VOL XII

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY. MAY 29, 1888.

Personal.

Mr. A. F. Lucas leaves here towith all his flery industry, with his night on an extended business trip visit to some of the Northern vines.

Mr. Geo. H. Kelley has gone to West Point, Va., on a visit to his son, Mr. A. H. Kelley

Mr. T. Sessoms, of Gravely Hill, in Bladen county, is in the city today. He tells us that farming operations are retarded somewhat by the heavy rains.

Mr. C. H. Addis in, who has been in the city for a week past in the interest of Mr. J. L. Stone's music house, at Raleigh, will leave here to-morrow on his return. He will go from Raleigh to Asheville and ex pects to return to Wilmington by the middle of June. Mrs. Addison will probably remain here and await his return.

Parade and Inspection.

Inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry, by Col. Cameron InspectorGeneral of theStateGuard took place yesterday afternoon in front of the City Hall. The company made a handsome appearance in their bright new uniforms. The here a pleasant one. Cornet Concert Club were present and furnished music for the occasion

After the inspection the Light Infantry paraded on Market street, where they were drilled in the drill was a trying one, but the company went through the various evolutions with marvellous precision. The parade was very much enjoyed by the spectators, among whom there were many ladies.

Preparing for the Encampment.

Gen. Lewis, Chief of Engineers of the Governor's Staff, and Col. Olds Quartermaster General, went down to Wrightsville vesterday, in com pany with Col. W. C. Jones, of the Second Regiment, and laid off the grounds for the encampment. Gen. Lewis and Col. Olds expressed themselves as well pleased with the situation, which they said could not be surpassed anywhere. grounds are ample-sufficient in extent, indeed, to encamp double the number in the State Guard. camp will be located in the grove in Seaside Park, regularly laid out with streets and avenues, and every provision made for the health and organizing the Mechanics' Base Ball comfort of the troops. Kitchens will be built, and a number of wells sunk to furnish an abundant supply of wholesome water. Several of the residents at the Sound have tendered their cottages for the use of the commanding officer of the State Guard and his staff, and Mrs. Her. bert Latimer and Mrs. W. A. Wright have proffered their grounds, adjacent to the camp, for drill purposes. The Seacost Railroad will transport the troops to and from the encampment free of cost. Goy. Scales and all the State offi cers will visit the encampment, and the Governor will be actually in command, remaining with the troops through out the week.

The Passport was crowded last evening on the excursion trip she made about the harbor. There were about 300 persons on board. The run was to Hilton, Navassa and opposite the lower part of the city. It is probable that these excursions will be given twice a week here-

Humiliating.

It is a shame the street was not kept closed yesterday for the benefit of the W. L. I. during the inspection. It was humiliating to see drays driven right between the reviewing officer and the line. It was done purposely and yet nothing was done to prevent it.

The Queen of St. John's will come to Wilmington this Summer, as was stated by us in yesterday's issue. She will arrive here from Savannah, it is said, about the first of July. The REVIEW has said its say and has done its duty. It will neither repent nor repeat.

There will be a meeting to-night in the hall on Third street, opposite the City Hall, for the purpose of re-Club. Those who have been notifled to attend are requested to be promptly on hand.
