highest in number, physicians second, and journalists third of those who have directed that their bodies be disposed of in this manner.

The cremation of two sons of the King of Siam, which occurred at the end of February, was a ceremony of great magnificence. For fifteen days Bangkok was given up to revelry. No work was done, and such amusements as fireworks, illuminations and interminable dramatic performances were provided nightly and kept up till 2 or 3 o'clock a. m. The building in which by their physician. the cremation was effected cost more than $250,000, and externally presented the appearance of a palace of gold, so gorgeously was it or-namented. Yet it was only a temporary structure, and has since been taken down.

Bowden had been invalided, suffering from a complication of diseases, chief among which was Bright's disease. Lately he had seemed better and hopes were being entertained of his ultimate recovery, but last evening, about 7 o'clock, while sitting at the supper table in company with his mother and two sisters he was seized with a vertigo and fel back in his chair and expired almost erson pianos and has already sold before any one could reach his side.

Capt. Bowden was about 45 years' of age and had been in the employ of the W. C. & A. R. R. continuously since the close of the war as a passenger conductor. He was prompt, faithful and efficient in the discharge of his duties and courteous and considerate to all.

He entered the Confederate service when a mere boy and served faithfully and cheerfully throughout the war. He was first a member of Co I, 18th N. C. Regiment, He became a prisoner of war on the | Marshals and their aids. Another lot of those celebrated fall of that stronghold and was tathe war and returned to his home.

Capt. Bowden had never married. His life was devoted to the care of his widowed mother and sisters, to whom he was thoroughly devoted and who, God help them, are inconsolable in their great loss. He was a man of varm and ardent impulses, with a heart which harbored none but kindly thoughts for others, of an integrity unquestioned and of a walk in life honorable and honest member of Grace M.
